The Wanamaker Store.

THIS store needs no general advertising now-a-days. We have done with that. You ask for News—and that it shall be: daily talks about new things we have for personal and household use; daily talks about special prices at which you can buy very many things that you need now or presently.

The store is as newsy as your favorite newspaper, and each day's batch is worth reading—every word of it.

We do not talk of paltry lots, but even big lots go out quickly, so if you would be sure to get your share of any article we tell of, come during the day the news is printed.

Hosiery and Glove Sale

The once-a-year thorough clearance of Hosiery, Knitted Underwear and Gloves started yesterday with lots that counted up this way—

17,688 pairs of Gloves—men's, women's and children's.
17,000 pairs of Stockings—men's and women's (there were children's too, but all gone now).
10,764 pieces of Wool and Merino Underwear—men's, women's and children's.

The selling was very great—too great to allow of accurate census taking at the time we wrote this—but substracting the dollars we received from the dollars' worth we put out, we state with some accuracy that you will have to choose from today—

Three thousand and seven hundred dollars' worth of Hosiery and Underwear.
Twenty-nine hundred dollars' worth of Gloves.

Prices Third to a Half the Usual, with a few exceptions, where the reduction is a little less than one-half.

Men's Gloves—for driving, walking and dress—First Floor.
Women's and Children's Gloves—including women's long gloves for evening wear—Fifth Floor.
Men's Half-Hose and Underwear—First Floor.
Women's Hosiery up to $1, a pair, on Fifth Floor. The other lots on First Floor.
Women's and Children's Underwear—First Floor.

Men's Suits and Overcoats

EVERY ITEM A BARGAIN

There's been a round-up of suits—newly branded with the mark $12. Among them, not a suit worth less than $15, the most of them $18 values, not a few that were moderately priced at $20. The fabrics are stylish cheviots and medium-color worsteds. Mostly with the popular double-breasted vests. All sizes.

Men's Overcoats—Blue and black kerseys that were $18 and $20, are now $13.50.
Men's Ulsters—A new style. An authority on ready-to-wear clothing says it's a good $25 value. It's a fair $22.50 coat according to our standard of valuation, but the price is $15. Of silver-gray cheviot, lined with pure worsted suiting; satin sleeve lining. Another good value is an ulster of all-wool Oxford frieze, wool lined, at $15.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Standard Dictionary, $6.50

Told of the good fortune yesterday—that we had a few hundred copies of the regular standard-bound Standard Dictionary to sell at $6.50. This second word merely to let you, who've been thinking it over, know that you can get a copy today. The working library of today has the Century for brief encyclopedic and exhaustive dictionary features; it has also the Standard for quick reference.

But the Standard has not been obtainable at $6.50 until now.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

DINING-ROOM MASTERPIECES

In modified Colonial style—their pilgrim fathers never had half the simple elegance. Sideboards, with rich, shell-like carvings, projecting tops, supported by delicate fluted pillars, slightly accessed cellaret, cupboard and drawers, claw feet, exquisite mouldings—no end to their artistic points. Side Tables, as so as finely finished as art and skill can make them, and many now reduced below even factory prices, as you

R-I-P-A-N-S, 10 for 5 cents at druggists. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief.

Breathes there a man with aching head
Who never to himself hath said
If I had Ripans Tabules now.
They'd stop the throbbing of my brow.
