Reflections of a Bachelor

When the average man tells the truth it's a sign it doesn't cost him anything.

If the average man's wife talks, he says she is noisy, and if she doesn't sulky.

It pays to give your wife an allowance if she will let you keep on owing it to her.

What a woman likes about a man's brains is that they aren't a match for her instinct.

When a woman has a lot of stockings she isn't afraid to use for fear they'll wear out it's a safe bet she's a bride.—New York Press.

No Mystery in His Attitude

Mr. Roosevelt has given abundant proof that he does not wish to injure the railroads or any other legitimate business carried on according to law. But as the sworn executive he is determined that the laws shall be obeyed and the public interest protected. There is no mystery about his attitude toward the corporations, but it will do no harm to make new assurances that he does not intend to run amuck.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

All-steel Sleeping Car

The first all steel sleeping car ever put on the tracks arrived at the Broad street station today. It was brought here for inspection by officers of the Pennsylvania railroad before being sent to the Jamestown exposition.

The car has the same dimensions as the ordinary sleeper, but weighs ten tons more. It is made entirely of steel, aluminum and brass. It will go to New York tomorrow.—Philadelphia dispatch to the New York Press.
