☞ Surgical Clinique.—Dr. EDWARD H. DIXON, Editor of The Scalpel, has, at the request of a number of medical gentlemen, established a private Surgical Clinique, at No. 112 Grand-st., two doors west of Broadway. This charity is designed to protect the feelings of the virtuous poor from painful and unnecessary exposure before a medical class. These medical gentlemen only who wish to avail themselves of the benefit of the institution for a patient, and in whose case they are personally interested, are invited to be present at the examinations and operations. Females will attend from 10 to 12 on Wednesdays; males from 10 to 12 on Saturdays. Private consultations daily from 10 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings. From 9 to 10 every evening Dr. Dixon meets his Surgical class.

☞ Bogle's Premium Electric Hair Dye is totally different and far superior to anything ever invented. The process is perfectly simple, and the effect marvellous. It instantly and indelibly dyes the most whitish hair a natural black or brown, without injuring the skin in the least, and leaves the hair soft and silky after the operation.

To be had of A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 273 Broadway; J. Milnor & Co., No. 183 Broadway; Wm. H. Cary & Co., No. 210 Pearl-st., N.Y.; and by the druggists and perfumers throughout the world.

☞ Caution to the Deaf.—Dr. LUTENER considers it his duty to caution the deaf against applying to a set of "pretended aurists," whose only object and highest ambition is gain, their only recommendation a glaring advertisement, a compound of ignorance, presumption and perversion of truth. Of the 13 patients consulting Dr. Lutener within the present month, 27 have been victimized by these "impostors," not only losing their money, but almost invariably been deprived of the little hearing they had possessed. The law of libel alone prevents Dr. Lutener from making a personal exposition of the facts particularly connected with the above statement. Dr. Lutener is the only recognized Aurist in the United States, and his Ear Infirmary, No. 499 Broadway, N. Y., is the only institution in the world where the Ear and its diseases are exclusively attended to. Open from 6 until 8. Testimonials from upward of 300 persons cured by Dr. L. of Deafness, of from five to forty years' standing, may be seen at any time during office hours. n10 1t

☞ "What can we reason, but from what we know," and to all who know the reason is very obvious why DAVIS'S HYPERION should be considered the best article for the Hair in use. For sale at the principal dépôts, No. 56 Ludlow-st., one door from Grand; C. H. Ring, No. 192 Broadway; also for sale by E. M. Guion, No. 127 Bowery; P. B. Knapp, No. 352 Hudson; J. B. Dodd, No. 771 Broadway; E. Lyon, No. 472 Grand, New-York; Mrs. Hayes, No. 175 Fulton; Thomas Hayes, No. 96 Atlantic-st. Brooklyn; and by druggists generally. Price 25 cents, in large bottles. n7 1t

New Publications.

This Day Published—The Fifth Edition.

A COMPANION to Vanity Fair, TOM RACQUET AND HIS THREE MAIDEN AUNTS The Fifth American Edition, illustrated, now ready.

"This is a most delightful and amusing book, something in the mingled style of Thackeray and Hood—a work both to laugh and cry over. We predict an unprecedented run for it." [London Examiner.

"A laughter provoking story is this indeed, and yet one that will be apt to make the reader cry, even though not over given to the melting mood. Get it, and 'laugh and grow fat,' and then be made sad, and a 'wiser and a better man.'" [Baltimore Patriot.

CHRISTIAN ASPECTS OF FAITH and DUTY.—Discourses by John James Tayler. Reprinted from the London edition, with an introduction, by Rev. H. W. Bellows.

"Devoted to some of the loftiest themes of human thought—reasoned with admirable candor and ability, and expressed in a style of uniform elegance and frequent power, they well merit the attention of thinkers who are seeking a rational basis for the truths of religion." [Tribune.

"Mr. Tayler's work is alive in every sentence. It is affectionate and practical, instructive and edifying, deserving a place in every Christian's library." [Enquirer.

"These discourses, twenty in number, are exceedingly fresh and attractive." [Examiner.

MEMOIR of MARY LYON; or, POWER OF CHRISTIAN BENEVOLENCE. 3d edition; 486 pp.; 4 steel engravings. HOPKINS, BRIDGMAN & CO., Northampton, Mass.

"Miss Lyon was one of the most extraordinary women of the age. The institution at South Hadley, of which she was the founder, and for many years the head, has made itself felt not only in New-England, but throughout the country." [Brattleboro' (Vt.) Eagle.

"An invaluable contribution to our Christian Biographical literature." [Religious Herald, Hartford.

"This piece of biography is more precious than rubies." [Northampton Courier.

"We enter heartily into the spirit of the work, sympathizing in the enthusiastic love betrayed in every comment upon the character, labors, trials and triumphs of one of the noblest of all New-England's daughters." [Springfield Republican.

"Miss Lyon's character was one of the brightest and most remarkable that adorn our age or any age." [Dr. J. Perkins, Oorroomiah.

The work is compiled by Edward Hitchcock, D.D., President of Amherst College, and is for sale booksellers generally. n10 2t

ICONOGRAPHIC ENCYCLOPÆDIA of SCIENCE, LITERATURE, and ART; systematically arranged by G. HECK; in four volumes, with five hundred quarto steel plates, the text translated and edited by Spencer F. Baird, A.M., M.D., assistant Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.

The splendid work embraces all the branches of human knowledge which can be illustrated by pictorial representations. These illustrations are arranged in strictly systematic order, on 500 large Quarto Steel Plates, and are accompanied by letter-press, printed in the finest style, on the best paper, in the most convenient form, of a large, handsome octavo.

The latter-press comprises nearly 3,500 pages, being a cyclus of thorough manuals of the sciences enumerated below, with constant references to the figures on the plates. Alphabetical indexes and tables of contents make it practically useful and of easy reference. The subdivisions of the work are as follows.

MATHEMATICS.—Subdiv.: Geometry, Astronomy—15 plates.

NATURAL AND MEDICAL SCIENCES.—Subdiv. Natural Philosophy, Meteorology, Chemistry, Mineralogy, Geology, Botany, Zoology, Anatomy, Physiology, Surgery—126 plates.

Will be Published on Monday the 10th inst.

ICONOGRAPHIC ENCYCLOPÆDIA, the last Part, No. 25, and a Supplementary Volume of Letter-Press; the former, besides its usual contents of plates and text, contains the title pages to volume II of the plates for the whole work; and the additional volume embraces about half of volume III, and the whole of volume IV, inclusive of Indexes and Contents—being upward of 1,200 pages. Price $5.

For Number 25, the same as for any previous parts, each copy $1.

Subscribers who by any chance may not have received their copies complete, will please order the Part or Parts they want to complete their sets before the end of the year, from the Bookseller who supplied them. After that period, only complete bound copies can be furnished.

Subscribers and Agents are requested to send in all balances due for Parts of the Iconographic Encyclopædia, together with the subscription for Part XXV., and $5 for the concluding part of the text, as no copies will be dispatched until arrears and subscriptions have been received, the enormous expense of the publication, and the comparative cheapness of price, making it imperative to collect all due amounts simultaneously with the last issue.

A PRACTICAL TREATISE on DISEASES of the SEXUAL SYSTEM, by EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., Editor of The Scalpel: 275 pages, eighth edition, price $1. The London, New-York and Boston medical journals remark: "Dr. Dixon has written much and well on various branches of surgery; he has identified his reputation with this department of professional learning." The more difficult and abstruse cases are treated with extraordinary ability; indeed he has secured attention to every page in the volume, and prepared a practical digest of this branch of science, that places the profession under lasting obligations. The November number of The Scalpel is now ready.
