

GILBERT & M<sup>c</sup>CANDLESS

Have just received a large stock of the latest styles in

Dress Goods

Prints

Dry Goods

Notions

and a complete stock of

Fresh Groceries

Also a large assortment of

Boots and Shoes

Trunks, Valises, etc.

You are invited to call and see them.

GILBERT & M<sup>c</sup>CANDLESS

Local News

See M T Hill for fire insurance.

The snow is gradually disappearing. Attend the Old Maids' Convention.

Wm. Daniels moved to Auburn this week.

Hank Barker moved his family to Nemaha Monday.

Frank Flack is moving to South Auburn this week.

Old Maids' Convention Saturday night of this week.

The Advertiser and the Chicago In ter Ocean for $1.40

Judge Broady, of Lincoln, was in town last Saturday.

Thirty Plymouth Rock cockerels for sale at the Titus Nursery.

Lee Devoras has concluded to remain in Oklahoma this summer.

Call and see us for reduced rates on magazines and newspapers.

See W. W. Harris of South Auburn for Clothing and Dry Goods.

The Advertiser and the St. Louis Globe Democrat both one year for only $1.75.

Mrs. Veva Rainey, of Brownville, visited Nemaha friends Tuesday and Wednesday.

Frank Woodward returned from Kansas City Monday night. His mother is some better.

Call in and see us if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

Dr. Cap Graves, of Peru, has been making frequent trips to Nemaha to see Mrs. Sherman May.

Joe Harper, of Shubert, and Mr. Crandall, of Nebraska City, gave us a social call Thursday.

All the old maids of Nemaha will be at the Old Maid's Convention Saturday night, February 22nd.

Dr. Reed, of Peru, was in Nemaha Monday and again Wednesday. He came down to see Mrs. Sherman May.

The Old Maid's Convention will be held at Hoover's opera house Saturday night, February 22nd.

For best assortment of Dry Goods and Shoes go to the Daylight Store of South Auburn W. W. Harris prop'r

John Maxwell is enjoying a visit from a brother, David Maxwell, of Iowa. They have not met for over 35 years.

Oscar F. Scovill returned to the Soldiers' Home at Milford, Nebr., Tuesday after several days' visit with Nemaha friends.

We still have thirty Plymouth Rock cockerels. If you need any call at once. We want to close them out. TITUS NURSERY.

The Shubert Citizen, which suspended publication recently, was revived again last week with Elliott Harrison as editor. He gets out a newsy paper. May success attend his efforts.

Dr. MacVean will be at Mr. Young's residence, Brownville, Thursday of each week, for the next thirty days. Eyes tested free. Twenty per cent. off on glasses for school children.

I have for sale 4 head of good horses, 1 fine pony, 1 fresh Jersey cow, and a lot of pole wood, all on my farm between Peru and Brownville. JNO. S. STULL, Auburn, Nebr.

Charles A. Doering, who has been stopping at the poor farm for about three months, died Sunday from hemorrhage of the lungs. He was about 35 years old and had no relatives in this country.

Having bought the harness stock of John A. Hiatt, we will hereafter carry a complete stock of harness and harness supplies, whips, halters, saddles, robes, etc. Prices guaranteed right. Call and see us. EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beveridge, the singing evangelists, will give their unique song and lecture entertainment at the Christian church at Brownville Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30. Admission free. A silver collection will be taken. Mr. and Mrs. Beveridge will also sing at the Methodist church at Brownville Sunday forenoon.

1902
Wall Paper
AT
Hill's Drug Store

We learn that Miss Mamie Seeley was married Tuesday of last week, at St. Joseph, Michigan, to a gentleman by the name of Clark. Her many friends in this vicinity extend congratulations and best wishes.

A. N. Harris, manager of the elevator at the McCandless Siding, gave us a call Saturday forenoon. Mr. Harris returned from Eldora, Iowa, Iowa, Friday evening, where he was called by the news of the death of his father.

Thomas Wasson will have a public sale at his place, three miles south and two miles east of Nemaha, on Thursday, February 27th. He will sell four horses, two cows, three heifers, twenty shoats, farm implements, household and kitchen furniture, etc.

Married.—At the Lutheran parsonage, South Auburn, Nebraska, on Wednesday morning, February 19th, 1902, by the Rev. W. Dieffenbach, Mr. Pearley K. Baker, of Denver, Colorado, to Miss Naomi Dieffenbach, daughter of officiating clergyman, South Auburn, Nebraska.

LOOK HERE!

All interested in good garden seeds should buy from the old reliable seed house, P. Kerker, who sells Mangelsdorf Bros' seeds, the best seed house in the west. We notice these "tested seeds" patrons have to fall back on the Old Reliable House, who handles all kinds of seeds, garden and field, cheaper than any other house in this county.

Mrs. Sherman May died at her home three miles northwest of Nemaha on Thursday morning, February 20, 1902, at 8 o'clock. Her death was caused by an attack of measles contracted recently on the train while returning from a visit to relatives in Kansas. All that careful nursing and skilled physicians could do to restore her to health was done but without avail. She leaves a husband whose home will indeed be desolate. May the Heavenly Father comfort him in his great affliction.

W. H. Till, of Humboldt, who has been in Nemaha for two or three weeks, endeavoring to organize a lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Security, has found it uphill work and has decided to abandon the field for the present. He went to Union, Nebr., Tuesday. Nemaha is well supplied with lodges now. We have the Masons, Odd Fellows, Eastern Star, Woodmen of the World, Royal Highlanders, A. O. U. W., and the Modern Woodmen. Apparently there is no pressing need of another lodge.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver, and you may know his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price, 25 cents. Sample free at Keeling's drug store.

ANDREW AYNES

Invites all his old customers and many new ones to call on him in the new brick Odd Fellows building, where you will find him with an entire new stock of Furniture, Hardware, etc.

The Old Maids' Convention

which will be held at Hoover's opera house Saturday night, February 22nd, will be one of the best entertainments ever given in Nemaha. If you want to enjoy yourself thoroughly do not fail to attend. Admission: Adults, 20 cents; children, 15 cents; reserved seats, 25 cents.

The proceeds will be used to help pay for the new organ at the Methodist church.

The report was circulated Sunday and Monday that Wm. Maxwell's family had smallpox. Some one for a joke hung a smallpox card on the gate Saturday night or Sunday morning and it was not discovered by any of the family until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Those seeing the card of course reported that they had smallpox.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dye and family are intending to make their future home in Auburn, and on Sunday, Feb. 16th, a number of their old friends of the Champion neighborhood gathered at their home with well-filled baskets and proceeded to have one of those good old fashioned times for which that section is famed. Those present were Mr and Mrs W T Russell, Mr and Mrs Chas W Roberts, Mr and Mrs John C Stokes, Mr and Mrs F M Anderson, Mr and W F Crane, Mr and Mrs Chas G Dye, Mr and Mrs J A Stephenson, Mr and Mrs John H Argabright, Mr and Mrs Frank Hawxby, Mr and Mrs A L P Thompson, Mr and Mrs D Palmer, Cass, Fisher, Marshall Webb, Mrs Frank Gillespie, Mrs John Hawxby, Misses Lela Argabright, Pearl Roberts and Nannie Dye, Johnnie Hawxby, Floyd and Warren Stephenson and Robert Thompson.

We are sorry to see this charming family leave us, and wish them happiness and prosperity in their new home. ONE OF THEM.

OBITUARY.

F. H. Gipson died at his residence in London precinct, Nemaha county, Nebraska, on Sunday, February 16, 1902. On February 18 at one o'clock a very large number of friends met at the spacious home of the deceased to pay the last tribute of respect to an old friend and neighbor. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. B. Lake, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Dysart presided at the piano. A quartette from Auburn rendered some very appropriate music. The services throughout were very impressive. The remains were viewed for the last time by the large concourse of friends, after which the doors to the room were closed and the family was permitted to remain alone with the one they had loved so well and so long but now must part with forever in this life. Those were sad moments to wife and children. The remains were laid at rest in the London cemetery. May heaven's blessing be upon bereaved wife and children.

Freeling H. Gipson was born Sept. 5, 1844, near Evansville, Indiana, where he grew to manhood. June 27, 1872, he came to Brownville and made his home for two years with his sister, Mrs. J. S. Young (now deceased), in London precinct, and for almost thirty years has made his home in Nemaha county. January 3, 1875, he was united in marriage with Miss Belle Van Gordon. Deceased leaves to mourn his departure a wife and five children, two sisters, Mrs. Alice Nunn, of Brock, and Mrs. Ellen Stokely, of Douglas; also two brothers, John S. Gipson, of Evansville, Indiana, and Silas Gipson, of Oklahoma.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H J Stickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W W Keeling.

L. H. BATTLES
Nemaha, Nebr.

Come and see us
when
in Nemaha,
We can offer you substantial inducements
to trade with us

POULTRY WANTED!
Received at this price Mondays and Tuesdays.