Local News.

El Tann returned to Nemaha a few days ago.

Blank Notes, Farm Leases, Bills of Sale, etc., for sale at this office.

H. A. Kyle, the veterinary, visited several points in Missouri this week.

Who could ask for better winter weather than we have had this year?

Nat Smith is very sick with pneumonia fever. His recovery is doubtful.

We had quite a snow storm Wednesday morning, but the snow is all gone now.

Prof. W. L. Davenport was one of the chief disputants at the Shubert lyceum last Friday evening.

Miss Mary Davidson, of Douglas, Nebr., visited her friend, Miss May Brooks, a few days this week.

Mrs. David Tourtelot came down from Lincoln last week, to assist in taking care of her mother, Mrs. A. D.
Skeen.

Rev. Mr. Willis, a Holiness minister, preached at the Christian church Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Rev. J. B. Denton preached a series of sermons Hillsdale this week.
He will preach at the brick church east of Shubert next week.

William Mounts, the fellow who held up William Dishong at St. Derois last fall, was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the pen.

The B. & M. has closed its night offices at Salem and Preston, Neb.
This throws Ed Wheelodon, who was night operator at Preston, out of a job.

Mrs. S. A. Scovill, who has been visiting her son at Omaha and her daughter at Plattsmouth for several weeks, returned home Friday of last week.

Several of our citizens have been attending the meetings of the literary society at Shubert. What is the matter with Nemaha organizing a literary.

R. Reasoner, who has been studying telegraphy with H. A. Wheelodon at Shubert, went to Omaha last week, where he passed a successful agent's examination.

Seymour Howe called in Thursday and subscribed for the State Journal, Inter Ocean, Toledo Blade and New York Tribune in connection with THE ADVERTISER.

Kerker & Hoover, J. H. Littrell and A. L. Jarvis have been busy putting up ice this week. They felt that it was about their last chance to get good ice this season.

J. C. Miller and family arrived in Nemaha Tuesday. We understand Jim has come back to stay, and is looking for a house to rent, but vacant houses in Nemaha are unknown these days.

Rev. Mr. Beck, of Wesleyan University, Lincoln, preached at the M. E. church Sunday evening. He is attending the university and preparing himself to go as a missionary in the heathen countries.

County Commissioners McIninch and Davis were in town Tuesday, looking after the poor. Mr. McIninch took Mr. Davis down in "the hills," to show him what kind of a country we did have in that part of the country.

We have received from Dr. A. S.
Holladay a copy of the Stillwater (Oklahoma) Populist of Jan. 30th, containing a supplement advertising his fine horse, Almont Aberdeen, who has been winning new laurels in Oklahoma.

Rabe Elliott shipped a car of hogs to Kansas City Thursday night. Dave Miller went down with them.

We understand some one stole a fine male Berkshire hog from C. Shuck a few nights ago. The fellow evidently had good judgment in the selection of hogs, if he did not have much regard for the laws of his country.

Gilbert & Son pay in trade 20 cents for corn. No one has been obliged to sell a bushel of corn for less than 20 cents to pay them as they allow the use of their cribs to parties owing them who wish to hold their corn.

Mrs. Littrell asks us to say that if the county will take care of its victims according to law there will not be so many crazy people in Nemaha. Slurs in their places are a very good thing, but out of their places are a bad thing.

Casner Barnes was in town Monday, and of course called at these headquarters. Cas says he is trying hard to convert the benighted people of his section, and bring them into the fold for McKinley, but finds them very obstinate critters.

It has been suggested that a branch of the C. L. S. C.—Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle—be organized in Nemaha. It would certainly be profitable as well as interesting. Those wishing to join can get particulars by inquiring of Rev. C. H. Gilmore.

Rev. James Hiatt, accompanied by Rev. Ackeman, of Nebraska City, were in town Thursday morning, on their way home from the Rulo conference.
They report a very interesting session at Rulo, two elders and three deacons being ordained. Revs. Hiatt and Acke-man will commence a meeting at Nebraska City tonight.

Hon. T. J. Majors was elected junior vice commander of the Nebraska A. K. at the encampment held at Omaha this week. Capt. J. H.
Culver, commander of the House at Milford, was elected commander, and John Erhardt, of Stanton, was elected senior vice commander.
The reunion will be held at Lincoln for the next five years.

Another disgraceful racket occurred on our streets one day this week. A few persons in Nemaha seem to consider it is their privilege every time they fill up or get riled at any one (and these two things generally go together) to get out on the streets and howl and swear and black-guard. They should be taught a lesson, and probably will be the next time this occurs.

C. Shuck has had some letter heads, envelopes and cards printed for the "Nemaha Valley Berkshire Farm." Mr. Shuck is breeding some of the finest Berkshire hogs to be found anywhere. He has disposed of about all his surplus stock now, but will have more ready for market soon. If you want some fine stock at a reasonable figure, you cannot miss it by seeing him.

BEGG'S HAIR RENEWER

the market. It will stop hair falling out or turning gray. Give it a trial.

tion by our popular druggist, M. H.
Taylor.

sions papers of all kinds, made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours. M. H. Taylor.

Gilbert & Son pay in trade 20 cents
them who wish to hold their corn.

The so-shy-able given at the Minick Hall Thursday night was very interesting. The recitation by Miss Kate Frost was excellent and the music by Miss Maud Minick, Miss Veva Clark, Ed. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. J. R.
Maddox, with Miss Bessie Kay at the organ, was good.

Mrs. Hartwick, Mrs. Kay and Miss Bessie Kay had prepared a number of original valentines, some of which were sold, and one was given to each one present. They were good, and created considerable amusement.

Tuesday night, as Minor Taylor was getting ready to close up the drug store, some one opened the door and turned loose a lot of cats which they had in a big sack. The door was closed quickly and the fun began.
Those inside say the air was full of cats for a few minutes. It was an exciting time, as the cats did not seem to have any respect for any one's feelings.
Finally the door was opened and the cats departed without doing much damage, and Minor began to fumigate the store. Minor says the entire audience were on their feet at the close of the entertainment.

WHY WILL YOU COUGH?
M. H. Taylor, your druggist asks you why? You can be so easily cured.
Three doses of Begg's Cherry Cough Syrup will relieve you at once. We guarantee every bottle, and no monkey work.

McElhaney, proprietor.

firm of Titus & Williams are requested once, either by cash or note, as there will be a change in the business inside of 60 days. TITUS & WILLIAMS.

We have for sale a good 160 acre farm near Nemaha City, well improved, good house, barn, etc., large orchard, farm all fenced, which will be sold for $35 per acre. If you want a bargain call quick.

OLD GOLD AND SILVER WANTED.
Take all your old gold and silver of every description to S. H. Avey & Co., of Auburn, who will buy it and pay you full value.

HAPPILY WEDDED.

On Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents occurred the wedding of Mr. David H. Kaley, one of Red Cloud's best known and most popular young men, to Miss Dora Henderson, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Henderson, of this city, the Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser saying the mystic words that made the two loving hearts one, the ceremony taking place in the presence of a very few relatives and intimate friends of the high contracting parties.

At 8 o'clock Miss Beatrix Miser began playing Mendelssohn's wedding march and a few seconds later an adjourning door swung on its hinges, and the bridal pair, accompanied by Miss Edna Henderson, the bride's sister, and Mr. F. W. Cowden, took their places in the parlor, when Rev.
Yeiser in his usual pleasant way pronounced the ceremony that sealed the lives of two of Red Cloud's prominent young society people, and pointed out their destiny.

The groom, Mr. David H. Kaley, has lived in Red Cloud for a great many years, almost from childhood, and is known as a thorough business man, and one of those good natured men who it is a pleasure to meet and converse with, while his bride, Miss Dora Henderson, is well known, though not residing here so long. She is highly accomplished and cultivated, and is admirably suited to be the consort of her esteemed husband, and together the Chief believes, will enjoy their new relations, and will travel life's journey happily in conjugal felicity and we, along with their many friends, take great pleasure in extending to them a long and happy life, free from the cares usually incident in the turmoils of life.

Immediately after the ceremony and congratulations a delicious wedding supper was partaken of, after which the company and friends enjoyed the hospitalities of the family until a reasonable hour.—Red Cloud Chief.

We have a customer for a good farm of a 120 to 160 acres. Must be at a reasonable price. If you want to sell call and see us.
