W. E. Seid is agent for the Victor talking machine and also for the Columbia cylinder and disk machines. On exhibition at the Edwards & Bradford hardware store.

The cry of fire was heard Friday afternoon, and smoke was seen rolling up from the roof of the hotel, but it was soon seen that it was only a chimney burning out and the excitement soon died down.

The rural route carriers have had a tough time for two or three weeks. Either there was so much snow, the roads were extremely rough, or the mud was so deep as to make it almost impossible to get around.

At the caucus held at the Advertiser office last Saturday night Elmer E. Allen and W. H. Barker were renominated for members of the board of village trustees. They have made efficient officials and will be reelected without a doubt.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward went to Kansas City Monday to visit her sons, Chas. M. and Leslie W. Mrs. C. M. Woodward, who has been visiting here, returned home at the same time, and Mrs. Lulu Beckwith also went with them and will visit for awhile.

The Nemaha school board has adopted the plan of having all pupils enter school either at the beginning of the school year, immediately after the holidays, or on the first Monday in April. All parents having children they desire to send to school for the spring term should see that they enter next Monday.

By order of the school board.

Florence Kimmel is now prepared to give private lessons in elocution, diction, voice culture and physical culture. 18 lessons for $6 or $5 if paid in advance. In general the department of elocution teaches the student how to read, stand, walk, to gesticulate gracefully and appropriately, to breathe properly, to control the voice and to read effectively and well.

I wish to announce to my old friends and new ones, that I expect to be located in my new store about April seventh and ask a share of your patronage. Having bought my stock in the Chicago market, I secured better styles and prices than heretofore and shall give my customers the benefit of the same. My stock is very complete, containing some beautiful Easter novelties, shirtwaist silks, beautiful mercerized goods, parasols, fans, etc. Look over my stock before buying elsewhere.

EARLE GILBERT.

LADIES' READY MADE CLOTHING

I have a fine line of samples of skirts, suits, jackets, underskirts, etc., from Edward B. Grossman, Chicago, and will be glad to take your order. Suits made to order.

FLORENCE KIMMEL.

Mrs. W. T. Devorss of Oklahoma has been visiting relatives in this county for two or three weeks. She is now visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Minick, at Johnson. She will probably remain here, as Will is talking of coming up and working at the carpenter trade this summer.

Geo. Ogg of Aspinwall precinct, had a horse killed by lightning Sunday. He was driving along the road in a buggy with Wm Harger when a flash of lightning came and both horses were knocked down. One horse was killed but the other was not hurt. The men were not much affected.

There is a scarcity of ice all over the state. Few towns in this section got to put up any ice at all. Auburn, Falls City and other places will have to ship all their ice in, and the prices will be correspondingly high. Nemaha was fortunate in getting enough probably to run us through the summer, if neighboring towns do not draw on us too heavily.

Robt. C. Boyd, assistant cashier of the Carson national bank at South Auburn, will soon move to Johnson, where he will be cashier of the newly organized national bank of that place. Bob is one of the best bankers in this part of the state, as well as a good citizen, and Johnson is to be congratulated on gaining such an addition to her population.

Ed Knapp carried the mail on rural route one last Friday, and had two breakdowns. The mail wagon broke down near the Fuller farm where Chas. Howe lives, one axle breaking in two. Ed phoned in for a buggy and made another start, and had another breakdown on the southern part of the route, but not so bad as to delay him much. The roads were so rough the horses could hardly get along at all.

It is greatly desired that all the members of the Christian church are present at services Sunday, April 1, as there will be an election of church officers to fill any vacancies that exist in the church board.

The subject for 11 a. m. will be The qualifications, powers and duties of the church officers; 7:30 p. m. A living sacrifice.

J. W. SAPP

A surprise party was given Perry Rowen Thursday night of last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rowen—that is, it was to be a surprise party, but one of the invited guests gave it away beforehand. A large number of Perry's friends were present and all say they had a splendid time. The editor shared in part of the good things to eat, as Mr Rowen brought around a liberal supply of ice cream, cake and home made candy the next day.

On Wednesday eve, Mar. 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rentrow, occurred a beautiful wedding of their daughter, Alta J. to Walter L. Edwards of Omaha. At prompt 8:15 p. m. the bride and groom accompanied by Mr. Fred Edwards, brother of the groom, as best man, and Miss Birchie Jefferson as bride's maid, entered the parlor and under the arch of lace curtains and flowers the ceremony which pronounced the happy couple man and wife was said, Rev. Chas. W. Savidge officiating. The bride wore a dainty gown of white satin with trimmings of lace and carried a shower of bridal roses. The groom wore the conventional suit of black. A number of guests were present and many valuable presents were received. They immediately went to housekeeping in their new home already prepared for them. The ceremony was followed by a wedding supper the tables being trimmed with carnations and bridal roses.

ONE PRESENT.

Hon. T. J. Majors of Peru made an address at the funeral services of Gen. Thayer at Lincoln last Friday, his subject being: "Gen. Thayer as a soldier." The colonel was intimately associated with Gen. Thayer during the war and ever since they were close friends.

Some good books at the postoffice book store: Call of the Wild, The Virginian, The Celebrity, The Wings of the Morning, The Gentleman from Indiana, David Harum, The Right of Way, The Choir Invisible, Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, Lovey Mary, Sandy, The Light of the World, The Mississippi Bubble.

Grover Mabb met with an accident while hauling ice Tuesday, that will lay him up a few days. The reach of the bob sled, on which he had a load of ice, came down and struck with considerable force against the stone crossing near Colerick's meat market and dumped the ice and Grover out hurting his back quite badly.—Johnson News.

Picture Frames

The Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co. have received a good line of picture moulding and are now prepared to make picture frames of any size. Take your pictures there and have them framed.
