Social Notices.

☞ At a Monthly Meeting of the Adelphia Club, Monday Evening, Jan. 5, 1852, held at the residence of Mr. Wm. H. Hall, ross, and after a few pertinent remarks, offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the course of human events the ways of Divine Providence are inscrutable, and as He has been pleased to remove from our midst one who was esteemed for her intelligence, cherished for her amiability, and honored for her examples, be it therefore

Resolved, That in the decease of Mrs. John H. Jackson, Society has been deprived of one of its most valued members, a fond wife, an endearing mother, and a confiding associate. Be it further

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with an afflicted husband, a large circle of devoted relatives and friends; we mourn for his bereaved household, with the helpless orphans so early cast without a mother's love upon a world and cheerless world. And we now offer in a word of condolence that the balm of their grief can be administered alone by a skilful Physician, and to him, in humble reverence and adoring faith, they must look for light in the darkness, and hope in their despair. Be it further

Resolved, That as a token of our respect to the memory of deceased, a copy of the above resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Adelphia Club, and be published in one of the daily journals of the city.

☞ Bogle's American Compound for Shaving.—This delightful article is totally different and far superior to anything yet offered for shaving. The base of it is derived from the cocoa nut, or "soap plant" of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing, and thus the use of dangerous alkalis, so hurtful to the skin, is avoided. The bland and detergent properties have the present and lasting effects on the skin. It softens and allays irritation, and has a fine, thick, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It is a decided luxury to shave with his incomparable soap. It is done up in elegant style, calculated either for the dressing case of the "rough-and-ready" traveler, or the toilet of the most fastidious connoisseur.

To be had of A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Fulton st., Dunham, Clark & Co., No. 273 Broadway; J. Milnor & Co. No. 102 Broadway; Wm. H. Cary & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st., N. Y.; and by the Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.
