FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

To Her Majesty--the Easter Bride, our gardens of spring beauty give the most complete furnishing and decorating hints.

Color fascinating—in the carpets—most exquisite "early blossom" tints caught and caged (to stay captive) on soft woolly surfaces. In the furniture—enamelled and natural woods—paintings and inlays artfully blended.

Grace bewildering—in our special line of desks; dainty oak ones at $5.50, bird's-eye maple $9.00, birch $9.50—all with artistic and convenient interiors and arrangements. Besides, are magnificently carved or inlaid mahogany ones; small ones in Empire style, others in maple and birch painted a la Sheraton—and between the extremes are all sorts of happy mediums, including L'Art Nouveau.

For beauty and economy combined,

SIXTH AVENUE, 20th to 21st Street. O'Neill's. SIXTH AVENUE, 20th to 21st Street.

For years this house has been noted for the production of its millinery—for its exclusiveness in style and trimming, and for its moderate prices—a reputation attained only through hard work and good judgment and a reputation which we maintain to-day, for in no other store will you find so wide a range of style from which to choose, from the modest little walking hat to the finest Paris novelty for carriage or reception wear, and all at reasonable prices, too. This week we will add to our already large collection a number of just received. They are the handiwork of the most noted of Paris designers, and show many effects that are entirely new and not to be seen elsewhere.

MAGNIFICENT IMPORTED HATS

Untrimmed Hats.

No other store in town carries so large an assortment of Straw Goods as you will find here. Every new shape, braid and color manufactured for this season's wear will be found in stock, as well as many exclusive novelties designed specially to our order. It's the biggest and best Hat stock we have ever gathered, and you'll find the prices just as attractive as the Hats. Come in to-day and see them!
