A peculiarity of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood, it imparts new vigor to every function of the body.

Mr. Max Kohn, the energetic junior member of the extensive dry goods firm of L. Wessel & Co., Nebraska City, was a pleasant caller at the holy of holies yesterday.

The Baptist Sunday school had a very enjoyable basket picnic at Cushman park yesterday. A trainload of people left the depot at 10 o'clock and returned tired but happy in the evening.

The COURIER acknowledges the receipt from the Holmann Music Co. of this city of the "Frances Cleveland Grand March" composed by Mr. F. W. F. ohmann, one of our most talented musicians. It is dedicated to the ladies of the Francis Cleveland Marching Clubs, and will undoubtedly prove a most popular one.

The people of Chicago are being treated to another dynamite surprise. The gaily parties have been apprehended, and everybody is now happy. Lincoln people are always surprised when they enter Hallet's jewelry store, and see the elegant assortment of goods, and you may well believe that they are happy after making any purchases. His stock is the most complete, his goods all new, and his prices right.

Of Interest to All.
