VOLUME CXI N 31 — ALEXANDRIA VA. SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 5, 1910. — PRICE 2 CENTS

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa, suppressed or absent monthly periods, arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

OLD HOLLYWOOD

Richmond, Va., Feb. 4.

Located on the banks of the James river on a very high hill is beautiful old Hollywood cemetery. It is apparently a mile square and is handsomely laid off, showing the work of a master in the art. Nature, with her winter garb, never seemed prettier than on last Sunday. The winding pathways—on either side of which are the beautiful magnolia trees as green as cedar—were well filled with people eager and anxious to pay tribute to the noble men and women whose remains are interred in these sacred grounds. To the north is the plot selected by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Confederate Veterans and thousands of the heroes of the lost cause are resting peacefully under the shade of the trees. Those who have no headstones are marked with a marble slab and are numbered, denoting the company and regiment to which they belonged. One whose headstone is still prominent is a brother of August Wintherell (or Calmes), as he is called in Alexandria. It will be remembered that the "admiral" and two brothers enlisted at the same time and cast their fortunes with the South, but fate decreed that August was the only one to return and he has been very careful to take good care of his brother's grave in Hollywood. It is a great study of history to wander among the headstones of these noble men and boys who sacrificed their lives for the Confederate service, and a noticeable feature of it all is that at least one-third of the killed and buried in this cemetery are young men ranging in age from 16 to 22 years. On the submit of the hill overlooking the graves of the other comrades is one grave marked with the stars and bars and a headstone with the following inscription:

H. L. Wyatt
Bethel
June 10, 1861

On one corner of the stone is "The First;" on another is "Co. A., First N. C. Vols." on the third is "Confederate," and on the last is "Killed in Battle".

One would judge that this was the first soldier killed in that memorable conflict. As the eye beholds the neatness of this section of Hollywood one is convinced that loving hands are kept busy caring for the Confederates' resting place and they still nurse and cherish the memories of the noble ones who sacrificed their lives and whose lips are now silent in death. On another headstone is marked the following inscription.

Capt. C. F. Pardigon
C. S. A.
Homme de lettres
An exile from France
A gallant soldier
A resident of Virginia
Died Nov. 2 1861.
Erected by loving friends.

A walk to the southern end of the lovely cemetery brings to view the tomb of President John Tyler, and farther on just on the brink of the hill overlooking the rugged cliffs on both sides of the James river is a lovely spot wherein lie buried the late president of the Confederacy and his family—Jefferson Davis, Mrs. Davis and daughter Winnie. The authorities in charge of the cemetery are courteous and affable gentlemen willing and ready to explain and even to escort a stranger to any part of the grounds he may seek or to give desired information. If one visits this historic city he would be neglecting a golden opportunity to fail to see the beauties of nature as revealed in dear Old Hollywood. H.

FALL OF METEORITES.

According to reports from Florence, Italy, a rain of meteories fell thereabouts Thursday night, especially at Vaglia and San Pietro. The stones were of the size and shape of hazelnuts. When they reached the ground they were red hot, and the crops were ruined. At midnight a comet with a long tail of unusual brilliancy was visible. The meteorites were gathered by handfuls yesterday by the peasants. They fear disasters are portended, and consequently they are crowding the churches to invoke help from heaven.

Something, supposed to have been a meteor, struck near Quincy, Ill., at 1:30 yesterday morning, aroused the whole city, and caused buildings to tremble. Those about the streets saw a great glare in the sky. Several said they saw the meteor explode. There was an appalling detonation, followed a few seconds later by a tembling of the earth, which lasted five or ten seconds.

Father McHugh, professor of astronomy at Depauw University, said that details of the Quincy explosion tended to confirm his theory that this meteor and the one recently reported from Connecticut are fireballs that became detached from Comet A when it passed through the solar system and have been travelling toward the earth every since. Comet A's balance of gravity probably became disturbed as it came close to the rival pull of gravity from the various bodies in the solar system, and it began to disintegrate, according to Father McHugh's theory. This caused the splitting and diminishing of the tail noted by various astronomers, and several fragments got into the sphere of the earth's attraction.

PACKING FOR EXPORT.

A pamphlet on "Packing for Export" has recently been issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, bureau of manufacturers, Major John M. Carson, chief.

While this pamphlet deals mainly with export traffic the necessity for the same careful attention to the preparation and packing of shipments of local or domestic business ought not to be lost sight of. Shippers of all kinds of traffic, particularly that of a fragile character, are fast realizing that their property must be packed sufficiently strong to insure safe carriage to and delivery at destination and are introducing reforms in their packing methods which is having the effect of putting their goods into the hands of their customers in better condition.

This matter is one in which shippers and carrier are alike vitally interested.
