Special Notices.

☞ Sixteenth Ward.—TO THE WHIG ELECTORS OF THE SIXTEENTH WARD—In view of recent events, which have transpired in respect to the Primary Election of our party in this Ward, we beg leave to offer a few facts and suggestions for your serious consideration.

It is well known that an unfortunate division has existed in the Whig party of this Ward during the past year, in relation to representation in the Whig General Committee. The two Ward Committees feeling the importance of union, for the sake of the party, came to a mutual conference to hold one Primary Election. Each Committee appointed two Inspectors of Election, the four to choose the fifth. The Inspectors thus chosen proceeded, on the morning of the Primary Election, to act in their capacity, when two of them, who were known to be opposed to the ticket, which now claims the election, were forcibly thrust from the polls, while another refused to act. But one legal Inspector acted at said election, who, in connection with others never named in that capacity, declared a ticket elected, the same having received the number of 1,594 votes, while some 400 votes were opposed to it. We submit to your judgment by what means the number of 2,027 votes can be polled in one box in the space of three hours, viz., from 7½ to 10½ o'clock A. M., the time of opening and closing the polls.

In view of these facts the two Committees in joint conference openly repudiate such bare faced and palpable frauds, and at the urgent solicitation of many staunch Whigs, submit to you the following ticket, composed of men of sterling integrity, whose selection we sincerely believe is in accordance with the honest wish of a large majority of the Whigs of the XVIth Ward.

For Alderman—JOSEPH ROGERS.
For Assistant Alderman—HENRY B. BOLSTER.
For Assessor—STEPHEN MERRITT.
For Constables—MATTHEW HANNA, CORNELIUS R. CHICHESTER.

In presenting the names of these candidates we challenge the closest scrutiny into their merits, as men against whom do word can be said, and no imputations whatever brought, and we call upon the mechanics and workingmen of the Ward especially, to verify the truth of this assertion.

Many have been the warnings which we have had from sober, sound and prudent men in our own ranks concerning the danger of our course of conduct, besides the fatal consequences of that system to our opponents; but notwithstanding all, we have recklessly continued to err, thereby endangering the success of our cause.

That our cause is just, no one will deny. That men are corrupt, and deep, designing politicians and demagogues are particularly so, is a truth too apparent to need demonstration. That we have such men among us, who would seek for self-aggrandizement at the expense of all that is honorable in man, we have no doubt. Such men have lived in all ages and countries, and therefore we need not expect to escape the infliction of such characters. History imparts to us their rise, progress and speedy downfall, and hands their names down to posterity branded as traitors, and worthy of infamy and execration.

Under such circumstances what should be our course? Why should we hesitate to do an act which will at once purify and harmonize our ranks, when the regular Ward Committee, indorsed as such by the General Committe at Broadway House, as well as the majority of the opposing Ward Committee, fully indorse that act? Can we have any cause to regret a step at once fraught with so much benefit and of such vital consequence to our prospects and the success of our principles?

Our motto has been "Pinciples, not men." With this great fundamental doctrine, what should be our course but to seek the men who are actuated by that truth and integrity of motive and character, wonering their fellow citizens feel assured that their interests will not be betrayed, nor the trusts committed to their care be made secondary and subservient to private ends?

We believe all must unite with us in the opinion that this should be the course and the only course of honest men who have at heart the welfare of the country and the advancement of a good cause, as superior to the selfish schemes and menaces of cunning intriguers who would subvert every thing to their own base purposes.

Bearing this in mind, fellow-citizens and fellow-Whigs, we call upon you, in the first place, to assist us in eradicating and destroying the system heretofore adopted in the Primary Elections; and, in the second place, in sustaining the candidates whose names are herewith presented, provided they are such as are entitled to your confidence and esteem.

Before closing this address, we say, for the sake of peace and harmony, (both of which we lack to some extent at the present time,) that we find fault with no man or set of men for individual preferences, as we wish all to unite in those feelings of good fellowship which will enable us to gain the victory over our opponents; yet we will not in any degree tolerate the dictation or arrogant assumption of any scheming demagogue, be he who he may.

Leaving these matters for your serious and candid consideration, we cordially invite your efforts and cooperation in the election of the foregoing ticket, believing that they are men of unblemished character, having been tried and found faithful in the places to which they have been elevated by their fellow-citizens.

ROBERT H. SHANNON,
Chairman Joint Conference Committee.
JOHN McINTYRE, Secretary. o20

☞ Democratic Whig General Committee.—A Special Meeting of this Committee will be held on TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 21, at 7½ o'clock, at the Broadway House. By order, JOSEPH M. PRICE, Chairman.

In General Committee of Democratic Whig Young Men..... FRIDAY EVENING, Oct. 17, 1851.

☞ On motion, after debate as to the best manner of manifesting sympathy and respect toward General KOSSUTH, it was unanimously Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee be directed to draw up and publish in the name, and as the sentiment of this General Committee, the feelings entertained by its members in behalf of the Hero of Hungary, and the cause of Hungarian Independence. In behalf of the Committee, therefore, the following is presented by the Chairman:

Resolved, That the people of the United States, without distinction of party or section of country, deeply sympathize with the exiled LOUIS KOSSUTH, Governor of Hungary, in his banishment from his native land, and that as the God of Nations "has made of one blood all the nations of men who dwell upon the face of the earth," it is the duty of all our countrymen who appreciate the blessings of Liberty regulated by Law—who respect the rights of Man—who love Virtue and honor Patriotism, to receive the illustrious Exile, now on his way to our American shores, as a friend and a brother.

Resolved, That as the Hungarians, in the midst of their Revolution for Independence, turned their eyes to the United States as to the star of Hope, and as a model of a really Free Government, our countrymen have everywhere felt a peculiar interest in their struggles to secure the rights guaranteed to them by their forefathers, and which their descendants are eminently fitted to enjoy. They who appreciate a Government of Liberty and Law, and who are ready to make any personal sacrifice to secure so great a boon, deserve not only to be free, but are entitled to the sympathy and encouragement of every friend of Freedom throughout the civilized world.

Resolved, That the Hungarian Revolution was conducted with a forbearance, moderation and heroism, which have excited the admiration of the great and good of all nations. In the struggles of the Magyars for Independence, we behold neither the excesses of anarchy nor the weakness of timidity, neither social disorganization, nor the spirit of innovation, neither a wish to overthrow old and established rights, nor a desire to secure any power beyond that which was guaranteed to every Hungarian in the Constitution of his country, and by his own rights as a citizen of a great Empire. Strong in their love of liberty, wise and judicious in the manner in which they maintained their struggle to be free, the great end and aim of their Revolution was to secure the blessings of Independence to themselves and their posterity forever.

Resolved, That our countrymen, now so free, prosperous and happy—so blessed with all that is desirable in a land teeming with plenty—so rich in the fruits of internal and external wealth—so mighty in the possession of vast rivers and lakes, which are the great arteries of our Continent and its commerce, surrounded by the great oceans of enterprise and trade—citizens of a country eminently intelligent, patriotic and industrious—of a country, too, in everything now indicating that glorious future which has only been foreshadowed by the historical past and the beautiful present—owe it as an example to all the world to receive with open arms and warm hearts every son and daughter of liberty who may have been banished from the old and despotic Governments of Europe for no other crime than a desire to secure the forms and benefits of a free, equal and intelligent Government to the whole race of man. We welcome all such to the land of Washington, and we are ready to share with all such the gifts of our fathers, and the blessings which they bequeathed to their favored children.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Nation are due to the American Congress for inviting the Governor of Hungary to the United States, and to President Fillmore and his Administration, for the manner in which, in a National Ship, and under the Stars and Stripes, they have conveyed him from a Turkish prison, soon to reach a country as free as the great waters over which he will be borne to our shores.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,
ERASTUS BROOKS, Chairman.
