☞ Sixteenth Ward Whigs Opposed to the Outrageous Frauds of Primary Elections.—In Executive Committee, Oct. 10, 1851.

Fellow Citizens of the XVIth Ward: We address you as honest men determined to uphold, as far as in us lies, the purity of the ballot-box, to pause ere you give your support to the monstrous iniquities perpetrated at the Primary Election, held on the 9th. As the representatives of our party in the Ward, we pronounce the whole transaction of said election a willful and premeditated fraud, consummated by every species of corruption and violence, to which, as Whigs, we will no longer submit. The following simple statement of facts is all that need be said at this time: It is well known that an unfortunate division has existed in the party for some time, in the form of a Committee in opposition to that acknowledged by the General Committee. Your Committee, to make peace in the party, agreed to give the opposition two of the Inspectors, the four so appointed to select the fifth. These Inspectors met, but failing to agree they adjourned to a future time, when one of those appointed by the regular Committee was by the Committee displaced and a more trustworthy man appointed (as will appear by the annexed extracts from the proceedings of the Ward Committee). Prior to the time appointed by the Inspectors to decide upon the fifth man, Mr. Winthrop (who was no longer an Inspector) went to a house in the IXth Ward, known as the "Adriatic," where Wash. Smith was with his friends in caucus, and there did concur with said Smith in appointing John P. Cumings as the fifth man, the other three Inspectors not being present or in any way cognizant of the transaction. On the morning of the election, at the opening of the polls, the legally appointed Inspectors from the regular Committee were by a gang of rowdies forcibly and violently ejected from the room. We, therefore, solemnly declare the election was conducted by but one legal Inspector, Mr. Ed. Berrian, the other persons having no shadow of right to act legally or morally. We, therefore, declare that this Committee are not nor will they be bound by any nomination made under such fraudulent circumstances.

Executive Committee.

STEPHEN H. MUNN, JOHN TAYLOR,
WM. CRUSSELL, HENRY C. BOLSTER,
EDWIN TOPESON, GEO. W. CAMPBELL,
ALFRED CARHARTT, CHAS P. EDWARDS.

Extract from the Minutes of the Sixteenth Ward Committee.

OCTOBER 4, 1851.

New Manual of Geology for Colleges and Schools.

G. P. PUTNAM Publishes this day—ELEMENTS OF GEOLOGY, intended for the use of Students, by Prof. S. St. John, of the Western Reserve College, Ohio.

The Professor of Chemistry and Geology, of the Western Reserve College, has furnished us with an epitome for the use of Students, very well calculated to stimulate the mind of the reader to a desire for further knowledge, which the limits of this volume prevent being here presented. It is made interesting and attractive by plates to illustrate the text, and to explain that which without them might be unintelligible. More attention should be bestowed upon this branch of science.—Newark Advertiser.
