Hats & Caps—latest Fashions

THOMAS L. MARTIN, at his old stand on King, three doors above Fairfax street, has on hand an extensive assortment of

HATS of the latest Fashion,
and all the variety of shapes and qualities that are worn, manufactured under his own immediate inspection, by the most experienced workmen.

Having sold out his establishment in Washington, his whole attention will be devoted to his business in Alexandria; and he is determined to have his work got up in a style that will give satisfaction.
He has also a large supply of
TRAVELLING CAPS,
comprising all the variety of the season, viz. -Sea Otter, Mock Otter, Cloth, Hair, Seal, &c. All of which he will sell on pleasing terms, wholessle or retail.
Dealers are invited to call and examine his stock.

Cheap for Cash.

OZEN JOSSELYN, Agent, (corner of King and Royal streets, opposite Wright & Maddox,) respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has on hand, and continues to manufacture, first, medium, and low quality,

SUPERIOR BLACK HATS,

Stop the Thief!—Stop the THIEF!!

A DARING villain entered my stable on the night of Wednesday, the 20th of this month, and stole my RIDING HORSE, SADDLE, BRIDLE, MARTINGALE and COLLAR — The Horse is about sixteen hands high, seven or eight years old next spring; of dark iron grey color, with a long and full switch tail, which is white towards the end; he has large legs, is of coarse and heavy appearance, but rides well for one of his size; has a blister on the right side, occasioned by a saddle scald, which was bare when he was stolen He carries his fore feet so close as to cut his ancles, unless great care is taken in shoeing him, and marks now appear on them made by his shoes

The Saddle is old, with plated stirrups, much effaced, and a cloth of twilled cotton, spotted, and somewhat resembling a leopard skin The Bridle has red leather reins and snaffle bit; and the Martingale is of red leather, with plated hooks.

About two o'clock on Thursday morning, the 21st instant, a man about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, of spare figure, thin visage, of genteel and youthful appearance, with dark hair, was seen in Alexandria, D. C. by the watchmen of the town, riding a horse of the above description, which, from his appearance, had been rode fast. The watchmen describe this man as pert in his manner, and of quick speech—he wore a cloth cap, with a large tassel, and a dark camlet cloak; his departure from Alexandria was sudden, and circumstances justify the belief that he went towards Washington, and thence Northward.

For the recovery of the Horse, I will give a reward of Thirty Dollars, and the additional sum of Fifty Dollars for the conviction of the Thief

Any information on this subject may be communicated to Bernard Hooe, of Alexandria, as I expect to be absent from home for several weeks.

Land for sale.

I OFFER for sale my Plantation called CLOVER LAND, lying in the County of Prince William, 35 miles distant from Alexandria and Washington. It contains

1200 ACRES,
Has on it a large DWELLING HOUSE, Barn, and other improvements, and an excellent Mill Seat, on which a Saw Mill is erected. The land has been well tilled, and for several years past improved by the use of clover and plaster; the effects of which are no where more visible, or more fully proven. It is divided into fields of an equal and convenient size, and under the best enclosures. This Plantation is justly considered among the best in the upper country; its situation is healthful and beautiful.
As purchasers will view the premises before making an offer, farther particulars are deemed unnecessary. If desired, immediate possession may be given. Letters addressed to me (post paid) may be directed to this place. CHARLES SHIRLEY CARTER.
Richmond City, Oct. 10th, 1823.
N B. In my absence, Mr. Edmund Newman, Agent, on the premises, will attend to gentlemen wishing to view the premises. C. S. C.
