☞ At a Special Meeting of Laurel Hose Company No. 30, held Friday Evening, Nov. 12, 1852, to take suitable action in reference to the death of Mr. PATRICK MOFFIT, late member of the Company, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, the painful intelligence has been received by this Company that our late comrade, Mr. P. MOFFIT, has, within a few hours, terminated his mortal career, and whereas, in contemplating the sudden dispensation which has removed him from our midst, we are solemnly reminded of the uncertainty of life, and the great importance of being constantly ready to respond to that "great alarm" which sooner or later we all shall hear; therefore
Resolved, That in the mysterious doings of an all-wise Providence, which has suddenly removed from earth our late companion, this company sensibly feel the loss of one whose advice and counsel were always received with marked respect and consideration; and do heartily tender to those with whom he was connected in the endearing relations of domestic life, their warmest sympathies in the deep affliction which has fallen upon them, and sincerely commend them to the care of Him who has promised to be "a father to the fatherless, and the widow's friend."
Resolved, That the representatives of the Fire Department, of which body he was a member, be invited to unite with us in paying the last tribute of respect to our late associate, on Sunday, the 14th inst., at 1 P. M.
Resolved, That the house of this Company be dressed in mourning, and that we wear the usual badge 30 days.
Resolved, That the above be inserted in The Sun, Tribune and Firemen's Journal, and also presented to the family of the deceased. EDWARD ESTER, Foreman.
ISAAC BIRD, Secretary.

The foregoing citizens of New-York and Washington constitute a Committee to aid the FABBRI BROTHERS to erect in the City of Washington "THE COLUMBUS GROUP," designed and to be executed by ARISTODEMO COSTOLI, the Professor of Sculpture in the Academy of Fine Arts, Florence. As the Sculptor will be greatly aided by his patrons in Tuscany, not much more than two-thirds the amount otherwise required will be necessary to secure the Group. And in order to raise the sum sufficient, it is proposed to solicit subscriptions and to sell Lithographs to the amount of $150,000, which, after defraying all expenses, will leave a sum adequate to pay for this magnificent piece of Statuary, and for its erection on the beautiful site already prepared for it.
Hight of the Group and Pedestal to be about 40 feet, and of Italian Marble.
The names of the contributors will be preserved in a book to be especially devoted to that purpose, and published every month.
All communications should be addressed to FABBRI BROTHERS, No. 167 Broadway, Room 25.
Agents wanted. Apply between 9 and 11 o'clock, A.M.

☞ Proxy People.—Some folks have the faculty of pinning out a trifle of matter to a great length, more especially when some flaw in the premises depends on elaboration for security against exposition; but multiplied words are unnecessary to define facts—as, for instance, BOGLE'S Hyperion Fluid for the hair, Amole for shaving, and Hebeiona for the complexion, are unrivaled in quality. Sold by WILLIAM BOGLE, the inventor, at No. 277 Washington-st. May be had of A. B. & D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 273, and Rice & Smith, No. 727 Broadway; Cary & Co., No. 215 Pearl-st., and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

☞ Clarenceville, L. I.—Beautiful Lots at moderate prices, payable in installments of $2 to $4 a month.—General Office No. 3 Nassau-st. and No. 57 3d-av. The whole of this beautiful village, embracing nearly seven hundred lots (target over one-third already sold) is offered for sale at prices from $60 to $150 each. This place is situated on the Brooklyn and Jamaica Plank Road, with the Long-Island Railroad passing through the center, and is about 4½ miles from Williamsburgh and 7 from Brooklyn. For convenience of access it is surpassed by no village in the vicinity of New-York, having frequent communications by stages on the Plank road, and five times each way, daily, by the Railroad. It is finely located in the center of a lovely plain, and is free alike from swamps and rough or mountain land. The village is laid out in broad and convenient avenues, the center one, Greenwood-av., being 100 feet in width. The title of the property is perfect, having been in one family nearly 200 years. A complete abstract will be furnished to purchasers. Altogether, to those who would escape high city rents, and desirous of a convenient building spot, this is the best opportunity yet offered to the public. All the streets will be graded at the expense of the present propieters. For maps, or further particulars, apply to D. T. MACFARLAN,
General Agent, No. 3 Nassau-st., from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M.; or to John H. Bailey, No. 129 Atlantic-st., and J. B. Bennett, Columbia-st., between Sackett and Degraw-sts., Brooklyn.
So great has been the demand for the above lots that, though they have only been offered for sale for a few weeks, one-third of the whole number have been sold. Those who would secure a choice location must apply at once.

☞ Post-Office, New-York—Notice.—As a mark of respect for the late DANIEL WEBSTER, this Office will close on TUESDAY, the 16th inst., at 1 P. M.
W. V. BRADY, P. M.

☞ Grass Valley Gold Mining Company.—J. WINCHESTER, President. Capital $450,000. Shares $200; half-shares, $100.
The rich Quartz claims owned by the Company exceed 400 in number, covering a surface of 160 acres, in the richest and most desirable part of Grass Valley. The Machinery, which is the most approved and powerful of any yet manufactured, is calculated to pulverize one hundred tuns per day. The principal part of the machinery is on the ground, and the remainder daily expected. The whole of the property is paid for, and the Company free from debt. This is no speculative affair. A few Shares of the Stock for sale at par. Pamphlets, containing the Charter, By-Laws, Map, &c., may be obtained at the Office; if by mail, inclose two three-cent stamps. Address, postage paid, with remittance for stock, (in drafts on New-York, or current funds,) to
R. J. RICHARDS, Secretary, No. 107 Fulton-st., N. Y.,
Where specimens of the gold-bearing Quartz may be seen from 10 to 3 o'clock.

☞ Webster Funeral Solemnities.—In Joint Special Committee of the two Whig General Committees, Nov. 9, 1852, on motion of Mr. Wm. Rowe, of the VIth Ward, Chairman of the Young Men's Special Committee, Dr. JAMES KENNEDY, of the VIth Ward, was chosen Chairman, and DANIEL BOWLY, of the IIId Ward, Secretary, of the Joint Special Committee.
On motion, Resolved, That the members and ex-members of the several Whig Ward Committees, and of the two Whig General Committees be and they are hereby invited and requested to meet at the Broadway House, on MONDAY EVENING next, 15th instant, at 7½ o'clock, to complete the necessary arrangements for the Funeral Solemnities of DANIEL WEBSTER. By order,
JAMES KENNEDY, M. D., Chairman J. S. C.
DANIEL BOWLY, Secretary J. S. C.

☞ All Members of "The New-England Society in New-York" are urgently requested to meet at the Astor House, on TUESDAY, 16th Nov., inst., at 12 o'clock, noon, to take part in the procession to be formed under the direction of the City Authorities in honor of the memory of DANIEL WEBSTER. By order of the Board of Officers, MOSES H. GRINNELL, President.
F. KINGSBURY, Secretary.

☞ Building Wanted—Suitable for a Paper Warehouse, on Fulton-st., between Broadway and Gold-st. Landlords wishing for a good tenant, will address R. K. P., Tribune Office.

☞ Emigrant Intelligence Office and Labor Exchange, Nos. 25 and 27 Canal-st., New-York.—This office is established by the Commissioners of Emigration, where can always be found large numbers of Laborers and Servants at very low rates of wages, and persons can have their orders filled by writing to the Superintendent and sending the amount necessary to pay the passage of the parties required. No fees charged to employers.
JAS. P. FAGAN, Superintendent.

MADAME SONTAG'S NEW SERIES of CLASSICAL, BRILLIANT, SACRED and CHORAL CONCERTS.
The public are respectfully informed that the Second and Last Series of Madame SONTAG'S New-York Concerts will commence between the 22d and 25th November, at METROPOLITAN HALL.
The most extensive preparations and rehearsals have been proceeding during the last six weeks, to give to these Concerts that character of grandeur and completeness for which the Triennial Musical Festivals of England and Germany are so justly famed; and it is confidently anticipated that great as is has been the satisfaction given by Madame SONTAG'S first series of Concerts, the second, from the excellency of the new engagements made, the selection of the masterpieces to be produced, and the liberality of all the arrangements, will form an era in the musical annals of America. The new series will be divided into
CLASSICAL, BRILLIANT, SACRED AND CHORAL CONCERTS,
In which all the solos, and even secondary parts, will be performed by the EMINENT ARTISTS of Madame SONTAG'S Company.
The Orchestral, Choral, and Chorus departments will consist of SIX HUNDRED PERFORMERS,
And will be led by CARL ECKERT, under whose direction the principal German Festivals have been conducted.
To afford the required accommodation, the orchestral portion of the Hall will be entirely remodelled, on the plan of Exeter Hall, London, forming a spacious amphitheater occupying one-third of Metropolitan Hall, and greatly facilitating the accoustic effect of the music.
The prices of admission will be those of Madame Sontag's first series.
Full particulars in future advertisements.

DELIA'S DOCTORS; or a GLANCE BEHIND THE SCENES, by Hannah Gardner Creemer.
Horro—"It hath a plot.
But no plot. Life has none."—Fanny.
Published by Fowlers and Wells, Clinton Hall, No. 131 Nassau-st., New-York. Price 75 cts.
SUBJECTS: The Young Invalid; Ellen; Allopathy; Tableaux; Hypatian; Negotistion; Elasticity; Iron; Homeopathy; M. D. and D. D.; Hydropathy, Life; Hic Homo; Hæc Homo; Sympathy; Mesmerism; Les Voila; Law; Conclusion.
In this work, many wholesome truths are conveyed, often under the form of a satirical comment on prevailing social customs and institutions, not even sparing the time hallowed professions of medicine and divinity. Delia is a serious young lady in a country village, whose various ailments defy the skill of the faculty, and are cured at last by a more faithful adherence to the laws of health in diet, exercise, and employment of time. The character is produced by the advice of a strong minded female friend, who does not disdain to add to her various accomplishments a knowledge of the conditions of her physical well being.
"The Grave Behind the Scenes" will afford not a little amusement as well as instruction to a large class of readers.
[N. Y. Daily Tribune.

Published This Day,
ROCHESTER, OR THE MERRY DAYS of ENGLAND. By the author of the Jesuit, etc.—Beautifully illustrated. Price 50 cts.
Never have we read a book so replete with incident of the most startling description, and yet without the slightest shade of exaggeration. Every character is drawn with the strictest historical accuracy, and still they far exceed in interest any mere creations of the imaginations of the most skillful writers of fiction.
The high dramatic interest of the plot; the developments of Court intrigues in love and politics; the perils and adventures of the hero and heroine of the story; stamp the work as one of the greatest historic romances ever written.
Also just published, COUNT JULIEN, or the Last Days of the Goth. By the author of "The Yemassee," "Guy Rivers," "The Kinsman," etc. Price 50 cts.
Will be ready on Monday, a new Edition of THE BIVOUAC, or the Rival Suitors, by Wm. H. Maxwell, author of "Hector O'Halloran," "Stories of Waterloo," "Adventures of Capt. Blake," etc. Beautifully illustrated. Price 50 cts.

GRAY'S ELEGY and OTHER POEMS—Printed on superfine paper, with illustrations by Gilbert. Cloth, $1; full gilt, $1 50; Turkey morocco, $2 50.
"A very beautiful edition of these admirable Poems. The Elegy is profusely illustrated, each verse having a design and a page for itself. Some of the designs are exquisite, and all are in fine keeping with the quiet spirit of the poem itself. Of Gray's poetry hardly any eulogy could be extravagant; its long current and universal suffrage has long become one of the classics of the language, and one of that still rarer circle of whom the world regrets they have so little."—Evangelist.
