A letter from Calcutta states that all foreign vessels entering that port are remeasured, and the port dues regulated accordingly. The American vessels, says the writer, lose from 12 to 18 per cent. by this arrangement. Formerly American vessels laden with ice were exempt from port dues, but that privilege has been abolished, the port dues being now exacted the same as though they were laden with any other commodity. The British ship owners are beginning to feel the American competition keenly, and the rates of freight on sugar have been reduced to 15s. ⅌ ton to London and Liverpool. In consequence, such low rates were never before known.

NEWPORT, March 11.—Arr. brig Aurora, Gardner, Dighton; sloop Colchester, Jarvey, fm. New-York.

Disasters, &c.

SCHR. GERMAN OAK, Powers, on her passage from the West Indies to Newburn, loaded with salt, went ashore on Wednesday night, the 18th ult., ten miles south of Hatteras Light. Crew all saved, cargo total loss. Vessel, it is hoped, will be got off. $3,600 insurance.

SCHR. CLARA FISHER, Carey, from Bermuda, bound to Newbern, N. C., in ballast, was driven ashore on the 27th ult., on Amity Shoal, inside the bar. She had a pilot on board at the time. Crew saved—vessel a total loss.

SHIP GAME COCK, during a north-east blow at Hong Kong on the 29th Dec., drove from her berth, nearer to the Kowloon shore than to Victoria, right down on the Rajah, at anchor within a quarter of a mile of the Naval Stores, carrying away the Rajah's spritsail yard, and doing other damage. It is said that had the breeze continued, or had the Rajah's single anchor and forty-five fathoms of cable been insufficient for the pair of them, she would have stranded on the point where the American brig Charles Wingman was wrecked in the typhoon of 1848.

THE CLIPPER-SHIP STAFFORDSHIRE, at Boston, on Wednesday, made the passage in about 27 days, which is the quickes run made this winter from that port. Most of the westward bound ships have encountered very heavy weather, and some of them have been from fifty to sixty days on the way.

THE BRIG MONTE CHRISTO, Martin, of St. Georges, Me., from Philadelphia for Portland, Me., cargo coal, arr. at Newport on the 10th, in distress, having lost deck load, and making much water. She will have to discharge in order to get at the leak.

SHIP MARION, (or Gardiner,) Fletcher, which had been ashore on Egg Island Reef, was got off with the assistance of wreckers, and taken into Nassau, N. P. She would have to discharge and be hove out.

SHIP WESTMORELAND, Deacon, from Liverpool, while entering her berth at New-Orleans on the 3d inst., the current at the time being very strong, sheered and went athwart the hawse of the ship Shannon and bark Saxony, carrying away the jibboom of the Saxony and breaking in the head-board of the Shannon. The ship Westmoreland had her starboard rail and quarter boat smashed, and was otherwise damaged.

MISSING VESSEL.—Bark Exchange, of and from New-Bedford, which sailed May 18th, 1850, on a whaling cruise in the Atlantic Ocean, was fitted for a 15 months' voyage. She touched at Fayal in August following, where several of her crew were landed sick, and others shipped in their places, and she sailed upon her voyage. She was spoken on the 24th Feb., 1851, in lat. 39 S., lon. 49 W., with 180 bbls. sperm oil, since which nothing has been heard of her, and she has been abandoned by her owners to the underwriters. The following persons comprised the ship's company on sailing from New-Bedford, all but the eight first named of which are known to have left her at Fayal—Geo. W. Stewart, of Dartmouth, master; Wm. D. M. Wood, of do. first mate; Chas. Gibson, of New Bedford, 2d mate; Joseph Augustus, Condo Enos, Andrew Whiting, John Moore, Geo. Williams, Thos. Bradley, Flavell Launzette, John S. White, Isaac Brown, Jeremiah Buckley, Acam Atton, Stephen D. Potter, John H. Gardner, Geo. Kendrick, Eben. Chapman, Richard H. Vincent, Geo. Hayden, James Manning. The names of those who were shipped in place of the 13 last named are not given. The Exchange was a good old vessel of 160 tuns and was insured at the Union Mutual office, in New-Bedford, for $3,500, and Bedford Commercial for $3,175.

BRIG RUTH ELIZA, of and from Yarmouth, N. S., for St. John, N. B., was totally lost with her cargo of sugar and molasses, on Cape Chignecto, 25th ult. The crew barely escaped with their lives.

SCHR. TAMMIRCO, at Charleston from Boston, on the 1st inst., about 90 miles south-east of Cape Henry, picked up six round bales of cotton marked S. F.

SCHR. ——, from New-York for Portland, ran ashore on Kilet Pond Ledge, near Yarmouth, Cape Cod, on 4th inst.; and the wind increasing during the night, for the safety of the vessel, the deck load, consisting of molasses, spirits of turpentine, &c., to the value of about $1,000, was thrown overboard. At the same time a brig ran on to the Point, but got off soon after without damage.

Spoken, &c.
