THEATRE TRAIN IS WRECKED

Forty Persons Are Badly Injured — Two Are Dead; Others Dying.

(By United Press.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Esther Hecox, of Chicago and an unidentified man are dead, three are dying and more than 40 persons are seriously injured as the result of a collision shortly after midnight between a swiftly moving theatre train on the Lake Shore railroad and an excursion train, which left here taking visitors to Laporte and Indianapolis. The excursion train was standing on a siding apparently waiting for another train to pass, when the theatre train, without warning crashed into it from the rear.

The locomotive of the theatre train ploughed through the rear coach of the excursion train, which was heavily loaded.

Practically everyone in that coach was seriously hurt and the coach itself was reduced almost to kindling wood. Many men and women were pinned in the wreckage and the wildest confusion followed. The steam was rushing from the wrecked locomotive, making a noise like thunder. The wails and cries of the injured and screams of the terror-stricken women and children made men usually possessed of presence of mind, unable to act intelligently.

Ambulances were rushed to the scene from this city, with doctors and medical supplies. Most of the injured were brought here and are at the Mercy hospital.

The responsibility for the wreck has not been placed, on account of the great confusion as to how it happened. The railroad officials are conducting a rigid investigation but so far have found little evidence of importance.
