☞ An Meeting of the Whig Charter Convention of the FOURTH WARD, held on Friday evening, the 8th of October, 1852, on motion, Jireh Bull was called to the Chair. The Committee made the following nominations with the greatest unanimity:
For Assistant Alderman—JOSEPH CONTRELL.
For Assessor—SILAS C. SMITH.
For Constables } GEO. W. BENNETT, PHILIP J. DOWNEY.
JIREH BULL, Chairman of the Committee.

☞ To the Electors of the Sixth Congressional District.—I hereby tender my thanks to the Whig Electors of this District, for the handsome manner in which they supported me in the Congressional Convention; but it is my duty to say that I cannot, and will not consent that my name shall be used in opposition to the nomination of Hon. JOSEPH B. VARNUM. I do not desire to be, and will not be a "stump" candidate. I am grateful to the kindness of friends, and the best way they can gratify me now is to unite with the Whigs of the other Wards, and to secure Mr. Varnum his election. To elect him all our votes will be necessary, and all should be given him; and it is my determination to aid him all in my power.
CHARLES M. SIMONSON.

☞ The Stars and Stripes against Spanish Insolence.—EIGHTH WARD SCOTT AND GRAHAM CLUB—ATTENTION!—The public newspapers have spread before the American people the astounding statement that our glorious flag has been insulted, our ships and citizens denied their just rights, our national honor marred.

The semblance of truth accompanies the base record of Spanish insolence!

In view of this intelligence, it becomes us as American citizens, as lovers of our country, and as friends and supporters of our great leader, to sustain the principles we avow, the love of country we cherish, and those principles of doing unto others as we would that they should do unto us—to meet in council, to boldly and earnestly assert our determination to stand by the flag of our country, at all hazards; that, while we repudiate unjust and unlawful efforts to disturb the peace of friendly powers, we nevertheless pledge ourselves to stand foremost as the protectors of our rights and the defenders of our countrymen, who, lawfully pursuing their avocations elsewhere, are taunted by insults from other powers.

To this end we will meet at the Broadway House on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 13, at 7 o'clock, to consider what measures shall be taken to secure reparation for the past and security for the future. The Whig Clubs throughout the city are respectfully invited to join in this act of duty to the whole people. Per order.
JOHN SILLCOCK, Sec'y. H. N. WILD, President.

☞ Ninth Ward Ratification Meeting.—The Whigs of the IXth Ward are requested to meet on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 14, 1852, at 7½ o'clock, in Leroy-st., between Hudson and Bedford, for the purpose of responding to the Assembly and Charter nominations. NEW-YORK, Oct. 11, 1852.
Gentlemen: Your note offering me a Complimentary Concert previous to my departure for the South, was duly received.
I know not how sufficiently to express my thanks, either for the honor intended me, (so rare from such a source,) or for the very kind and flattering terms in which the offer is conveyed.
Whatever successes may lie before me in the path I am pursuing, I shall ever feel grateful for the sympathy you have so generously manifested, and for the honor thus conferred upon me.
I thankfully accept your offer, and if agreeable to you, would designate TUESDAY EVENING, the 26th inst., at Metropolitan Hall, as the time and place of the Concert.
Yours, most respectfully and sincerely,
EMMA GILLINGHAM BOSTWICK.

New Publications.

A NEW STORY by DOUGLAS JERROLD.—JACK RUNNYMEDE, THE MAN OF MANY THANKS.—By Douglas Jerrold, author of Candle Lectures, &c., &c.
Nothing can equal the buoyant, unctious and overflowing humor which characterizes everything from the pen of the great English humorist, Douglas Jerrold. Jack Runnymede is no way inferior to his other productions. Price 12½ cents.
BUNCE & BROTHER, Publishers, No. 134 Nassau-st.
Also, uniform with the above:
JOB PIPPINS, The Man who couldn't help it.
ISAAC CHEEK, The Man of Wax.
TITUS TRUMPS, The Man of many Hopes.

A BOOK equal to Charles O'Malley. Published this day.
THE BIVOUAC OR THE RIVAL SUITORS, by Col. W. H. Maxwell, author of "Hector O'Halloran," "Stories of Waterloo," "My Life, or the Adventures of Capt. Blake," &c., beautifully illustrated. Price Fifty cents.
This capital book is of the "Charles O'Malley" school full of dashing adventures, love intrigues, brilliant sketches of battle scenes, in which the inspiring headlong charge and terrible defeat are detailed with all the force of truth. We have not the space, though we have a strong inclination, to give our readers a taste of its quality—to reprint, at length, the droll dialogues at the regimental mess table; the eloquent description of the encampment of the rival armies; the fearful carnage of the battle-field; the prodigies of valor performed during the mountain combat; the richly humorous "confessions of a gentleman who would have married, if he could;" and a dozen other descriptions marked, in every page by some bold trait of wit or genius. The warlike descriptions will vie with the most animated scenes in Allison or Napier; and the humorous portions of the book have no peers but in the pages of Lever or Lover.
For Sale, Wholesale and Retail, by GARRETT & Co.
Publishers, No. 22 Ann-st.

A CARD to all you that PLAY on the PIANO.—A new and pretty piece of music, the HOP SCHOTTISCH, arranged in an easy key for practice, composed for the Piano by Van der Weyde, published and for sale at BURTON'S, No. 274 Bowery; also, No. 211 Hudson-st. Price, One Shilling.

No. 76 Bowery.

D. APPLETON & Co. Publish on Monday, a new volume of the "Popular Library."
LIVES OF WELLINGTON AND PEEL. From The London Times. 1 vol., 16mo. Cloth, 50 cents.
The most important contribution ever made by the newspapers of the day to historical literature. This work meets the demand for a faithful, succinct, comprehensive survey of the lives of the great English soldier and statesman. The volume contains the whole of the Biography of the Duke, just published by The Times, with the Life of Peel, which appeared at the time of his death, together with leading articles on the occasion.
On Tuesday,
A DIGEST OF ENGLISH GRAMMAR, Synthetical and Analytical, classified and methodically arranged, accompanied by a Chart of Sentences, and adapted to the Use of Schools, by L. T. Covell, Principal of the Fourth Ward School, Allegheny, Pa. 1 vol., 12mo. 62½ cents.
In this work the author has endeavored to reduce to a concise yet comprehensive system the true principles of the English Language, by a critical examination of all the principal English Grammars which have been issued, and a comparison of their rules with the usages of standard writers. Each principle has been carefully arranged and examined by itself in the volume, and a synthetical exercise appended for the discipline of the student.
THE GERMANIA AND AGRICOLA OF TACITUS, with Notes for Colleges, by W. T. Tyler, Professor of the Greek and Latin Languages in Amherst College. A new edition. 1 vol., 12mo. 62½ cents.
The text of this edition has been carefully revised. The notes have also been re-examined, and to a considerable extent rewritten, and the volume is now submitted as a useful addition to the classical literature of our country.
On Wednesday,
THE LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF PUNCHINELLO. Adapted from the French of Octave Feuillet. And Other Stories. 1 vol., 16mo. Containing over 300 Illustrations. A new edition. Price 75 cents.
CONTENTS—I. Adventures of Punchinello; II. Honey Broth; III. Bean Flower and Pea Blossom; IV. Genius Goodfellow; V. The Subterfuge; VI. Honest Hubert.
GOOD IN EVERYTHING. A Story. By Mrs. Haswell, author of "Little Lessons for Little Learners," &c., &c. With Illustrations on Wood. Square 16mo. 50 cents.
The tenor of this excellent story is playful, agreeable and innocent, the inculcation of a useful lesson or salutary truth appearing constantly to be the aim of the author.

JAPAN and the JAPANESE. By T. Watts, M.D.—For the opinions of the Press see the second edition of this "gem of interest," this morceau for epicurean tastes. This "concise, yet copious—romantic, yet authentic" compilation of all that is entertaining, is sold by J. NEAGLE, No. 18 Ann-st. Price 50 cents, with twelve fine engravings by Avery.
