E. SHINE, Secretary. WM. COOK, President.

At the St. Charles Theater, THIS EVENING, will be presented for the first time in this city, a new Local Drama, in four acts, moral in its tendencies in every particular. Mr. ROBINSON, who has proved himself to be the best American Comedian, (having been nightly hailed with the most enthusiastic demonstrations of delight,) will appear in the entire new Yankee character of PERSEVERANCE PERKINS in the piece. Miss MITCHELL, Miss ALBURTINE, and the entire company will also render their valuable aid. And as the arrangements of this little Bijou of a Theater are of so pure a character, families cannot wile away a few hours with more pleasure than in visiting the St. Charles.

St. Patrick's Day—REPUBLICAN FRIENDS OF IRELAND.—The Committee meets THIS EVENING, March 9, at 7½ o'clock, at Tammany Hall. All who desire to unite with this body in the forthcoming celebration, are respectfully invited to attend. G. H. KERN, Sec'ry.

This day published,
THE BOOK of HUMAN NATURE.—Its Origin, Laws, Destiny! Illustrating the Philosophy (New Theory) of Instinct, Nutrition, Life and their Correlative and Abnormal Phenomena—Physical, Mental, Spiritual. By LeRoy Sunderland, author of the "Book of Psychology," "Book of Health," &c., &c. 12mo., cloth, 432 pages.
This is, indeed, one of the most important, philosophical, useful and highly interesting works ever published. It contains the results of the author's philosophical observations, continued for more than thirty years, and is emphatically a new and most attractive book. We doubt whether any man in this "wide, wide world" has ever penetrated more deeply into the secrets of Human Nature than Mr. Sunderland; and hence we conclude that no other person of the present age can be better prepared to do ample justice to this subject.
It contains the author's views as to the Origin of the Human Race, Instinct, Vital Forces, the problem of Evil, Manhood, the Reorganization of Society, and his new theory of the Nutritive Fluid, which seems just now beginning to attract the attention of the Medical Faculty, as one of them has applied to Congress for a "Patent" for the treatment of disease on this very principle, announced by the author in 1847, as this work will abundantly show. And withal it contains a full and most interesting account of the author's experience of the "Spiritual Manifestations," which are now attracting so much attention throughout the world.
The views which Mr. Sunderland has given of the so-called "Spirit Rappings" is intensely interesting, and far more satisfactory than anything we have yet seen. Indeed, the information he has imparted on this exciting subject, alone, is worth the price of the book; for, while he admits the great truth to which these things so evidently lead, and the important USES to which they should be applied, he at the same time points out the dangers that must necessarily follow the appeals which these perplexing mysteries are so constantly making to the organs of marvellousness, appeals which have already resulted in so much rank Fanaticism and Sectarian Mania, including delusions more fatal than insanity, and exceeding even the fabled mischief of sorcery and witchcraft, all of which are argued with perspicuity and fitness in the pages of this work. Never were cautions more appropriately given than some that will be found in the Book of Human Nature, in respect to Spiritualism; and we are of opinion that it is decidedly the Book for the age in which we live, and it must have a most extensive circulation, if one in a thousand can form anything like a just conception of its real merits.

NO. 3, (March) NOW READY—The ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF ART.—This is decidedly the best, cheapest, and most magnificent Magazine ever published.
The first three numbers just out have at once placed it at the head of the Magazines or any publication of the day, upon which no expense will be spared to render it in every respect worthy of its name—a Magazine of Art.
The Engravings preparing for future numbers are in the hands of the first artists of America, England, France, and Germany; and a Series of Tales, of the most interesting description, entitled, "The School of Life," written and illustrated by Anna Mary, daughter of William and Mary Howitt, will shortly appear; as well as an historical novel, entitled, "The Dead Bridal," illustrative of the most interesting period in the history of the Venetian Republic, by "Jonathan Freke Slingsby," of the Dublin University Magazine, and contributions from William and Mary Howitt, Percy B St. John, and other writers of distinction in America and Europe. The greatest care will be manifested in every department of production. The Paper will be of the first manufacture, and the Ink supplied from the celebrated Printing Ink Establishment of Messrs. Lawson & Co., of Paris. Single Copy, 25 cents; Volume, Half-yearly, $1 50.
ALEX. MONTGOMERY, No. 17 Spruce-st. N. Y. and all Booksellers.

SENATOR SUMNER'S WHITE SLAVERY IN THE BARBARY STATES. New and Superb Edition, fully illustrated with 40 elegant designs by Billings, engraved by Baker, Smith & Andrews.
This splendid work, which is considered one of the best productions of the eloquent and talented author, is now offered to the public in this superb and attractive style, and at the low price of 50 cents. It is a complete history of White Slavery, its rise, its progress, its termination, with an account of the many distinguished men who were its victims, among whom were Cervantes, the author of Don Quixote, St. Vincent de Paul, Arago, the Astronomer, and numerous others, whose names and deeds are celebrated in history. Let all apologists for the slavery of the Blacks read this admirable work, and then say whether or not the color of the skin will sanction human chattelhood, and if so which color shall be enslaved. Algerine White Slavery was brought to an end by British cannon. Mr. Sumner, in describing the final scene, says:
"Before night the fleet fired, besides shells and rockets, one hundred and eighteen tuns of powder, and fifty thousand shot, weighing more than five hundred tuns. The citadel and massive batteries of Algiers were shattered, and crumbled to ruins. The storehouses, ships, and gun boats, were in flames, while the blazing lightnings of battle were answered, in a storm of signal fury, by the lightnings of heaven. The power of the Great Slave Dealer was humbled."
Published by JOHN P. JEWETT & Co., Boston; JEWETT, PROCTOR & WORTHINGTON, Cleveland, Ohio. For sale by all the Booksellers.

SPIRITUAL RAPPINGS.—Dr. E. C. ROGERS, has completed, and now offers to the reading public, his great work on THE PHILOSOPHY OF MYSTERIOUS AGENTS, HUMAN AND MUNDANE. Complete in one volume. Price, $1.
This is without doubt, the first and only work which has ever appeared, in which this whole matter is thoroughly and philosophically explained, and so clearly as to amount to a demonstration.
The following from the editor of Zion's Herald, is a fair sample of the unqualified notices from intelligent editors who have read the work:
"Philosophy of Mysterious Agents, No. 3. This number concludes Mr. Rogers's book, which, now that it is finished, forms the only satisfactory and philosophical discussion of the spirit rapping theory as yet published. To us, to reasonings appear conclusive and unanswerable. It solves the question forever, so far as the relation of disembodied spirits to the production of those mysterious phenomena called spiritual manifestations is concerned. He who reads it will certainly see that human and mundane influences are all sufficient for the production of every species of phenomena yet observed. We earnestly recommend it as a valuable, timely, philosophical, and successful answer to the doctrines of the spirit rappers."
Published by JOHN P. JEWETT & Co., Boston; JEWETT, PROCTOR & WORTHINGTON, Cleveland, Ohio; and for sale by booksellers generally.

THE SPIRITUAL BEACON—Devoted to the Investigation of Spiritual Phenomena, the Extension of Spiritual Intercourse, the Dissemination of the Truths of Nature and Revelation, and their application to the Gradual Elevation of Man and the Ultimate Perfection of Society. Published Weekly, at $2 per annum, by CHARLES E. KING, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A NEW PAPER.—The public are hereby informed, that the Harmonial Association, of this city, propose to publish weekly, a new paper, entitled the Journal of Progress, to be issued in a few weeks. Further particulars will be given soon.
