Insurance Companies.

EAGLE LIFE and HEALTH INSURANCE COMPANY, second house from the Ferry, Jersey City, N. J.—This Company having made arrangements for the introduction of some features in Life Assurance which are new in the community, would invite public attention to them:
1st. They insure against ACCIDENTS, PARALYSIS, BLINDNESS, INSANITY, and other bodily and mental afflictions, permanently disabling the insured.
2d. DISEASED LIVES insured at a moderate extra rate of premium.
3d. A RELIEF FUND is provided for the benefit of the insurers, who may, through unforeseen circumstances, become unable to make their annual payments, by which fund they may be enabled to continue their insurance, in whole or in part.
4th. TEETOTALERS insured at five per cent. less than the regular rates.
The Company have availed themselves of the experience of the oldest and best offices, of data procured from the best informed and most intelligent sources, and of the services of a fully competent actuary, in preparing for the presentation of these matters to the public.
The Directors being desirous to offer every advantage consistent with safety, and to render the system of Life Insurance as valuable as possible to the living, providing against the contingencies to which all are liable, and at any moment, have adopted these new features, and commend them to the notice of the people.
In addition to the points referred to, and which are peculiar to the Company, the usual business of Life Insurance is transacted by them, and policies granted with or without participation in profits.
Rates, forms of proposal, &c., may be had on application, either personally at the Company's office, or by letter addressed to RICHARD H. DOUGLASS, Secretary, No. 3 Montgomery-st.

224 FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS of the BUFFALO AND NEW-YORK CITY RAILROAD COMPANY for $1,000 each, payable 1st July, 1856, at the Mechanics' Bank in the City of New-York. Interest at the rate of seven per cent., payable in New-York semi-annually, for which coupons are attached to the Bonds.
The Capital Stock of the Buffalo and New-York City Railroad Company subscribed, is $750,000, of which $614,000 has been paid in cash. The track from Attica to Hornellsville, 50 miles has been built and equipped by the Company, and is now in running order, throughout. The cost of these 50 miles is $1,200,000, including Locomotives and Cars, of which the Company have sufficient for immediate purposes.
The Bonds now offered are the last of a series of 700 of $1,000 each, secured by the first and only mortgage upon the 50 miles referred to, executed to Shepherd Knapp, C. Smith and T. Dehon, Trustees.
The Company have purchased 23 miles of the Buffalo and Rochester Railroad track, from Attica to a point eight miles from Buffalo. The latter Company are building a new track direct to Batavia, commencing at the point just mentioned. It will be completed by the 1st of November next, when that Company are to give possession of the 23 miles to the Buffalo and New-York City Railroad Company. The remaining eight miles, terminating at Buffalo, are now building, so that the whole Road will be completed in the month of November next, and the cars running from Buffalo to Hornellsville, where it intersects the New-York and Erie Railroad, 332 miles from New-York, making the whole distance between Buffalo and New-York 423 miles, being the shortest, most direct and convenient connection between New-York and Buffalo.
At Buffalo the Road connects with a Railroad now organized between Buffalo and Lewiston, by means of which a direct communication will be created between the Eastern cities, Niagara Falls, and Toronto, Canada West, without a break at Buffalo.
This Road will form an important connection with the Railroads in Canada, running westerly to Detroit and northerly to Lakes Huron, Superior and Michigan. The entire line from Lewiston to Buffalo and New-York will be of the six feet gauge, so as best to promote the comfort of travelers and economy in the transportation of freight.
Terms made known on the day of sale.
A. D. PATCHIN, Treasurer.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer.
PEREMPTORY SALE of about 250 desirable BUILDING LOTS, at the new and beautiful villages of Strattonport and Flammersburg, at Auction.—ALBERT H. NICOLAY will sell on MONDAY, September 13, at 11½ o'clock, on the ground at Strattonport, about 250 beautiful Building Lots, located at Strattonport and Flammersburg, between College Point and Flushing, and only eight miles from the City of New-York. These Lots are all fifty feet front and rear, and one hundred feet deep, and are without exception the best Lots that have ever been offered to the public in this vicinity, as the picturesque and romantic scenery surrounding them cannot be surpassed. The convenience of access from the City of New-York, together with the healthy location, will make these places the most desirable for all persons seeking a country residence, as well as safe and profitable investment, and must rapidly increase in value. Strattonport and Flammersburg are located on Flushing Bay, opposite Harlem, and half a mile north of Flushing. Flushing Bay is noted for its wild fowl, fish and clams, and possesses one of the most handsome water privileges of half a mile in length.
The land is nearly level, undulating a little toward the Bay. The air is highly salubrious, and there is an abundance of pure spring-water; these places are accessible several times a day by steamboats and stages, and they promise to become the most flourishing villages within eight miles of the city of New-York

WONDERFUL! MOST WONDERFUL!
This is the cry of one and all
Who upon Dr. Roback call;
Prince of Astrologers is he!
The very king of destiny!
In the nativities he gives,
We see unveiled our future lives;
No one has failed—man never heard
That Roback's art ever broke its word:
In sickness, love, and business too,
Whate'er he says still turns out true;
The sick restored, his skill applaud,
And many has he saved from fraud;
In speculation, law suits, debt,
He is the wisest counsel yet,
For he the silent stars can read,
All honor to the mighty Swede!
All letters to C. W. ROBACK, No. 6 White-st., if prepaid, will be religiously attended to. For more particulars, call and get an Astrological Almanac, gratis, where certificates can be seen.
