Persons from a distance requiring their services may apply by telegraph, and their summons will be promptly attended to.

☞ Query.—Why should so many persons be afflicted with baldness and gray hair, when by a constant application of BOGLE'S Hyperion Fluid they can procure a permanent remedy? Why should feminine and masculine beauty be marred or rendered odious by the wearing of red or sandy colored hair, while BOGLE'S Premium Electric Hair Dye is at their command? These articles are harmless in their nature, but entirely successful in their intended results, and may be had of A. B. & D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 273, and Rice & Smith, No. 727 Broadway; Cary & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st.; and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

☞ Nature is dying and the Winter of death is fast approaching.—The decaying animal and vegetable matter, produced by the heat of the sun from the dead leaves, insects, &c. is much greater in the fall of the year, making the filtration of water an absolute necessity. None should be without the simple and effectual POROUS GLASS FILTER. Dépôt, Gothic Hall, No. 316 Broadway.

☞ Clarenceville, L. I.—Beautiful Lots at moderate prices, payable in instalments of $2 to $4 a month. General Office No. 3 Nassau-st., and No. 57 3d-av. The whole of this beautiful village, embracing nearly seven hundred lots (except one hundred already sold) is offered for sale at prices from $60 to $150 each. This place is situated on the Brooklyn and Jamaica Plank Road, with the Long Island Railroad passing through the centre, and is about 4½ miles from Williamsburgh and 7 from Brooklyn. For convenience of access it is surpassed by no village in the vicinity of New-York, having frequent communications by stages on the Plank Road, and five times each way, daily, by the Railroad. It is finely located in the center of a lovely plain, and is free alike from swamps and rough or mountain land. The village is laid out in broad and convenient avenues, the center one Greenwood-av., being 100 feet in width. The title of the property is perfect, having been in one family nearly 200 years. A complete abstract will be furnished to purchasers. Altogether, to those who would escape high city rents, and desirous of a convenient building spot, this is the best opportunity yet offered to the public. All the streets will be graded at the expense of the present proprietors. For maps or further particulars, apply to D. T. MACFARLAN, General Agent, No. 3 Nassau-st., from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M.; or No. 57 3d-av., from 6 to 9 A. M., and 5 to 7 P. M.; or to either of the following agents:
J. W. Sleight, No. 44 James-st.; J. W. Fell, No. 173 Spring-st.; N. P. Labarte, No. 156 Bowery; R. Ros, Jr., No. 40 8th-av.; A. H. Nicolay, No. 244 Grand-st. and No. 40 Wall-st.; James F. Chamberlain, No. 617 6th-av.; Edward J. Madden, No. 168 9th-av.; I. W. Weston, No. 61 Chambers-st.; J. F. Williams, No. 297 9th-av. John T. Cairns, No. 186 West-st.; Jacob Pecare, No. 163 Hester-st.; Edward Purcell, No. 80 Nassau-st. Brooklyn—John T. Bailey, No. 159 Atlantic-st.; J. B. Bennett, Columbia, between Sackett and Degraw.

☞ New Village of Glen Vernon.—Choice lots from one quarter acre to five acres immediately on the New-Haven Railroad, within a half hour's ride from the city, may be secured by early application to the undersigned. Opportunities are offered to see the ground.
WATKINS & HINE, No. 458 Broadway.

A MEMOIR of the "QUEEN of SONG."—Just published—the Life of HENRIETTA SONTAG, COUNTESS DE ROSSI,
With interesting sketches by Scudo Hector and Berlioz, Louis Boerne, Adolphe Adam, Marie Aycard, Julie de Marguerite, Prince Puckler Muskau, and Theophile Gautier.—With an authentic full length portrait. Price 25 cents.
We have here from several distinguished pens the story of a woman who has been at once the most successful artist of her day, and one of the brightest ornaments of the aristocratic, courtly circles of the continent of Europe. Probably no vocalist ever lived whose career was not entirely eclipsed by the brilliance of that of the subject of this memoir. Endowed with beauty and a charm of manner which brought Barons, Counts, Dukes and Princes to her feet, her talent and her wonderful voice soon achieved for her a fortune, when selecting from her adorers one whom she had long preferred, she retired from the excitement of public life to the enjoyment of the polished circles of diplomatic life, as one of her eulogists expresses it, "she exchanged a diadem for the coronet of a countess, and the graceful Muse became an humble ambassadress." The consequences of the political revolution which has just shaken Europe have again given to the world the Henriette Sontag who turned the brains and carried captive the hearts of all in Germany, France and England, who had brains to be turned and hearts to be carried captive. The principal interest in this little volume has the air of authenticity, and is written in a graceful and pleasing manner. The sketches are perhaps even more attractive in style, and in them may be found many interesting relations of scenes in artist and aristocratic life. [Courier and Enquirer.

THE COQUETTE! THE COQUETTE!! THE COQUETTE!!!—The greatest book ever written in the English language is the above book. It is published complete in one large octavo volume of 248 pages, price 50 cents a copy.
It is a book in which the interest begins with the first page and ends only with the last. We would much question that person's perception of what is graphic, amusing, and keenly satirical, who should speak of one single chapter of this strangely cool novel as either dull, flat, or unprofitable. The "Coquette" is a character sketched to the life. It may profitably be held up to many an aspiring young miss as a glass in which to see herself in all her homeliness or in all her beauty. The character of Lord Davenant is one of those happy hits taken from real life, never surpassed in the whole range of amusing fiction. The rich old lord, so vastly rich in money but so poverty stricken in common sense, is a portraiture of one who lived, and the drawing is unequaled, either by the pen of Thackeray or Charles Dickens.
T. B. PETERSON,
Published and for sale by No. 98 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia.
For sale by all Booksellers and News-Agents in New-York and throughout the United States.

TO ALL TEACHERS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES.—The subscriber has published his System of Penmanship for Schools and Academies in three parts, A, B, and C, with copies and instruction. This system has been taught by the author at his Academy in New-York during the last fourteen years with unexampled success, and has never before been furnished to other schools. Every letter contained in the system, including the covers, is a beautifully engraved fac simile of the author's own handwriting. All copies have printed directions under each line, and the whole work is believed to be a complete teach-yourself system of writing. The books are manufactured of the finest quality of paper, and sold at $1 per dozen, or $10 per gross. All orders should be directed, postpaid, to OLIVER B. GOLDSMITH,
No. 289 Broadway, New-York.
