☞ People's Washing and Bathing Establishment in Mott-st.—This house has been open to the public for three months, and the following statement shows the results:
There have been 19,769 tub bathers, equal to an average of 235 per day. 17,741 swimming bathers, or 228 per day; 175 vapor baths. In the wash'ng department there have been 1,778 washers, employed 8,300 hours.
The wash tubs have not been used as much as the Directors desired to have them. The sole reason why they are not all used at all times must be because people are ignorant of the advantages to be derived. No one uses them once without coming again. They are for the poor, and washing can be done more advantageously and more economically at this establishment than it can be in any house. Come and try it.

☞ Take Heed.—Several of our distinguished Physicians have examined the Porous Glass Filter, and have expressed their opinion that their general adoption would greatly conduce to the health of our citizens. Every one that sees the great quantity of impurities separated from the water by this Filter must certainly coincide with the Physicians. "Prove all things and hold fast to that which is good." Depôt No. 316 Broadway.

☞ Hope's Express—Via CENTRAL RAILROAD of New-Jersey. Twice daily from New-York to Easton, Pa. Leaving at 8 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M. Office No. 74 Broadway, New-York.

☞ To Mothers.—Are you aware that with every draught of unfiltered water your beloved children are imbibing the seeds of disease? It is too true. Summer diseases are caused in the majority of cases by the impurity of the water. This is no humbug. The Porous Glass Filter removes all impurity from the water. Price $1 50. Depôt, Gothic Hall, No. 316 Broadway.

☞ Notice.—Citizens and strangers, what is the use of paying $5, $6 or $7 for Boots, when you can get best French Calf Boots, with patent shanks, ready made, or to order, for $3 50, at A. BAKER'S, No. 30 Beekman-st. French Patent Leather Boots, $3 50. Call and see.

☞ Paris Green, ("S" Brand)—Being an American manufacture, patented 1849, known to be unsurpassed by any foreign importation for brilliancy or beauty of color, or durability. This Green is confidently recommended as claiming the notice of parties concerned in its use for shipping, Venetian blinds, wall hanging, &c., for which purpose it is preeminently adapted. Manufactured and sold by THEO. SCHWARTZ, No. 14 Jacob-st. (Swamp.)

☞ Embalment of Human Bodies.—Dr. PILATE and his partner, Dr. NICOLAS, have taken their office at W. M. Raymond & Co.'s Metallic Burial-Case warerooms, No. 536 Broadway, New-York, where information can be obtained about their process and charges. Persons from a distance requiring their services may apply as above, and their summons will be promptly attended to.

MARY SEAHAM. By Mrs. Grey.—T. B. PETERSON, No. 98 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia, publishes this day, from the advanced sheets purchased in Europe,
MARY SEAHAM.
By Mrs. Grey, author of "The Gambler's Wife," and said to be the best work ever before written by her. It is one of the most bewitching and charming works that has ever been published, and no one will read it without recommending it. The three English volumes are all published in one volume of over 200 octavo pages, and the price of the complete work is only fifty cents a copy.
Single copies of Mary Seaham will be sent to any one place in this country, free of postage, on the receipt of 50 cents in a letter, postpaid.
Read what the English press say of it:
A novel which will add to Mrs. Grey's literary reputation. The leading events of this beguiling love story excite curiosity to the highest degree. [Globe.
An admirable work—a powerfully conceived novel—founded on a plot of high moral and dramatic interest. [John Bull.
An admirable book. The heroine is a charming impersonation, and the other characters are drawn with life like power. [Messenger.
There is a great vigor and much cleverness displayed throughout the pages of this well written novel. The scenes of striking interest are portrayed with power and discrimination. The story is natural and the denouement is skilfully and appropriately worked out. [Messenger.
Mary Seaham will become one of the favorite novels of the season. [Atlas.
The execution of this tale is very remarkable. [Spectator.
An agreeable, elegantly written story. [Athenæum.
This novel will interest a large circle of readers, and afford them unmixed pleasure. [Observer.
This story is very interesting, and there is an earnestness and truthfulness about it which cannot fail to please. [Critic.
T. B. PETERSON also publishes a uniform edition of Mrs. Grey's Novels, either of which can be had separately, price 25 cents, or any five will be sent or given to any one for one dollar. The following are their names:
THE GIPSEY'S DAUGHTER.
LENA CAMERON; or, The Four Sisters.
THE BELLE OF THE FAMILY.
SYBIL LENNARD: A Record of Woman's Life.
THE DUKE AND THE COUSIN.
THE LITTLE WIFE.
THE MANŒUVERING MOTHER;
THE BARONET'S DAUGHTERS.
THE YOUNG PRIMA DONNA.
THE OLD DOWER HOUSE.
HYACINTHE; or, The Contrast.
Single copies of the above, or all of them, will be sent to any person at all, free of postage, on receipt of remittances for the same, addressed to the publisher, postpaid.
T. B. PETERSON, No. 98 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia.
For sale by Booksellers and News Agents generally throughout the United States.

MIDWIFERY and the DISEASES of WOMEN.—A descriptive and practical work, showing the superiority of water-treatment in menstruation and its discords, chlorosis, leucorrhea, fluor, prolapsus uteri, hysteria, spinal diseases, and other weaknesses of females; in pregnancy and its diseases, abortion, uterine hemorrhage, and the general management of child-birth, nursing, &c. Illustrated with numerous cases of treatment by JOEL SHEW, M. D. FOWLERS & WELLS, Publishers, No. 131 Nassau-st., N. Y., and No. 142 Washington-st., Boston.

A Novel for the whole Union will be published soon.
NORTHWOOD; Or, LIFE NORTH and SOUTH, showing the true character of both, by MRS. SARAH J. HALE, ILLUSTRATED.
"He who loves not his country can love nothing."
The intention of this deeply interesting novel is to illustrate the dignity of labor and show the influence of American Institutions on the character of our people both North and South. It is a book for the Nation: nothing partisan, or sectional has swayed the mind of the authoress. Mrs. Hale is not tinged by any of the isms of the day, but is above any female writer of our country; a true representative of the moral dignity and grandeur of woman.
H. LONG & BROTHER, No. 43 Ann-st., N. Y.
This work cannot fail to have a large sale, and the trade are therefore requested to send in their orders early. Bound in cloth price $1; paper covers 75 cents.

New Book by Alice Carey.
NOW READY—HAGAR. A STORY OF TO-DAY. By Alice Carey, author of "Clovernook," "Lyra," and other poems, &c., &c. In 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1.
"A story of rural and domestic life, abounding in humor, pathos, and that naturalness in character and conduct which made 'Clovernook' so great a favorite last season, and procured for the distinguished authoress the universal praise of occupying a higher rank in literature than any other living writer of her sex in this country or in England. Passages in 'Hagar' are written with extraordinary power, its moral is striking and just, and the book will inevitably be one of the most popular productions of the season."
Published by J. S. REDFIELD, Clinton Hall.

"The most powerful Fiction of the day."
READY THIS MORNING—SECOND EDITION of THE HEIRS OF RANDOLPH ABBEY. From The Dublin University Magazine; edited by Charles Lever. Price 25 cents. First large edition exhausted; second edition now ready.
"There have been few works of fiction published of late years that can be deemed superior." [Commercial Advertiser.
"The most brilliant production since Jane Eyre." [Literary Gaz.
"In skillfulness of plot, vividness of portraiture, and expressiveness of style, it has not been exceeded by any novel of the season." [Courier and Enquirer.
"It is the ablest and most powerful fiction of the day." [The Daily Times.
"We have seldom read a work of fiction more thrillingly wrought out than this. The vivid portraitures of individual character are worthy of Dickens or Bulwer." [Home Journal.
"This novel has created a profound sensation. We have never read a more vivid or profound work in this school of writing." [Morning Star.
"Few novels of a recent date have attracted more attention abroad or taken higher rank." [Northern Budget.
Will be Published Next Week:
SECOND EDITION OF THE UPPER TEN THOUSAND.
, The great demand for this very popular book, has caused the publishers to have this edition stereotyped; hereafter there will be no delay in supplying orders.
STRINGER & TOWNSEND, No. 222 Broadway.

SING the GLORIES of OLD CHIPPEWA.—SCOTT and GRAHAM MELODIES for the CAMPAIGN.—HUESTIS & COZANS Nos. 104 and 106 Nassau-st., New-York, have just published a beautiful collection of over fifty Whig Songs, as sung by the principal Scott and Graham Clubs throughout the United States. They comprise the best collection extant, having been selected by a distinguished Whig. The songs are mostly adapted to the most popular airs—such as "Old Folks at Home," "Dearest Mae," "Lovely Nell," "Ben Bolt," "Old Rosin the Bow," "Star Spangled Banner," "Low Backed Car," "Old Granite State," &c., &c. The Scott and Graham Melodist is printed on fine paper, 18mo., containing 72 pages, with a correct likeness of the Old Hero. Persons wishing copies can have them sent by mail by remitting, post-paid, 15 cents, or 10 copies for $1. Clubs and booksellers will be supplied at $7 per hundred. Orders to be addressed to HUESTIS & COZANS, Nos. 104 and 106 Nassau-st., N. Y.

SILLIMAN'S CHEMISTRY.—FIRST PRINCIPLES OF CHEMISTRY; for the use of Colleges and Schools. By Prof. B. Silliman, Jr. A new edition of this work is in press and will be issued early in October next. This edition has been almost entirely rewritten, and is brought up to the present state of science, so far as is possible within its limits. The main features of its arrangement remain unchanged, while every part has been worked up anew. The Organic Chemistry has been again entirely rewritten and contains much that will be new to the teacher as well as the pupil. Numerous and finely executed illustrations have been thrown into every part of the work, and those who have before adopted it will now find it still more worthy of their continued patronage. The sale of twenty-four early editions has encouraged the publishers to spare no expense in maintaining the work in the first rank of its class.
In preparation, by the same author,
A TEXT BOOK ON NATURAL PHILOSOPHY; for Colleges and Schools. Just Published,
A New Edition of DAY'S ALGEBRA, with additions and alterations by the author and Prof. Stanley, of Yale College. H. C. PECK & THEO. BLISS, Philadelphia.

THE HIGHER LAW, by Hosmer, containing a fine portrait of Governor Seward. Received this day, by KIGGINS & KELLOGG, Wholesale Booksellers, No. 83 John-st.

TO LAWYERS—The New Rules.—Just issued, ADDITIONS TO PRACTICE AND PLEADING UNDER THE CODE, by HENRY WHITTAKER, prepared for insertion into the published volume; delivered gratis to subscribers or purchasers. The work, with the additions as above, contain a full synopsis of the practice as now settled upon the recent revision of the Rules. Price, as heretofore, $5. For sale by JOHN J. DIOSSY, No. 1 Nassau-st., New-York.
