☞ Thirteenth Ward Ratification Meeting—At Thalian Hall, No. 492 Grand-st., Oct. 26, 1852.—The meeting was called to order by Mr. Edward Collin, on whose motion John Colby, Esq., was called to the Chair. Marcus P. Ferris and James P. Haight were appointed Secretaries.

On motion a Committee of three to draft resolutions were appointed by the Chair, consisting of John Cooper, William H. King, and Benjamin Haskell, Esqrs.

Eloquent and able speeches were then made by Messrs. George Peckham, John J. Deane, Charles Riddle, and Joseph Hoxie; after which the Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the renomination of WM. H. WRIGHT as our candidate for Assistant Alderman, the Electors of the Thirteenth Ward have presented one endeared to them by his consistent and manly course in the present Board—a hard-working mechanic, who, without any attempt at display, seeks solely to advance the interests of his constituents.

Resolved, That in our candidate for Assembly, ROBERT H. RICHARDSON, the citizens of this Ward have presented them "One of the People." Raised among us, he is well qualified to watch over and sustain the interests, particularly of the eastern section of this great metropolis.

Resolved, That we hail with acclamation the nomination of JOSEPH HOXIE as the Representative in Congress for the VIth Congressional District, a citizen familiarly known to us all, and deservedly estimated for his unsullied integrity and high moral worth; one preeminently qualified by his long experience in, and by his intimate and practical knowledge of, public affairs, to discharge with ability the duties of the important trust for which he has been nominated—a Whig ever true, ardent and unwavering. We pledge ourselves that he shall receive—as he richly merits, notwithstanding the efforts of our opponents to create by the lavish expenditure of money, distraction in our ranks—the warm, zealous and undivided support of the Whigs of the District.

Resolved, That the honorable and high-minded course pursued by our present representative in Congress, Hon. J. HOBART HAWS, meets with our warmest approval, and that the thanks of his constituents are due to him for his entire devotion to their interests, which has proven so beneficial to every portion of his District, and which should commend him to the support of those for whose suffrages he is now a candidate.

Resolved, That we cordially indorse the nominations presented us by the State, County and City Conventions, and we pledge ourselves to enter the contest with a determination that when the sun shall set on this day week the entire ticket shall be right side up.

Several spirited songs were then sung by Messrs. Cook, Missing and Collin.

The meeting then adjourned.

The whole of this beautiful village, embracing nearly seven hundred lots (except one hundred already sold) is offered for sale at prices from $60 to $150 each. This place is situated on the Brooklyn and Jamaica Plank Road, with the Long-Island Railroad passing through the center, and is about 4½ miles from Williamsburgh and 7 from Brooklyn. For convenience of access it is surpassed by no village in the vicinity of New-York, having frequent communications by stages on the Plank road, and five times each way, daily, by the Railroad. It is finely located in the center of a lovely plain, and is free alike from swamps and rough or mountain land. The village is laid out in broad and convenient avenues, the center one, Greenwood-av., being 100 feet in width. The title of the property is perfect, having been in one family nearly 200 years. A complete abstract will be furnished to purchasers. Altogether, to those who would escape high city rents, and desirous of a convenient building spot, this is the best opportunity yet offered to the public. All the streets will be graded at the expense of the present proprietors. For maps, or further particulars, apply to D. T. MACFARLAN,
General Agent, No. 3 Nassau-st., from 11 A.M. to 2 P.M.; or No. 57 3d-av., from 6 to 9 A.M., and 5 to 7 P.M.; or to John H. Bailey, No. 129 Atlantic-st., and J. B. Bennett, Columbia-st., between Sackett and Degraw-sts., Brooklyn.

So great has been the demand for the above lots that, though they have only been offered for sale for a few weeks, one-third of the whole number have been sold. Those who would secure a choice location must apply at once.

☞ Sale by Subscription of 292 Desirable Building Lots, with an opportunity of obtaining property valued at $80,000 for the sum of $250.—The property now offered for sale comprises some of the most eligible building lots—three dwelling houses and lots, and a very valuable mansion house and ornamental grounds—situated in the City of Trenton, New-Jersey. It is proposed to divide the property into shares of $250; each share to represent a lot, dwelling house and lot, or the mansion and grounds. Purchasers of shares will have for each share held an opportunity of obtaining for $250 property valued at $80,000; three to obtain dwelling houses and lots valued at $1,000, with a probability of getting lots worth much more than the subscription price, and the prospect of a rapid increase in value.

Trenton is situated upon the line of the New-York and Philadelphia Railroad; is very convenient of access, there being four daily trains to and from New-York. The streets are regulated, paved and lighted with gas.

TERMS—Thirty dollars to be paid upon each share at the time of subscribing, and the balance in monthly installments till paid. Subscriptions received by the undersigned. For maps of the property and full particulars apply to

The many worthless imitations of this celebrated Hair Restorative palmed on the public under the lure of cheapness, has determined the inventor to crush them by selling his famous "Fluid" at even a lower price than they can afford to sell their vile trash. At the same time he assures the public that the "HYPERION" will always continue to be as good as heretofore, which has given it celebrity throughout the globe. This, with "BOGLE'S ELECTRIC HAIR DYE," and other preparations, are sold by his Agents every where in the United States and Canada. Sold in this City by A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 225, and Rice & Smith, No. 727 Broadway; Cary & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st., and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

The which one sheds with conscience quite at ease.

MRS. HALE'S GREAT NATIONAL WORK.
NORTHWOOD; Or, LIFE NORTH AND SOUTH.
BY MRS. S. J. HALE.
Beautifully Illustrated.
"He who loves not his country can love nothing."

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"The friends of a pure, healthy, national literature will be delighted with the book. It is neither a hurried production, written for a market, nor a partial narrative, designed to foster a theory or a doctrine; least of all, though New-England is prominent in the pleasant picture, is Northwood a mere local or sectional portrait. A yearning patriotism, a broad love of a broad country, a devoted attachment to each section of the Republic and to every class of its citizens—these are manifested in every change of the absorbing narrative; and in every variation of the flitting scenes, there are elevated and fixed principles in the author's mind—and with them, what is too often lacking, a strong good sense that reforms from forcing principles to a premature development. Mrs. Hale relies upon the truth to promote universal freedom and happiness, and is exceedingly delicious in the delineations of her characters, each of whom possesses individuality most distinctly defined, while the scenes and dialogues are effectively introduced, and sustained with equal spirit. Readers will thank us for commending 'Northwood' to their perusal." (Commercial Advertiser.

"This brilliant book has great claims on the attention of the public, as a great national and vivid picture of society at the North and South. It is a teacher of patriotism, breathing the true spirit which should animate both these sections of our country." (Boston Her.

"This is a charming book. Although it touches upon a subject which is at this time peculiarly exciting in all sections of our country, it speaks with reason and with truth, without prejudice, and in that spirit of conciliation, peace and union which, in the first days of the Republic, dictated the terms of the Constitution of the United States, both for the South and South, and which should still animate the heart of every citizen who wishes to preserve the integrity of that Constitution unstretched. The story, through which Mrs. Hale thus exhibits the relative positions of the North and South, is gracefully written, full of interest, and calculated, we think, to be extensively popular. The book is illustrated with beautiful engravings." (Boston Times.

"As a writer, Mrs. Hale will do a chaste and vigorous pen. In all her productions, we find a dignified subservience to truth, and an earnest effort to do good. No intemperate appeals to passion, no ingenious warping of the false in principle so that it seems to be the impartial to be true, are found in her books. To those, therefore, no matter which side of the question they take, whose minds are alive on the subject of slavery, we recommend—Northwood." (Arthur's Home Gaz.

"We now take pleasure in announcing the appearance of Mrs. Sarah J. Hale's great national work, entitled Northwood; or, Life North and South. Mrs. Hale's literary talent has been long and widely appreciated throughout this Union to require one word of commendation from the press; but we may point with gratifying emphasis to the fact, that while her admirable book gives the most searching and thorough exposition of all the matters connected with this most important and exciting subject, it is no partisan work. It is fair, candid, and just, written throughout in a spirit of high toned patriotism, and with the pen of a liberal, true Christian. The story possesses all the intense interest of the wildest romance, with the reality and truthfulness of truth. How heartily must every just man join in her trust, "that the pen and not the sword will decide the controversy now going on in our land, and that any part woman may take in it will be promotive of peace, and not suggestive of discord." The Best Novel of the Year.
REUBEN MEDLICOTT; Or, THE COMING MAN. By M. W. Savage, Esq., author of "The Bachelor of the Albany," "My Uncle the Curate," &c., &c. 1 vol. 12mo., pp. 443. In paper, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents.

A satirical novel, written in a style of high art and careless carelessness, rarely excelled. We have seen nothing more lively, polished and piquant for many a day. (New York Post.

A most entertaining story, by the author of "The Bachelor of the Albany." It is full of life and character, and is written smoothly, humorously, and often satirically. (New York Courier.

The story is well told, and the moral a most instructive one. (Daily Standard.

The narrative is remarkably lively and amusing, and the varied characters are depicted in a graphic and sparkling manner. (Christian Messenger.

The story is very skillfully and yet naturally wrought out, and he will be a fortunate reader who does not find parts of it bearing closely upon passages in his own life. (Albany Register.

It is written in a dashing and joyous style, which certainly recommends it. (Troy Whig.
