Religious Notices.

☞ Discourses to Young People.—The third of the series of discourses on the above subject will be delivered by Rev. GEO. H. FISHER, D.D., in the Fourth Congregational Church, 16th st., between 6 and 7th-ave., TO-MORROW EVENING, Jan. 12. A discourse on occasion of the death of Mr. ST. JOHN will be delivered by the Pastor, Rev. H. O. SCHERMERHORN, in the afternoon. Service at 10½ A.M. and 3 and 7 P.M. [10 1t*

Special Notices.

☞ Lectures for the People.—A few gentlemen, who desire to see the system of Popular Lecturing extended and brought more clearly within the reach of all our citizens, have engaged the Broadway Tabernacle for the TUESDAY EVENINGS of several successive weeks, wherein Lectures will be given at the low price of One Shilling per ticket—(two tickets admitting a gentleman and two ladies). One-half of the gross receipts will be paid without deduction to the Lecturer in each case—the balance being reserved to pay the Rent, Advertising and Incidental Expenses. There will be no Season Tickets—the design being to secure to each Lecturer the recompense which the public may see fit to accord him. Though but little time has yet been allowed for consultation, we have already received assurances of Lectures from the following:

RALPH WALDO EMERSON, of Concord, Mass.
HENRY WARD BEECHER, of Brooklyn.
WILLIAM D. GALLAGHER, of Cincinnati, Ohio.
THEODORE PARKER, of Boston, Mass.
EDWIN H. CHAPIN, of this City.
HORACE GREELEY, Ed. Tribune.

We confidently expect to be able soon to announce Lectures also by

ELISHA K. KANE, of Philad., (Arctic Expedition.)
GEORGE BANCROFT, (Historian of America.)
WILLIAM C. BRYANT, (Ed. Eve. Post.)
HENRY J. RAYMOND, (Ed. Times.)

This list will be extended and arrangements perfected, provided the public shall deem the enterprise worthy of such patronage as shall warrant the engagement of eminent thinkers and speakers from a distance. Suggestions for the improvement of our plan and with regard to further engagements of Lecturers are solicited. Please address of whom Tickets may be obtained, or at the door on the evening of the Lecture.

☞ The first Lecture will be given on Tuesday evening of this week, by HORACE GREELEY. Subject—"The Crystal Palace and its Lessons."

. Doors open at 6½. Lecture to commence at 7½ precisely. [12 2t

"An Exquisite Tale for the Home Circle."

HOME, AND ITS INFLUENCE.—A Domestic Story for Mothers and Daughters. The above work is a Domestic Story that must appeal to the Home sympathies of the reader. Its characters are drawn with a marvelous delicacy, they are happily contrasted, and present a varied, pleasing, and highly interesting group. The story is of that character, that while it enchains the attention, arouses the feelings, and enlists the sympathies, it is pure and simple. Home thoughts, characters, influences, and scenes are vividly portrayed, and so truthfully rendered, that they elevate and expand the mind, and are calculated to enlist the heart closer to those scenes and events that are the common, every-day associates of all who enjoy the blessings of Home. Price, Cloth, 62½ cents; Paper, 50 cents. Published by BUNCE & BROTHER, No. 131 Nassau-st., N. Y.

FORREST DIVORCE CASE.—Herald Edition.—A full Report of this interesting trial, with the CONSUELO LETTER, and all the SUPPRESSED EVIDENCE, by the Law Reporter of The New-York Herald, will be published immediately on the completion of the trial. The Herald says: The edition of this trial which is being published by our Law Reporter, is cited and referred to by the Court and Counsel almost daily, which is the best assurance of its accuracy. The Chief Justice spoke favorably of its correctness on Thursday, and refered to the report to settle a point which was in doubt as to whether a certain question had been asked Anna Flower.

This edition will contain excellent likenesses of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest. All orders must be addressed to

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED, SIR FRANCIS HEAD'S NEW WORK, printed from the proof sheets received in advance of publication, direct from Mr. Murray, the London publisher. A FAGGOT OF FRENCH STICKS, or, PARIS IN 1851, by Sir Francis Head, author of "Bubbles from Brunnens," &c.

"The 'Faggot of French Sticks' appears to have been written in the spring and summer of the last year, during a visit to Paris, and agreeable as it is as a book of travels, it derives a peculiar interest from the time and circumstances of its appearance." [Express.

II.—AMERICAN COINS AND COINAGE—Gold and Silver Coins, Counterfeit Coins and Bullion, with Mint Values, &c., by J. R. Eckfeldt and W. E. Dubois, Assayers of the U. S. Mint; 1 vol. 8vo. cloth, with engravings of Coins, &c. [12 2t] G. P. PUTNAM, Publisher, N. York.

DUMAS' NEW BOOK—Published at T. B. PETERSON'S, No. 98 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia, and for sale by all News Agents.

SKETCHES IN FRANCE. By Alexander Dumas, Author of "Monte Cristo," "Three Guardsmen," "Iron Mask," "Louise Vallière," "The Memoirs of a Physician," etc., etc. Complete in one fine octavo volume, beautifully illustrated, printed on very fine paper, and clear and beautiful type. Price 50 cents a copy.

The above work will prove to be one of the most popular books ever printed.

Hear what the Press says of it:

"We know not when we have read so interesting a book. Incidents of travel, anecdotes, romances of the past, descriptions of manners and customs, all mingled in an agreeable melange, render it the most delightful book of the season." [Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

"Quite as good a book as Thackeray's 'Sketches in Ireland,' and, in some respects, superior; it is, indeed, just such another agreeable volume, only France, instead of Ireland, is the subject. Dumas never wrote a better work. Several admirably-told legends, founded on tradition, are interspersed through the volume. After reading this book one is almost as familiar with the South of France as if he had traveled there. Many chapters are full of wit, others of anecdote. Altogether, it is a volume every one should read." [Neal's Saturday Gazette.

Booksellers, News Agents and all others will please send in their orders at once.

THIS DAY PUBLISHED—MARX'S GREAT WORK ON THE THEORY OF MUSICAL COMPOSITION. Translated from the German by H. S. Saroni, Esq., Editor of The Musical Times.

Dr. Marx holds such high rank in Germany as perhaps the most eminent musical theorist living; and especially his great work upon Musical Composition is so generally esteemed as without a rival, that any recommendation of it to those who are at all acquainted with the musical literature of Germany would be superfluous. It is peculiarly adapted to popular comprehension, and yet thoroughly scientific.

A translation of this work having long been desired, is now ready, having been prepared with much care, and with the necessary adaptations to the wants of the American public. Those who, having some knowledge of music, wish to obtain a knowledge of composition, will find this exactly the work. It embraces two books, viz:

Book I—The Elements of Musical Composition.
Book II—How to make an accompaniment to a given melody, with special reference to chorals and people's songs.

An introduction to the work has been prepared by the Editor.

The whole is embraced in one large octavo volume. Price $2 50. Published by

MASON & LAW,
No. 23 Park-row, New-York.
