AUCTION SALE.--Monday.

By N. W. Bowe,
Real Estate Auctioneer.

EXECUTRIX'S SALE
OF
A NUMBER OF VERY ATTRACTIVE AND VALUABLE

BUILDING LOTS

on West Main and West Cary Sts.,

BY AUCTION.

As executrix of the late Julia E. Turpin, I will sell, by auction, on the premises, on beginning at 4:30 o'clock P. M., those SEVEN HANDSOME BUILDING LOTS at the southwest corner of Main and Vine streets, each fronting 24 feet, except the corner, which fronts 26 feet 7 inches, by 179 feet 9 inches to an alley 20 feet wide. Also, THREE LOTS of 25 feet each, and ONE of 24 feet front, on the north side of Cary street, between Vine and Walnut streets, beginning 56 feet west of Vine street, and extending back 179 feet 9 inches to the aforesaid alley.

MONDAY, NOV. 6, 1899,

These are excellent lots, in an improving locality, and should command the attention of those contemplating building, as well as speculators.

TERMS: One-third cash and the residue at six and twelve months, for notes, with interest added, and secured by a deed of trust.

KATE F. BOGGS.

ATTRACTIVE AUCTION SALE
OF

Handsome Building Lot

ON THE

North Side of Franklin Street,

Between Harrison and Ryland Streets.

By direction of the owner, who is determined to sell, we will offer for sale, at public auction on the premises, on at 4:30 P. M., that WELL-LOCATED BUILDING LOT on WEST FRANKLIN STREET, described as follows: Commencing at a point on the north side of Franklin street 334 feet east of Ryland street, thence running eastwardly and fronting on the north side of Franklin street 27 feet and 6 inches, and extending back between parallel lines 152 feet and 7 inches to an alley in common 20 feet wide.

TUESDAY, NOV. 7, 1899,

This lot immediately adjoins the elegant granite residence just completed on this block, and is one of the most desirable of the available building lots on this elegant thoroughfare. The owner is willing to sell this property at a figure much under the prevailing prices, and this sale undoubtedly offers an opportunity for a great bargain.

TERMS: One-third cash; balance in notes at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest added, and secured by a trust-deed upon the property, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

TRUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE OF THE

Colored Odd-Fellows' Hall,

No. 727 North Third Street.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust, duly recorded in the clerk's office of Richmond Chancery Court, in Deed-Book 157 B, page 445, default having been made in the payment of money therein secured, and being so required by the beneficiary, I will sell, by public auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, NOV. 16, 1899,

at 4 o'clock P. M., the REAL ESTATE described in said deed, as follows: "On the east side of Third (3d) street, between Jackson and Duval streets, fronting on said Third (3d) street, twenty-five (25) feet, and running back between parallel lines in an easterly direction one hundred and twenty-two (122) feet to a sixteen (16) feet-wide alley."

A good, substantial brick building, three stories high, with basement, covers the entire lot, the first floor of which is fitted for a store, with the upper part for hall and lodge purposes.

TERMS: A sufficient sum in cash to defray the expenses of executing this trust, and to pay a debt of $4,200, with interest from July 28, 1898, and as to any surplus, a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, for negotiable notes, bearing interest from date of sale at 6 per cent., to be secured on the property by deed of trust. A deposit of 10 per cent. cash at the time of sale will be required unless the responsibility of the purchaser is known to the trustee.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to sections 1 and 2 of article 7 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

[Approved March 3, 1898.]

1. RESOLVED by the senate and House of Delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and is hereby, proposed and is hereby referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one of article twelve of said Constitution, viz:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia sections one and two of article seven, which are in the following words:

"§ 1. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the county one sheriff, one attorney for the commonwealth (who shall also be the commonwealth's attorney for the circuit court), one county clerk (who shall also be the clerk of the circuit court, except that in counties containing fifteen thousand inhabitants there may be a separate clerk for the circuit court), one county treasurer, and so many commissioners of the revenue as may be provided by law; and there shall be appointed in the like manner, to be provided by law, one superintendent of the poor and one county surveyor; and there shall also be appointed in the manner provided for in article eight, one superintendent of schools. All regular elections for county officers shall be held on the fourth Thursday in May, and all officers elected or appointed under this provision shall enter upon the duties of their offices on the first day of July next succeeding their election, and shall hold their respective offices for the term of four years, except that county and circuit court clerks shall hold office for six years.

"§ 2. Each county of the State shall be divided into as many compactly located magisterial districts as may be deemed necessary, not less than three, provided, that after three have been formed, no additional districts shall be made containing less than thirty square miles. Each magisterial district shall be known as ———— magisterial district of ———— county. In each district there shall be elected one supervisor, three justices of the peace, one constable, and one overseer of the poor, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years. All regular elections for magisterial district officers shall take place on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, and all officers so elected shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices on the first day of January next succeeding their election. The supervisors of the districts shall constitute the board of supervisors for that county, whose duty it shall be to audit the accounts of the county, examine the books of the commissioners of the revenue, regulate and equalize the valuation of property, fix the county levies for the ensuing year, and perform any other duties required of them by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

"§ 1. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the county one sheriff, one attorney for the commonwealth (who shall also be commonwealth's attorney for the circuit court), one county clerk (who shall also be the clerk of the circuit court, except that in counties containing fifteen thousand inhabitants there may be a separate clerk for the circuit court), one county treasurer, and so many commissioners of the revenue as may be provided by law; and there shall be appointed in a like manner, to be provided by law, one superintendent of the poor and one county surveyor; and there shall also be appointed in the manner provided for in article eight, one superintendent of schools.

2. RESOLVED, That the clerk of the Senate or the clerk of the House of Delegates, or, if a vacancy happen in both of said offices, the presiding officer of either house of the General Assembly, be authorized and required to cause this proposed amendment and these resolutions to be published in one newspaper published in each of the cities of the Commonwealth having more than ten thousand inhabitants, once a week for three consecutive months previous to the time of choosing the members of the General Assembly at the next general election of senators and members of the House of Delegates.

3. RESOLVED, That the clerk of the House of Delegates and the clerk of the Senate be required to transmit to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates and Senate, a certified copy of said proposed amendment and of these resolutions, together with certificates of publication by the publishers of the newspapers in which said proposed amendment shall have been published.

OFFICE OF CLERK OF HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
RICHMOND, VA., July 25, 1898.

The foregoing is a copy of a joint resolution proposing amendments to sections one and two of article seven of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendments and certifying the same to the next General Assembly, which was agreed to during the session of 1897-98, by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses and so recorded, and which joint resolution was approved by the Governor March 3, 1898, and is published in accordance with a provision contained therein.

T. H. BIGGER,
Clerk of House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to strike from the Constitution the second clause of article ten and providing for publishing and certifying the same to the next General Assembly of Virginia.

[Approved February 23, 1898.]

1. RESOLVED by the House of Delegates and Senate (a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one of article twelve of said Constitution, namely: Strike from the Constitution of Virginia section two of article ten, which is in the following words:

Article 10, section 2.—No tax shall be imposed on any of the citizens of this State for the privilege of taking or catching oysters from their natural beds with tongs in the waters thereof; but the amount of sales of oysters so taken by any citizen, in any one year, may be taxed at a rate not exceeding the rate of taxation imposed upon any other species of property.

2. RESOLVED, That the clerk of the House of Delegates or the clerk of the Senate, or, if a vacancy happen in both of said offices, the presiding officer of either house of the General Assembly, be authorized and required to cause this proposed amendment and these resolutions to be published in one newspaper published in each of the cities of the Commonwealth having more than ten thousand inhabitants, once a week for three consecutive months previous to the time of choosing the members of the General Assembly at the next general election of senators and members of the House of Delegates.

3. RESOLVED, That the clerk of the House of Delegates and the clerk of the Senate be required to transmit to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates and Senate, a certified copy of said proposed amendment and of these resolutions, together with certificates of publication by the publishers of the newspapers in which said proposed amendment shall have been published.

OFFICE OF CLERK OF HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
RICHMOND, VA., July 25, 1899.

The foregoing is a copy of a joint resolution proposing to strike from the Constitution the second clause of article ten and providing for publishing and certifying the same to the next General Assembly of Virginia, which was agreed to during the session of 1897-98, by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses and so recorded, and which joint resolution was approved by the Governor on February 23, 1898, and is published in accordance with a provision contained therein.

T. H. BIGGER,
Clerk of House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia.
