day,) took place at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at the City Court room, before Coroner Schapps, and the following persons who acted as Jurymen: John Hamilton, Wm. Hughes, J. C. Gander, J. H. Wilson, J. Hanford, Geo. Hovey, Wm. V. Hovey and Wm. H. Hodges.

Sworn: Brunner was the first witness sworn, and stated in substance that he was at the porter-house of Charles Volk, in First-st., early on Monday morning, when the occurrence took place; was helping Volk put up his window-blinds when Myers and another man came in; Myers told Volk to close up within five minutes' time; they came in the second time and drank a glass of beer, and then went out; in about a minute Myers returned again, and told Volk to "shut up right away, or he (Myers) would shut up the store, and d—d quick too;" they had some hard words between them, when Myers struck at Volk across the counter, but did not hit him. Myers then took a pitcher and struck at V., and then went behind the counter; Volk told him to get out of the house, as he had no business behind the bar, and abusing him in his house; Volk moved back to get away from Myers, who followed him; they both struck at each other; Myers fell by the door; Myers had a pitcher in his hand, and Volk had an iron bar; the bar was used to fasten the window-shutters with; Myers struck at Volk twice with the pitcher, and once with his hand across the counter; Volk struck M. with the iron bar, hitting him on the head, when he fell by the door; Volk then went and woke up his barkeeper and another man, and told them to wash Myers; the barkeeper then washed the blood from his face and head, and helped him on his feet, and he (Myers) went out.

Dr. C. L. Cook, sworn—Called to see Myers early on Monday morning last; when he first saw him he was insane, and after became insensible; the skull was fractured, and some of the brains had escaped; the wound was on the left side of the head; found some brains in his hair and some on his clothes; operated on Myers on Monday and extracted a piece of skull bone from his head; supposes the wound was produced by some instrument like the bar of iron; thinks the bone is about the width of the bar and more than two inches in length; does not think he received more than one blow; does not doubt the blow on the head was the cause of death; the injury produced a paralysis of the right side, rendering Myers unable to speak; the scalp was extensively lacerated.

Mr. John D. Hunt, a policeman, was then sworn, and stated the particulars of Volk's arrest, also, that Volk admitted at the time of his arrest, that he had struck Myers with the bar in self-defence; found the bar on the window over the shutters; saw some blood on the door-step; prisoner appeared to be somewhat agitated; did not appear to know as to what extent he (prisoner) had injured Myers.

James Lynch was then sworn.—Mr. Lynch had been in the company of Myers during Sunday night, and stated that Myers was under the influence of strong drink. His testimony as to what took place between Myers and Volk was similar to that of the first witness.

The Jury retired for a few moments, when they returned and rendered the following verdict: "That the said H. H. Myers came to his death by a blow on the head, inflicted by one Charles Volk, on the morning of Monday, Nov. 22, in the City of Williamsburgh."

Yesterday morning Volk was brought before Coroner Schapps, at the Court room, asked him if he had any statement to make relative to the death of Mr. Myers. Volk said he had. In answer to a question by the Coroner, he said that he was born in Germany, was 26 years old on Wednesday, and kept a dining saloon in First-st, between South Fifth-st. and South Sixth-st.; and further said, that on Monday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock, he was talking with Brunner, (the first witness,) when they heard a noise in the street, and fearing I would have some muss in my house, said I would shut up, and asked Brunner to assist me; while we were shutting up, Myers passed by in a noisy manner; I had the iron shutter-bar in my hand to put over the shutters; Myers came back and asked me if I would shut up; I said "Yes, Sir;" he said "shut up as fast as you can;" I asked him, "have you anything to say here;" he said, "What?" and took hold of me by the collar of my vest; I stooped, in order to release myself, and ran into the store; he followed me into the store and asked if I was going to strike him; I told him "No, Sir; I never strike a man;" I then crossed the store, backwards, and he followed me behind the counter; I still held the iron bar in my hands; he tried to take it away from me; one end of the bar was then resting on the floor, while he had hold of it with one hand. Finally, as he could not get it, he struck me with his fist. I said, "that is enough, I want you to leave me alone." He then went round in front of the counter. Mr. Lynch then came in and asked me if I did not understand the joke. I said, "I understand a joke well enough, but a man must not strike me." Myers then asked for a glass of beer; I gave it him, and he said, "now shut up, or I will shut you up." They then went out and left the door open. Brunner closed the door, and I said to him, "that man must be a great blackguard." Myers was then outside, and came in again, and said, "Aint you shut up yet?" I told him "No, sir, it is Monday morning, and I shall keep open as long as I like." He then tried to take hold of me with one hand and with the other tried to strike me, but did not hit me. He then seized the pitcher and poured the water in it on my head. I still had hold of the bar, and cried to the bar-keeper for assistance; I passed round the end of the counter toward the stove, when Myers struck me over the head with the pitcher and broke the top of it; he struck with it again while I was trying to get it from him, and cut me on the finger; I could not get it, and it fell upon the floor; when I found he would not desist I raised the bar and stood in self defense; as I raised the bar the top of it caught in the stove pipe over my head; I pulled the bar very hard to get it loose, and it hit Myer coming down; I never intended to hit him; he then stated that he ordered the clerk to wash the blood from Myer's face and head, after which Myer went away without assistance.

Coroner Schapps then made out a warrant, to commit him to the county jail to await his trial. Mrs. Volk, wife of the prisoner, was present at the time he made his statement, and was very much affected. During yesterday afternoon, Officer Hunt called to see Mrs. Volk, in reference to procuring bail, when he found that her mind was completely bewildered, and she was unable to answer his interrogations.

HIGH PRICE FOR LAND.—The farm of Mr. Polhemus, situated between Astoria and Ravenswood, of 100 acres, sold a few days since for $50,000, being $500 per acre. Another farm of 40 acres near Astoria, which belonged to the late Isaac Van Alst, sold for $35,000, being $870 per acre.

FIRE.—Early on Thursday morning a fire broke out in the wooden building of Messrs. Starr, Fellows & Co., in Johnson-st., and was burned to the ground. This building was occupied by the above gentlemen as a lamp manufactory. A building in the rear of the factory, occupied as a tin-shop, was also burned. The loss is about $2,500. The factory was insured for $500.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday, a man named Michael Murray had his leg broken while at work excavating in a cellar in Grand-st., by a quantity of earth falling in upon him. He was taken to the Dispensary, where the fractured limb was set, and was afterward taken to his residence in Second-st.

A MAN-TRAP.—The storm yesterday caused the stone about the well at the corner of Third and South Second-sts. to give way, by which means the flagging covering the well has settled some three feet. Should it not be repaired immediately, loss of life may be the consequence.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER—Before Judge EDWARDS and Ald. WARD and CORNELL.

The trial of William Johnson (indicted in connection with Howlett and Saul for the murder of Mr. Baxter) was, by request of his counsel, laid over till Monday.

TRIAL FOR ARSON.

A German, named Melchier Scheefler, was placed upon trial on an indictment for arson in the first degree, (the punishment of which is death,) by setting fire to house of Henry Rhode, baker, No. 268 Munroe-st, with whom he had been for a few days employed.

Mr. Rhode testified to having a wife and two children, and occupying, in May last, the above house; Scheefler was in his employment about a week, when he was discharged because there was no work for him; there was no quarrel, but he was heard to say that R. would not be in the house more than three or four days; the same night, about 10½ o'clock, a fire was discovered under the stairs leading to the second story, and paper, matches and camphene found there; it was extinguished; on the night of 9th May, about 12 o'clock, a fire again occurred in the same place, and a combustible material exploded; it was again extinguished.

On cross-examination witness stated he had bought the lease of a man who had bought of George Presser, and Presser, after witness moved, inclined to have a right to the premises, and got an officer to evict witness, but without effect. He came there again after the fire, and witness (Rhode) charged him with the fire, and also said to him that his (F's) wife had been seen round there, and that he had heard that she had said if they did not get the house back they would destroy it. He said he did not know anything about the fire.

Benjamin M. Young testified to being a cauiker by trade, and to have resided in rear of No. 268 Munroe-st. While going through the alley-way to his house the night of the second fire, he saw prisoner in the alley-way. Prisoner started and went off. An alarm of fire was given. Went with officers next day and saw him at the window of No. 12 Essex-st. Pointed him out to the officers.

John Shearer, sworn—I was coming home that night, and saw prisoner on the sidewalk, opposite the house, looking into the bakery.

Chas. F. Way, Policeman of the Seventh Ward—Was directed to a German porter-house in Essex-st., and prisoner was pointed out to me sitting at the window; went in and asked him if there were any German bakers boarded there; asked him if he knew a man named Sheeffer; to both of which questions he answered no; said other things, but got no satisfaction; went out to Young, who insisted upon his being the man, and arrested him.

The examination of the prisoner was then put in. He said that he was a German, 40 years of age, and a baker by trade; also that some time previous to the fire P. offered him $15 if he would set Rhodes's house on fire; P. afterward said he was joking; after the first fire, went to P.'s house in Williamsburgh, but did not see him; can account for where he was those nights.

It was shown that some paper, found in the trunk of prisoner, corresponded with some found at the scene of the fire.

Mr. Young was recalled as to an apparent discrepancy in his present testimony and that before the Magistrate; he said he stated then as he now does, but supposes it had been taken down wrong.

The case for prosecution rested.

Mr. Sickles, who appeared for the prisoner, said the witnesses who testified to prisoner being there that night were mistaken.

John Weise, sworn—Prisoner boarded with witness in Essex-st.; saw him the night before the fire in the store; he slept there at the time of the fire; he went out, with some others, about 9 o'clock; when I first knew him he was working for Presser, in Munroe-st. P. looks something like him, though a younger and shorter man; prisoner pointed out to me the first fire in a German paper.

Fredolph Walter, sworn—Lives at No. 12 Essex-st.; prisoner slept in room with witness; saw him there after 9 o'clock that Sunday night; went to a porter-house together in Third-st., and remained till near 11 o'clock; there were four others with us; went then to another house kept by Cooper, and remained till 12¾; then went to a bakery in Avenue A, and remained about a quarter of an hour; then went to a porter-house near and staid till 12½; there were six or seven persons there; heard an alarm of fire and all went out; went then to a bake house where Sheeffer was acquainted, and from that home, which we reached about 1 o'clock; the night was dry.

Casper Marker testified to keeping a public house at No. 205 Third-st.; Sheeffer and the first witness were at my house the night before he was arrested; the prisoner is of good character.

Catharine Gillman testified to prisoner being at the public house kept by her husband, No. 35 Avenue A, on Sunday night before the Monday of his arrest, about 12 o'clock; there was an alarm of fire at the time.

George Lediger, No. 23 Avenue A, testified to prisoner also being at his house that night.

George Fleury testified that prisoner used to board with him in Second-st., and left his trunk there.

Margaret V. Burkhardt testified to having made shirts and been in the habit of washing for him; wrapped up the things in straw-colored paper and newspaper, such as seen in his trunk.

Adam Francier testified to knowing prisoner from boyhood; he is a Bavarian; visited him after his arrest, and he asked witness to go round and see the people whose houses he had been to on the Sunday night.

The case for defense here rested.

The District Attorney said he would call two witnesses in the morning, one a lady and the other the gentleman who keeps the weather table at the City Hospital, and show that the night in question was a rainy night.

The Court then adjourned to this forenoon.

The Jury gave a result for plaintiff of six cents.

FRIDAY, Nov. 26—P. M.

There have been considerable animation and buoyancy displayed on the Stock Exchange this afternoon. In the morning, prices were only firm. The sales are very large, and the market closed not only at advanced prices, but with an upward tendency. In Government Stocks $17,000 were sold. The Six ⅌ Cents of 1867 advanced ¼. Erie Stock advanced ¼, with sales of 5,100 shares. Hudson River rose 1 ⅌ cent.; Dauphin Coal, 1; Canton, 2½ ⅌ cent., under a strong press of speculation; Pennsylvania Coal, 1½; Nicaragua, 1; and Cary Land, ¼. Nicaragua was steady, and Cumberland Coal declined ¼. The Stock of the Crystal Palace was offered at the Board at 150, but 115 only was bid, without sales. 800 shares Long Island was sold at 46, buyer 4 months, but no sales for cash. The Erie Bonds were active: $55,000 were sold. The Convertibles of 1871 advanced ¼. Hudson First Mortgage Bonds were in request, and realized an advance of ¼. Indiana State Stock, 5 ⅌ cent., advanced to 100. Jersey Zinc was steady, and maintains its advanced position creditably. Pennsylvania Fives were in demand. Bank Stocks sell sparingly. Few offering.

In Freights we hear of no engagements. Ship-owners have raised their rates as they have little room to offer, ships being extremely scarce. 12 is asked for Wheat to Liverpool, and 3 for Flour. To Glasgow 3/3 is asked.

The extreme untowardness of the weather has prevented all out-door business, and restricted business generally.

The market for Sterling Exchange has advanced to-day: 110¼ has been refused for large sums and 110¼ is asked and obtained. France are steady at 5.13¾.

The demand for Money is light in comparison to the supply. Rates favor borrowers exceedingly, yet with no extreme readiness to accept the proffered loans. The abundance of money is not limited to the large banking houses, but traders and general dealers have themselves large surpluses which they are endeavoring to place out.

The Black Warrior sailed to-day for Mobile, having about $300,000 in specie.

Markets... CAREFULLY REPORTED FOR THE TRIBUNE.
FRIDAY, Nov. 26.

ASHES—The market is firm for Pearls at $5 75; Pots are reported at $4 68@$4 75, with sales of 50 bbls.

COTTON—The market is very unsettled; the sales do not exceed 300 bales; quotations are entirely nominal.

FLOUR AND MEAL—Our market for Western and State Flour is without marked change, the inclemency of the weather restricts the demand for the trade and the East. There is considerable doing on speculation in State at $5 12½ for fresh ground in store, and $5 for old; the medium grades are hardly so firm; to effect sales some abatement is submitted to. The advance in freights restricts the inquiry for export. The receipts are fair, reaching 20,000 bbls. for the last two days. Our stock is now about 400,000 bbls. which is limited for the season. Canadian Flour is firm and not plenty; sales of 600 bbls. at $5 12½. The sales of Domestic are 7,600 bbls., about half on speculation at $4 50@$4 75 for sour and No. 2 Superfine, $5 for old State, $5 12½ for State, mostly in store and on speculation, $5 25@$5 37½ for Mixed to Fancy Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, $5 44@$5 56½ for Fancy Ohio and Genesee, $5 62½@$6 for extra Ohio and $5 62½@$6 12½ for extra Genesee. Southern is quiet for the trade, but there is some speculative inquiry; the common brands are less salable and there is less doing for the Picnic. Sales of 3,100 bbls at $5 37½@$5 56 for mixed to good straight brands, and include 1,200 bbls. to arrive of good brands at $5 37½ and $5 75@$5 75 for Fancy. Rye Flour is firm; sales of 100 bbls. at $4 75 for one. Corn Meal is easier; sales of 300 bbls. Jersey, to arrive at $3 75.

GRAIN—The severe rain-storm and the advance in freights have exerted a depressing influence on our Wheat market, and there is not much doing in domestic. Waste Western is firm at $1 20@$1 21. The receipts are fair and the stock of domestic reaches some 375,000 bushels. The sales are 25,500 bush. Canadian at $1 13 for prime White and $1 06 for ordinary (nominally.) Rye is quiet and prices are nominal at 58c. @ $1. Barley is firm but inactive at 74@75c., with little prime here. Barley Malt is selling at 83@85c. Black-Eyed Peas are quiet at $2 62½ ⅌ bag. White Beans are selling at $1 62½@$1 87½ ⅌ bush. Oats are lower and very plenty. Sales of State and Mo at 33@34c. Jersey, 36@38c. Corn is dull and lower and more plenty. Sales of 6,000 bush. at 75@76c. for new, 83c. for New-Orleans, 84@85 for round yellow, and 83@84c. for Western mixed.

WHISKY—there is less doing, but the market is firm. Sales of 300 bbls. Ohio at 28c., and 27c. for Prime. Drudge is inactive at 26½c. time and interest.

PROVISIONS—Our Pork market is again easier, and the demand less active. The trade buy only for their immediate wants. The stock of old is reduced to about 3,000 bbls. Mess and Prime, and is mainly held by one house. New is more abundant and prices easier. Sales of 300 bbls. Country Mess at $18 50 for Albany packed, and $19 for heavy River; $19 25 for City Mess; $16 25 for new Prime, and $15 37½ for old Prime, and $19 for old Mess—closing dull. Beef is firm and in good demand—especially the better qualities. Sales of 600 bbls. at $5 75@$6 37½ for Country Mess, $11 50@$12 for Vermont Mess; $13@$13 25 for prime Red Cincinnati, and $14 25@$14 50 for Extra do.; $4 75@$5 37½ for Country Prime, and $6 for Vermont do. Prime Mess is quiet at $16@$16. Beef Hams are firm, but quiet. Sales of 130 bbls. Chicago at $15, as there are. Dressed Hogs are in demand at 7¼@7c. Lard is firm; the supply is limited. Sales at 200 b
