☞ The Allen Agricultural Guards.—The workmen in the employ of A. B. ALLEN & Co., at their Agricultural Implement Manufactory, at the Empire Works, foot of 25th-st., East River, having united in a military company with the above name, went on their first annual target excursion on Monday last. Capt. THOMPSON VANDERGRIFF was in command, assisted by Lieuts. BAKER, KENT, JOHNSON and SHAFF.

After calling upon the Messrs. ALLEN at their warehouse in Water-st., they proceeded to Harlem, where they had a trial of skill in shooting at a target. After the prizes were awarded they partook of an excellent dinner, and returned to the city in the afternoon, highly pleased with their day's sport. The target was well bored, and showed that there were many "first-rate" shots in the company. The prizes were awarded as follows:

1. A gold chain, Thomas Bell; 2. silver watch, J. Sauce; 3. silver cake basket, George James; 4. silver castor, Mr. Moran; 5. silver cup, J. Hallen; 6. gold locket, Lieut. J. C. Kent; 7. gold pen and pencil, R. Sauce; 8. silver teaspoons; A. Wolfe; 9. silver tea spoons, J. Cooper; 10. Silver butter knives, Lieut Johnson; 11. silver table spoons, J. Stockwell; 12. gold pencil, Lieut. P. Shaff; 13. wreath, Benj. Cromwell.

Owing to the strictly temperance principles of the Guards, no accidents occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion. We have seldom seen a finer body of men in uniform, and we trust they may enjoy many a pleasant excursion hereafter. The Guards were accompanied by Dodworth's extra choice Band, which discoursed most exquisite music.

At a meeting of the company, held at the Empire Works, on the evening of the 26th ult., it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the company be, and they are hereby tendered to Messrs A. B. ALLEN & Co. for their generous donation, and for the interest they have manifested in our late excursion; to Mr. VANDERBILT, for the silver cup presented by him; to Messrs. COXE, DOUGLASS, WELLS, CLARK and McADAM, for the very acceptable and appropriate presents contributed by them; to Mr. HARPER, for a set of silver spoons; and to Miss SAYRE, for a beautiful wreath. The company also express their thanks to the gentlemen who acted as judges, for the satisfactory manner in which they discharged their duties; and to Mr. LESLIE, of the River Hotel, for his polite attention toward our guests and the company during our visit.

☞ Industrial Home Association No. 3.—The thirtieth regular meeting of this Association will be held on FRIDAY EVENING, Jan. 7, at Union Buildings, No. 153 Bowery. This Association is organized on the same plan as Mount Vernon No. 1, and Union Port No. 2. The land is located in an elevated position between William's Bridge and Mount Vernon, has a front of 1½ miles on the Harlem and New-Haven Railroads, and commands a fine view of Long Island Sound, the Palisades and the surrounding country. It will be laid out in acre, half, and quarter-acre lots. The dues will be $2 per week for the first six months, and $1 per week thereafter. Copies of the Constitution and By Laws can be had of John Commerford, No. 153 Broadway; D. Owen, No. 414 Broadway; W. B. Smith, No. 11 Nassau-st; C. A. Cooper, No. 110 Barrow-st; J. F. Wells, No. 30 Avenue B; J. A. Handsuch, No. 186 Spring-st., or at the Hall on the evening of the meeting.

J. COMMERFORD, President.
J. A. HANDSUCH, Secretary.

The greatest Military Romance since "Charles O'Malley." Third Edition now ready.

ADVENTURES OF AN AID-DE-CAMP. By James Grant, Esq., author of "The Scottish Cavalier," "The Romance of War," &c. With original illustrations. Price, 50 cents.

Hitherto we had conjoined "Charles O'Malley" and "Tom Burke" to be inapproachable, but here we have a most firm, bold rival, if not a victorious competitor for public favor. [Morning Chronicle.

A story written in a spirited, dashing style, that reminds the reader of "Charles O'Malley." Every chapter is full of stirring incidents, and the dialogue is animated and witty. [Com. Advertiser.

Here is a book which, as a military romance, has never been surpassed, and but seldom equaled. We do not at this moment recollect any modern work of personal adventure that can be compared with it. [Examiner.

"We shall be disappointed if it proves not the most readable book of the day, "Uncle Tom" of course excepted. [London Spectator.

LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF DICK CLINTON, THE MASKED HIGHWAYMAN.

This is a remarkable work, which fixes and enchains the attention of the reader, from the first page to the last. All the wild, daring and dashing scenes of robber life, from the most perilous and astonishing adventures on the highway, to the most exciting and curious incidents in the bowers of love, are portrayed by the author with a vividness of description that has never been excelled, either in the pages of Ainsworth or Reynolds. There is fun also in Dick Clinton, to relieve agreeably the startling excitement with which it abounds. Copies mailed on receipt of 25 cents. Address
