TO CURE FELONS.

S. Osher, of Higganum, Conn., informs us that by keeping the felon finger in hot water for a long time, it will remove the pain. The water must be kept as hot as it is possible for the person to bear. He cured one on himself by this plan, and has known of it being equally efficacious with other persons.

The Expected Great Comet.

The eminent astronomer, M. Babinet, member of the French Academy of Sciences, gives some very interesting details relative to the return of that great comet, whose periodical course is computed at three hundred years.

It was observed in the years 101, 392, 682, 975, again 1264, and the next time in 1556, always described as shining with the most extraordinary brilliancy. Most of the European astronomers had agreed in announcing the return of this comet in 1848; but it has hitherto failed to appear. In fact, it is not so easy or simple a matter to compute those vast cyclical periods as some superficial persons, who do not look beyond the day of the year in which they live, may imagine.

We are assured, however, by M. Babinet, that up to this moment, this beautiful star "is living on its brilliant reputation." We are now informed that a celebrated and accurate computer—M. Bomme, of Middleburg—has gone over all previous calculations and made a new estimate of the separate and combined action of all the planets upon this comet of three hundred years; and he has discovered that it is not lost to us, but only retarded in motion. The result of this severe labor gives the arrival of this rare and renowned visiter in August, 1858, with an uncertainty of two years, more or less; so that between 1856 and 1860 those who are then living may hope to see the great luminary which in 1556 caused Charles V. to abdicate.—Scientific American.

MAYOR WOOD'S REBUKE OF AN EXTORTIONER.—A young woman, a day or two since, made a complaint before Mayor Wood, of New York, the substance of which was, that she took of a shirt manufacturing firm in that city three shirts to make at twelve and a half cents each, depositing with the firm the sum of $2 as security for the cloth. When the shirts were finished she took them to the store, and the proprietor after examining the work, concluded to keep one, and said the other two must be ripped and stitched over again. This the young lady did, and on taking the two shirts to the store a second time, the work was again condemned. The woman then remonstrated, and offered to resign all claim to the pay for making the shirts, if the firm would refund her the deposit money, $2. This was refused, with the threat to throw the shirt into the street, and her after them. The young lady then made proper affidavit before the Mayor, when the proprietors of the store were summoned to appear and answer. One of the firm appeared at the Mayor's office, who explained that women were in the habit of imposing on them daily, by professing to sew in a neat manner, but in reality they often spoiled their work and then claimed pay for them in addition to the deposit of money paid in. After a full hearing in the case, the Mayor addressed the shirt manufacturer as follows:

"I will tell you your remedy, sir, give these girls a decent price for making a shirt; pay them a living salary, and you will have your work made in a decent manner. The shirts here are as well made as any person could wish, and have been so pronounced by many competent judges.

I should think you would be ashamed to have a poor girl work for you three days and nights at making three shirts for one shilling each, and then, not being content with that, to put down in their pass-book 'for making three shirts at 12 cents each, 36 cents.'

My decision is this that you pay back the girl her $2, and the shilling each for making the shirts, 33 cents."

THE SEA SERPENT.—It is reported by the British brig Aboena, recently arrived at Liverpool, that on the 4th of September last, about 5 P. M., in latitude 38° S., longitude 13° E., while the ship was under a light wind and in smooth water, a sea monster of great size and singular appearance was descried Attention was first directed to it by the broken action of the water, which otherwise was smooth all around. The animal was discovered protruding its head above water to the length of about thirty feet, at an angle of sixty degrees to the horizon. His head was about twelve feet long, and was marked by a white stripe or streak down each side. At about six feet from the termination of the streaks, which were presumed to be its jaws, there was a protuberance on its back like a small water cask. The creature kept its eye shut, but its eyes were plainly visible. At the point of contact with the water the body seemed about as large as the long boat. the general color was black, but under the jaw was a quantity of loose skin like a pouch of a lighter color than the rest of the animal. While under observation he dipped under water three times, remaining submerged about a minute each time. From the broken action of the water at different points it seemed as if protuberances similar to those on the back existed on various parts of the body. From the best conjecture that could be made its whole length was computed at 180 feet.

A MISTAKE ALL AROUND.

A 'Bizarre' tells the following good story: A person, who wore a suit of homespun clothes, stepped into a house in this city, on some business, where several ladies and gentlemen were assembled in an inner room. One of the company remarked, (in a low tone, though sufficiently loud to be overheard by the stranger,) that a countryman was in waiting, and agreed to make some fun. The following table talk ensued:

'You're from the country, I suppose?'

'Yes, I'm from the country.'

'Well sir, what do you think of the city?'

'Its got a durned sight of houses in it.'

'I expect there are great many ladies where you came from!'

'Wall, yes, a powerful sight, jest for all the world like them there,' (pointing to the ladies.)

'And you are quite a beau among them, no doubt?'

'Wall, I 'scort 'em to meetin' and about.'

'Maybe the gentleman will take a glass of wine,' said one of the company.

'Wall, don't care if I do.'

'But you must drink a toast.'

'I eats toast what Aunt Debby makes, but as to drinkin' it, I never seed the like.'

'O, you must drink their health!'

'Wi' all my heart.'

'Ladies and gentlemen, permit me to wish you health and happiness, with every other blessing this earth can afford, and advise you to bear in mind that we are often deceived by appearances. You mistook me, by my dress, for a country booby, I, from the same cause, thought these men to be gentlemen; the deception is mutual—I wish you good evening.'—Saturday Courier.

THE BEARD MOVEMENT, AND THE Eastern question; one and inseparable.—It is useless attempt to disguise the fact that the war in Europe is solely on account of certain heathenish notions which have crept into the hirsute brains of some persons, making them advance the idea that it was unnatural to shave. We might as well argue—it is unnatural to clothe ourselves. My advice in the premises is

NOTICE.

Messrs. Howard & Cowen:

I wish you, through the medium of your valuable paper, to inform the good citizens of this vicinity that I have received a LARGE and WELL SELECTED stock of

SEASONABLE GOODS!

Which will be sold on terms to suit buyers generally. And respectfully request a call from the goods buying community.

D. S. ADAMS.

St. Clairsville, ap. 29, 1853.

WM. SEIDWITZ. WILSON ASKEW.

SEIDWITZ & ASKEW having purchased the establishment of Mr. Isaac Askew, would respectfully inform the citizens of St. Clairsville and the surrounding country that they will constantly keep on hand a good assortment of

Saddles, Bridles, Harness, Collars, Whips,

and every other article usually kept in our line of business. Our work will be made with neatness and durability, and in any style desired. We would respectfully call the attention of the public to our mode of making collars as we think we have a pattern that is proof against galding the shoulders of any horse. We have also an extra quantity of Leather Wagon Whips. All of which we intend to sell low. Please give us a call and see for yourselves.

NOTICE.

I would just say to my friends and old customers that, owing to the state of my health, I have disposed of my shop to Mr. Wm. Seidwitz and my son Wilson, and the business will be conducted by them at my old stand. Feeling thankful to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me during my continuance in business, I would say that Mr. Seidwitz has been in my employ for several years past, and feel no hesitancy in recommending him to the public as a good workman who will do justice to them.

Yours, ISAAC ASKEW.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRATED CATHOLICON.

For the relief and Cure of suffering Females.

It stand pre eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOUR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe of how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

☞ Letter addressed to care of Mr. Curtis Hatch, agent at Ravenna, Ohio.

To Dr. Marchisi:—I have been ten years troubled with Female Complaints—prolapsus uteri, and all the attending difficulties; at times rendering my life most miserable. I have had the attendance of some of the best physicians, with but little success; the most they could do was to relieve—a cure was out of the question. For five months before commencing with your medicine, I had not been able to perform any labor, could walk but a few steps at a time, and scarcely went out of doors—in short, I was completely prostrated, both in body and mind, and expected to drag out the rest of my days in suffering and misery. But, reading your advertisement, I was induced to try your invaluable medicine called Uterine Catholicon, as the last resort. I had not used it a week before I felt like another woman. By the use of three bottles I was enabled to perform all the labor for six in the family with ease, and could walk any where in the neighborhood without injury. Nothing but a sense of my duty to you and to the afflicted, has induced me to state my case to the public. I can safely recommend the preparation to all those suffering like myself.

(Signed,) MRS. SARAH A. BISHOP.
