The object of the letter was to ask a loan, being in necessitous circumstances, as he had been sick, and had a wife and "two lovely children," and his earnings were insufficient for his and their support.

Mr. Bowen, Coroner at Bergen, made inquiries after Mr. Theodike, but learned that he had left the country. He then called at No 24 East Fourteenth-st., and learned that a person of the name signed to the letter had boarded there some time since and that he had a sister residing somewhere in New-Jersey. From all the circumstances, she Coroner was of opinion that deceased was the writer of the letter. Persons having any knowledge concerning the matter, will confer a favor by communicating to the Coroner.

FRIDAY, Sept. 24—P. M.

The Stock Market, this morning, was not so active as yesterday, and had generally a downward tendency, especially at the Second Board. Harlem and Nicaragua continue to be the active Stocks, and were well sustained at the Morning Board. Of Harlem, nearly 4,000 shares were sold, making over 10,000 shares in two days. The market closed at 72¾, a decline of ¼ ⅌ cent. on yesterday's price. The bull party in this Stock are very strong. Nicaragua opened 33½@33¾, and closed, after the Second Board at 33¾. Reading is less firm, and sold at 98¾, seller's ty. The foreign interest, it is said, has been increased during the recent movement to 45,000 shares besides a largely increased amount of the various shares. Zinc was steady at 12¼. Hudson River continues to decline, closing at 73. Long Island was one of the firmest Stocks, 26⅞ being bid at the close. Cotton is quiet but firm. The Coal Stocks are less active, but steady. The Investment Stocks generally were firm, but Syracuse and Utica has been affected by the project of a parallel Road, and sold at 135. Madison is firmer under the immense receipts, and sold at 107. Michigan Central is heavy. Government and State Stocks are firm, but inactive. A sale of 20,000 Georgia 6s was made at 109. Railroad Bonds are quiet.

In Sterling the inquiry is moderate for the steamer to-morrow, and the rate steady at 10¼@10½ for leading signatures. France is 5.15@5.13¾.

There is less activity in Freights, but the quotations are firm. Engagements 2,000 or 3,000 bbls. Flour, 10¼d.; 40,000 bush. Wheat, 5d @5½d., the latter in ship's bags; 20,000 Staves, 70/; 700 bbls. Resin, 15d.; 300 bbls. Lard, 17/6; 400 tuns Logwood, 15/. To London, 8,000 bush. Wheat, 7d.; Oil Cake, 2/; Flour 2/, &c. To California there is a fair business doing at previous rates. A Stave Charter was made to Lisbon at $13 and $15. To Havre the market is dull, and one or the packets is going to New Orleans to load.

The amount received at the Sub-Treasury is $143,075; Paid, $23,343; Balance, $7,175,556.

The demand for Money is less active to day, but rates are sustained at 6@7 ⅌ cent. on call. There is a favorable change from yesterday in regard to supply and demand, and the leading houses are easy. First class paper goes at 6@7 ⅌ cent. The Bank of Englnd are quite equal to their disposition to discount, and we suspect that several of the leading Wall-st banks have been gradually contracting their loans. One of the principal causes, however, of the recent calling in of loans by some of the banks and banking-houses in the street, is the drain of the Western and Southern balances which are now being freely drawn down.

Messrs. Duncan, Sherman & Co. have negotiated with the City of Chicago $150,000 of the Water Loan of that city, being the remainder of the bonds issued for the purpose of supplying Chicago with pure water. The price at which they were taken has not transpired, but it was at least 5 ⅌ cent. higher than the first portion of the loan was taken by the same house. Such is the increasing public confidence in the wealth and future growth of this flourishing city, that Messrs. Duncan, Sherman & Co. were induced to take the remainder of this loan, even at the advanced rate. They also have negotiated with the City of Mobile $50,000 Eight ⅌ Cents, issued in aid of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Co.

There is an improved demand at private sale for first-class Railroad Bonds, and we hear of a considerable aggregate amount sold, in small parcels, mostly for home investment.

The annexed receipts of the Rochester and Syracuse Railroad, accidentally omitted yesterday, show a very prosperous state of traffic on that Road. The earnings for August were:

August, 1852	$105,878 95
" 1851	86,317 53
Increase	$19,561 42

The earnings of the Cleveland and Columbus Railroad in September, will exceed $100,000, and the same figure, according to present appearances, will be reached by the Southern, Michigan and Northern Indiana Road. They are already sufficiently in advance of August, to insure that result.

We hear of about $100,000 in Silver and foreign Gold engaged for the steamer to morrow.

We again remind our readers that to-morrow, (Saturday) at three o'clock, Messrs. Winslow, Lanier & Co. open their bids for the Dayton and Michigan Railroad loan. See advertisement.

Land Warrants are more active. Thompson quotes them:

	Buying Prices.	Selling Prices.
160 acre Warrants	$144	$148
80 acre Warrants	72	74
40 acre Warrants	36	37

The difficulties between the Nicaragua Company and Mr. Vanderbilt appear to be near a settlement. Mr. Vanderbilt, we understand, offered to sell out his whole interest in the steamers on that route for $1,100,000, and a party of capitalists have undertaken to make the purchase. To-day the subscription of that amount was completed, and we presume in a short time the new arrangements will be made, and matters move harmoniously again. The interests of the Transit Company and of the owners of the steamers will now be identical instead of being adverse. Measures will be taken to put the entire line in the best order, and the Company will be enabled to transport passengers with as much comfort, security and speed as the nature of the voyage will permit. It is their intention to make it, if possible, the favorite route to and from California. Two new river boats have recently been sent out, and another new steamer for the Lake is nearly completed, and will be towed out shortly to take her place in the line.

The interior Banks appear to be generally falling in with the plan of redemption established by the Metropolitan Bank. That institution has now we understand, one thousand accounts in its ledgers of which two hundred are of Banks in various parts of the country.

The Imports of the week are again large. The Dry Goods figures are as follows:

Yesterday there commenced an auction sale of a large quantity of French Goods, of which only a portion was sold. A large line of printed De Laines was sold at good prices. A quantity of Merinos and figured Silks commanded a good competition, but the Gloves, of which the offering was heavy, sold at some decline. The stock of French Gloves has become heavy, and prices are giving way in consequence.

A new mining enterprise called the Great Northern Lead Company, has recently been organized in this City, for the purpose of working the Coal Hill and Union Lead Mines, situated in St. Lawrence County, in this State, of which report speaks in terms high. These mines having been already tested, the speculative character of the enterprise is somewhat decreased, and the connection of the gentlmen named below with it, will doubtless secure for the Company a large share of public confidence.

The following gentlemen form the Board of Trustees for the first year: Hon. James C. Forsythe, Samuel T. Jones, Ernest Fiedler, Silas M. Stilwell, Patrick Strachan and John F. Sanford, New-York; Jas. G. Hopkins, Richard P. Remington and Charles G. Myers, St. Lawrence County. The Board, at its organization, elected the following officers of the Company for the ensuing year: President, Hon. James C. Forsyth; Vice-President, Samuel T. Jones, Esq.; Secretary, Charles McLachlan, Esq.

The mining department will be under the charge of Capt. Wm. Dean, an experienced gentleman, who has been manager of two of the largest mines in Great Britain for the last twenty years. The operations have already commenced at the mines, and the first opening is considered to be flattering.

In relation to the new project for a Railroad from Utica to Syracuse, The Oneida Herald has the following statement. We understand that this time the direct Road will most certainly be built:

We call attention to a notice in another column for a meeting of the Directors of "The Utica and Syracuse Straight Line Railroad Co." This Company is unlike those that have been projected in this vicinity within the past few years, and have died almost before they had an existence. This is a real organization, having at its head our most substantial and most energetic citizens. On Saturday last, the articles of association were drawn; yesterday nearly $350,000 of the stock subscribed, and the 10 ⅌ cent required by law paid in. And already the articles are filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

The capital stock of the Company will consist of $1,000,000. The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen: John T. Clark, Oswego; Wm. B. Wolles, George Curtis, Hiram Denio, E. M. Gilbert, Utica; Delos DeWolf, Oswego; Samuel Beardsley, Geo. C. Tallman, B. D. Hurlburt, O. B. Matteson, Utica; John Mott, Sangerfield; Salmon Case, Vernon; Eneas P. Clark, Clerk's Mills.

Among the subscribers to the capital stock, we may name Wm. Walcott, James S. Lynch, James Sayre, J. V. P. Gardner, Charles S. Wilson, Willard Crafts, Josiah Case and A. G. Dauby.

After about $350,000 had been taken, the books were closed, so that opportunity might be given for other places to become interested in the Company.

Engineers will be put upon the route next week. It is expected that John T. Clark, a well-known engineer in whom the entire community have the utmost confidence, will have charge of the survey. The route will probably run through New-York Upper Mills, Clark's Mills, Vernon Centennago, &c. The distance will be about forty-six miles, or eight miles less than by the present line.

The subscriptions to this Company are all bona fide; the pecuniary ability and character of the stockholders are well known.

The Nassau Bank has been organized by the election of Thomas McElrath, Esq., President and R. A. Tooker, Esq., of the Ocean Bank as Cashier. The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen:—Lemuel Bangs, No 13 Park Row; Horace Brooks, No. 65 Nassau-st; Ch. T. Cromwell, No. 51 William-st; Wm. Miles, No 78 Gold-st; Arlington Reed, No. —Courtlandt st; David Jones, No. 310 Sixth-st; Wm. D. Cromwell, No. 18 Dey st; Wm. E. Dean, No. 110 Nassau-st; Augustin Smith, No 112 Nassau-st; Justus S. Redfield, No. 137 Nassau st; James S. Libbey, No. — Park row; George M. Snow, No. 154 Nassau-st.

The Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad Company have purchased 32,000 tuns of rails in England, deliverable at New-Orleans and payable in the bonds of the Company. This will be sufficient to iron the entire road between those cities.

We call attention to an advertisement in another column, of the Dayton and Cincinnati Railroad Company, who advertise for contracts for the first section of their work.

The Reading (Pa.) Journal give the annexed description of the Warwick Mines, the stock of which is mainly owned in New-York. We can add to this account that the company are now getting out eight to ten tuns per day of eleven and twelve ⅌ cent. copper ore, and that the stock is in demand at about $10 ⅌ share, the par value being $5. New separators are being put up which will increase the yield of marketable ore. The supply in the mines is considered to be practically inexhaustible.

"Warwick Mines," or "Jones' Mine Holes," as they are commonly called, are well known for their rich mineral deposits. They have been worked for half a century, mainly for iron ore, from which the furnaces, &c., for many miles around, have drawn their principal supplies, ever since the manufacture of this great Pennsylvania staple was first introduced. This discovery of Copper, impregnated with the iron, was made years ago, and several projects started to turn it to account, but owing to the want of means, and proper skill and machinery to separate the ores, the effort, after extending considerable sums, was in each instance abandoned. A year or so ago the American Mining Company—a wealthy association extensively engaged in mining in various parts of the United States, whose headquarters are at New-York—leased the Copper right, and commenced a course of systematic operations. Under the superintendence of A. A. Parker, Esq., whose business qualifications, experience and scientific skill eminently fit him for the trust, the experiment is now in the full tide of successful operation.

The first thing that strikes the eye, after reaching the mines, are the extensive excavations on every hand—the work of years of patient labor and incalculable expense. The process of tunnelling has nearly been abandoned. The mine holes are mostly open, exposed to the light of day. Many of the pits are over an hundred feet in depth, and are filled with a busy throng engaged in removing the virgin ore from its native bed. The copper ore is quarried from the solid rock, broken into fragments, stacked up in piles on the bank, and subjected to the process of roasting. A large and substantial four story building, with a sand stone wing, used as an engine and fuel house, has been erected near by. The engine is of 70 horse power, and serves to pump the water out of the pits, and keep the machinery in motion. The ore is carted into the building, broken into small pieces, thrown into a hopper, and pulverized by passing between iron rollers.

As fast as ground it is raised by elevators to the fourth story of the building, and passes thence through what are called "Magnetic Separators," by means of which the iron is extracted from the copper. These machines are very curious. The pulverized ore, as it comes down from above, is thinly disposed upon moveable aprons, which pass under cylinders studded with magnets. These magnets pick up the iron and thus separate it from the copper dust. As the cylinder revolves the magnets pass through a brush, sweeping off the iron particles which leave the machine at a separate opening. There are from 16 to 20 of these machines, or separators, disposed in the first, second and third stories of the building, and more are in course of erection. The capacity of the mill is equal to the working up of some 200 tuns of ore per day.

The copper dust, as it leaves the machines, is packed in small canvas bags containing about 100 pounds each. The copper is shipped via Birdsboro and the Schuylkill Canal to New-York and Baltimore, where it commands a ready sale at remunerative prices. The iron, so called to be of superior quality, is sold to the Furnaces in the neighborhood.
