A PRACTICAL TREATISE on DISEASES of the SEXUAL SYSTEM, by EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., Editor of The Scalpel: 275 pages, eighth edition, price $1. The London, New-York and Boston medical journals remark: "Dr. Dixon has written much and well on various branches of surgery; he has identified his reputation with this department of professional learning." The more difficult and abstruse cases are treated of with extraordinary ability; indeed he has secured attention to every page in the volume, and prepared a practical digest of this branch of science, that places the profession under lasting obligations. The November number of The Scalpel is now ready.

LIFE IN NEW-YORK, IN DOORS AND OUT OF DOORS—Brilliantly Illustrated—45 Engravings.

Price only 25 cents.

Books have been published without number, purporting to show up Life in the Great Metropolis; but although their pretensions have been exceedingly great, their genuineness has been as correspondingly small.

This is the only published work of its kind which can be relied upon for the variety and faithfulness of its metropolitan pictures. It takes the reader everywhere, and, like a moving panorama, unrolls before him scenes from every phase, and representatives from every class of society. It is not, like the miserable attempts above alluded to, a mere surface sketch; but what it professes to be—a vivid and complete picture of Life in New-York.

Wanted.

TO CAPITALISTS.—A gentleman of character, experience, and business talent, having purchased from a French house of the highest standing the process, &c., (with the right to manufacture and sell in the United States, Canadas, and Mexico,) of certain articles for the Toilet, or an extremely valuable character, is, from ill health, and the want of proper help to do the thing justice, constrained to sell the affair in State Rights, and which will be done upon fair terms. The title is beyond question. No infringement or opposition ever can take place, being fully secured by trade marks of a most distinctive and singularly attractive character, and highly approved of by three of the first lawyers in the United States. A better opportunity was never offered to make money rapidly, and comparatively speaking, at a mere song of an outlay. A competent person, with the right kind of agents, could not fail to make an enormous amount of money out of a State Right. There is no speculation or uncertainty about the affair. The necessary apparatus and machinery will be furnished, and the manufacture put into immediate operation. The purchaser of a State Right will be thoroughly instructed in the various processes, &c., and which the advertiser is fully competent to do, having resided in France thirteen years, and becoming practically acquainted with the subject. References given (and required) to gentlemen of the first standing in the city. Address, (postpaid) with real name, to J. W. L., Box No. 2,961 Post-Office, New York. d5 6t*

PARTNER.—Wanted, a Partner, with a cash capital of from One to Two Thousand Dollars, in a manufacturing business.
