A large supply of useful articles will also be offered for sale at fair and reasonable prices. All interested in a benevolent and praiseworthy object, are earnestly solicited for patronage.

☞ The Widening of Church-st. and the Relief of Broadway.—Among the plans proposed for the relief of Broadway, is the widening of Church-st., and its continuation below Fulton (its present terminus) to Trinity-place, and so, by the bend of a few feet, into Greenwich-st., which reaches the Battery. Then, in the other direction, a memorial has been drawn, praying the corporation to extend and widen the way through Wooster-st. and up to University-place. This would make a line parallel with Broadway, and tend to the relief of that thoroughfare, if it were not for one great mistake: it is absurd to run off further from Broadway, after reaching Canal-st. We must come nearer to it; and this can be done by running up Greene-st. If Church-st. be widened 25 feet on the east or Broadway side, and Greene-st. the same on its west side, we shall then have a splendid avenue to run northwardly, within six blocks of Union Park. The condition of the property in Church-st. clearly indicates this as the most natural improvement. Let any one examine the east side of Church-st. along its whole length. From Fulton to Vesey-st. is St. Paul's Church-yard, in which there are no graves within 25 feet of the street; from Vesey to Barclay is one fine store and a church; from Barclay to Murray are two brick houses, which are already marked to be pulled down; from Murray to Warren is the Universalist Church, abandoned and sold, and one or two small houses; from Warren to Chambers there are two houses only, and from Chambers to Read one: from Read to Duane none; from Duane to Anthony is the Hospital yard, which will be none the worse for its purposes with a reduction of 25 feet; after this, you may pass clean up to Canal-st., a distance of five blocks, and there is not a building on the east side of Church-st. that is worth the old materials for carrying away—so that the east side of that street might very advantageously, both for private and public interest, be made 25 feet wider. The west side has many more individual owners and more conflicting interests to contend with. But the great point in this improvement is to keep near Broadway. The attempt to get Church-st. widened on its west side is ridiculous, and it is still more so to run off 150 or 200 feet into Wooster-st., when by widening on the eastern side you make one contiguous and fine avenue through Greene-st.

The memorial to widen the west side has been circulated insidiously, and the owners of the property to be cut away have hardly become informed of it. They are now awakening up to the importance of resisting a measure which will serve only some cunning speculators, without benefiting the public.

We want a thoroughfare. Let us have it near to Broadway, and not allow it to be crooked off into Wooster-st., where it will not be used if made. The natural improvement is that which is here suggested, as any one will be convinced who will take the trouble to walk over the ground. And this is a most fortunate time to undertake it, for there are not more than three or four substantial buildings from Fulton to Canal-st., on the east side of Church-st.

AN OLD NEW-YORKER.

☞ Post-Office, New-York—Notice.—The mails for California, &c., via Aspinwall direct, per ILLINOIS, will close at this office on Monday, Dec. 20, at 1 P. M.

WM. V. BRADY, P. M.

☞ To Travelers.—Gentlemen in the habit of traveling much ought never to set out without a supply of articles for the dressing-case, as invented and sold by WILLIAM BOGLE, No. 277 Washington-st. No better preparation for the hair is extant than his Hyperion Fluid, while his Amole, for shaving, is unsurpassable for the ease it imparts to the process. It can be used with water at every degree of temperature with equal ease, and leaves the skin in a condition suited to withstand any change of heat or cold without risk of chapping.

May be had of A. B. & D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 273, and Rice & Smith, No. 727 Broadway; Cary & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st., and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

☞ For the Nursery, the Toilet or for Shaving, JONES'S ITALIAN CHEMICAL SOAP (at the reduced price of two shillings) is a fine thing; it cures chapped or tender flesh, in adults or infants, eruptions, salt rheum, &c. Sold at the depôt of JONES'S Coral Hair Restorative (reduced to 2/ too), at No. 403 Broadway, N. Y., and No. 375 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

☞ Emigrant Intelligence Office and Labor Exchange, Nos. 25 and 27 Canal-st., New-York.—This office is established by the Commissioners of Emigration, where can always be found large numbers of Laborers and Servants at very low rates of wages, and persons can have their orders filled by writing to the Superintendent and sending the amount necessary to pay the passage of the parties required. SUPERB GIFT BOOKS.—JOHN P. JEWETT & Co., Boston, have published the following superbly illustrated Gift Books:

HEAVEN AND ITS SCRIPTURAL EMBLEMS.
BY REV. RUFUS W. CLARK.

This work is intended by the reverend and talented author to fill a place too much neglected in the Gift Book literature of our country, viz: the Religious Department. He has presented a Picture of Heaven, drawn with graphic power and eloquence from Scripture emblems. Billings has illustrated it with Five Original Designs, engraved on steel, which we hesitate not to say have never been excelled, even by the exquisite pencil of Billings himself. In paper, printing and binding, we intend it shall be as near faultless as possible.—In one vol. 8vo. Price, in cloth $2 50, cloth gilt $3 50, Turkey $5. Ready Dec. 1.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—BY MRS. H. B. STOWE.

Re-stereotyped in one octavo volume, with Steel Portraits of Mrs. Stowe and Little Eva, and illustrated with One Hundred Original Designs, by Billings; engraved in the highest style of Wood Engraving, by ten of the most distinguished artists in America. It is our intention to make of this one of the most splendid volumes, as to its engravings, its paper, printing and binding, ever issued from the American press. It will be ready Dec. 1. Price, in cloth $2 50, cloth gilt $3 50, Turkey $5.
