Special Notices.

BROADWAY HOUSE, FRIDAY EVENING, July 9, 1852.

☞ At an adjourned Meeting of members of the Central Clay Committee of 1844, and of the various Clay Clubs represented in that Committee or recognized by it during that year:

Resolved, That the Presidents of the Clay Clubs of 1844 be requested to convene the surviving members of their several Associations on WEDNESDAY, July 14, at such places as they may deem most convenient for the purpose, to make suitable preparations for a general muster of the members of the Clubs of 1844, on the occasion of the funeral procession appointed by the Joint Committee of the Common Council to take place on Tuesday, 20th inst., in honor of the lamented and revered HENRY CLAY.
JOHN T. DODGE, Sec'y. WILLIS HALL, President.

☞ Extraordinary Occurrence.—Last Fourth of July, one of the Artillerymen, while assisting in firing the National Salute, at Burlington, Vt., had a whisker blown entirely off. For some time there was no indication of the whisker again growing. By the advice of a friend, the gentleman was induced to try the use of BOGLE'S Hyperion Fluid, and in a few weeks the whisker was again growing to perfection; but, singular to relate, it grew of a bright red color, while the other one was dark brown. The gentleman had again to call in the aid of Mr. BOGLE, by applying his Premium Electric Hair Dye, the application of which, on both whiskers, converted them, in an incredibly short time, into a most beautiful glossy black. These articles, with others, may be had of A. B. & D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 273, and Rice & Smith, No. 727 Broadway; Carey & Co., No. 265 Pearl-st., and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

☞ Emigrant Intelligence Office and Labor Exchange, Nos. 25 and 27 Canal-st., New-York.—This office is established by the Commissioners of Emigration, where can always be found large numbers of Laborers and Servants at very low rates of wages, and persons can have their orders filled by writing to the Superintendent and sending the amount necessary to pay the passage of the parties required. No fees charged to employers.
JAS. P. FAGAN, Superintendent.

☞ Fire Department.—The Treasurer of the Fire Department Fund gratefully acknowledges the receipt of Two Thousand Dollars from Messrs. Felix Ingoldsby, Edmund Hyatt, and James J. McCarter, executors of the estate of the late James E. Boisseau, Esq., deceased, being the amount of a bequest left to the Charitable Fund of the Department by that much lamented gentleman.
JOHN S. GILES, Treasurer.

The Treasurer, in giving publicity to the receipt of this handsome legacy, does so with much more than ordinary gratification. The Charity of the Fire Department, although presenting an enlightened plan of benevolence, more expansive perhaps than any other charitable institution in the country, never before this instance shared in those benevolent expressions, which is the more remarkable when it is considered that no charity in this city presents more enduring claims to the gratitude of all classes of the community than the Fire Department, whose members peril health, and even life itself, to save from devastation and ruin the homes and firesides of their fellow-citizens.

The Treasurer takes pleasure in directing attention to the following extract from the report of the Trustees, acknowledging, in appropriate terms, the above bequest, and at the same time paying a deserved tribute of respect to the memory of this Benefactor of the Widow and Orphan:

The Trustees take great pleasure in calling attention to the very liberal and unlooked-for bequest from the late Mr. James E. Boisseau, of two thousand dollars to the Fund; and they feel the more constrained to express their grateful sense of the benevolence of Mr. Boisseau, from the fact that he was a comparative stranger to the members of this Institution, added to which is the singular circumstance, that this is the only bequest ever made to this Department. And while the Trustees desire to place the act of this most benevolent gentleman before their fellow-citizens, generally, in order to manifest their deep sense of gratitude, they, at the same time, would hold it up as a bright example, worthy of consideration and imitation; for it is certainly a source of surprise and regret to the managers of this, (one of the oldest charities of our city,) that, while other kindred institutions are almost daily receiving accessions to their funds, in the shape of bequests &c., this legacy of our lamented friend should stand alone on the records of the Fire Department of this city.

All honor to the memory of JAMES E. BOISSEAU.
New-York, July 12, 1852.

☞ New-York Council, No. 10, O. of U. A. M.—Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in his Providence, to take from us to himself Brother CORNELIUS CANNON, thus depriving us of a good and worthy Brother; and,

Whereas, In his death we feel that the Council has sustained, along with the parents of the deceased brother, a loss which neither time nor season can make good: therefore,

Resolved, That, in the decease of Bro. Cannon, this Council has been called upon to mourn the loss of one who, by his kindness of heart, his devotion to the cause in which he was engaged, and his general good deportment as a citizen and a man, had well earned for himself a name to be remembered with the energetic and the good of our land.

New Publications.

A NEW MONTHLY.—The subscribers will issue, in the present month, the first number of a new monthly publication to be entitled THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE, devoted to Literature, Art, Religion, and General Intelligence.

Assuming that a "progressive" spirit, practical predilections, and the religious sentiment, are characteristics of the American mind, and that these are not incapable of union with the best æsthetic tastes, it will be the aim of this periodical to combine, with such articles as the popular mind usually relishes with most avidity, an elevated literary tone, a critical appreciation of art, the discussion of great practical questions, and a just recognition of religion—religion without dogmatism and without sectarianism. Nothing shall appear in it which can directly or indirectly offend the general Christian sentiment, or render it unwelcome to the purest religious family.

It will be embellished with numerous engravings—most of them illustrative of real scenes or facts. Besides an abundant miscellany of Essays, Sketches, Translations, Poetry, &c., original and selected, it will comprise departments of Literary News, Art Intelligence, Book Notices, Religious Information, and General News, prepared thoroughly by skillful hands.

The public may rely with certainty on the regular and permanent issue of the "NATIONAL MAGAZINE," as the fullest provisions for editing and publishing it have been made, based upon a capital entirely competent to the design. It will be published at the commencement of each month, and contain ninety-six pages per number, making two volumes per annum, of nearly six hundred pages each. It will be the largest monthly of its price in the United States. A liberal discount will be made to wholesale purchasers. To clergymen, and others who act as agents in procuring subscribers, a commission of 50 per cent. will be allowed, or a sixth copy of the work for five subscribers. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance. Single numbers, 38 cents.—July 1, 1852.

Ready on Thursday.

AN EXTRAORDINARY TRIAL.—ACHILLI vs. NEWMAN.—Libel Suit. Price, 12½ cents.—This extraordinary trial, which makes astounding disclosures, and has created immense excitement in London, equal to that of the Forrest trial here, will be ready on Wednesday.

The chief actors in it are an ex-Catholic Priest, who has become a Protestant, and an ex-Protestant Clergyman, who has left the English Church to become a Priest of Rome. The one, Dr. Achilli, born in Italy and educated for the Church, passed through the schools of Lucca, became a Dominican monk, a Popish teacher, a Church Reformer, a prisoner of the Inquisition, and a Protestant exile. The other, Dr. Newman, born in England, also educated for the Church, became in succession a student of Oxford, a Puseyite and a Papist. Both celebrated men, seceders from each others faith, and warm expounders and defenders of doctrines opposed to each other. In their bitter enmity against each other some very extraordinary developments leak out, showing a great laxity of morals somewhere.

This is a verbatim Report, the only full and reliable one published in this country.
