 Parents should be careful that their children do not contract colds during the fall or early winter months. Such colds weaken the lungs and air passages, making the child much more likely to contract other colds during the winter. It is this succession of colds that causes catarrh or bronchitis or paves the way for consumption. Should a cold be contracted lose no time, but cure it as quickly as possible. A fifty-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold in a few days and leave the respiratory organs strong and healthy. For sale by A. L. Shadler, druggist.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Some of the Pleasant Hour Junior boys were nettled by the report that they might not reorganize, and, thinking it emanated from the Seniors (a mistaken idea, by the way), they have made an early start for this season. A meeting of the old members was held Saturday evening at W. H. B. Stout's office for the election of officers. At a meeting Tuesday evening new members were voted in, and another meeting will be held this evening to enable members to become acquainted with each other. Following are the new officers and membership: President, Frank S. Burr; vice president, Will Hammond; secretary, C. Y. Smith; treasurer, M. I. Winger; master of ceremonies, R. D. Muir; executive committee, John K. Stout, Bert Wheeler and R. D. Muir; members, Frank L. Hathaway, C. H. Clark, Will E. Clark, C. L. Burr, C. B. Andrus, Lew Marshall, Fred Houts, K. K. Binford, A. C. Carper, George H. Holden, F. H. Mockett, Chas. Hall, H. R. Nissley, W. C. Phillips, J. T. Dorgan, John McBride and Fred Howe. The club is fully as strong as in past years and enters upon its season with brighter prospects than ever before. The plans call for five dancing parties. The first will be given at Temple hall next Friday evening and will be complimentary to Miss Lona Giles, niece of Mrs. L. C. Burr, who is about to leave for her home in the new state of Washington. Miss Giles had intended leaving sooner, but was persuaded to postpone her departure for a week in order to give the young gentlemen time to arrange a farewell party as a tribute to their esteem. The executive committee is charged with the duty of announcing the other parties.

Miss Vallie V. Sholes was married Thursday afternoon to Mr. Henry S. Green of Morrison, Ill. Miss Ivy Green acted as maid to the bride and Mr. Fred Sholes supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. A. Williams at the bride's home, 1504 R street, in the presence of a small company. Mr and Mrs. Green took the afternoon train for a trip east and will then return to Morrison, where the groom is engaged in the banking business. This wedding was a very happy affair and was witnessed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. M. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spears, Mr. and Mrs. John Powell, Dr. and Mrs. Miss Giles, Mr. Stobbs, Miss Stobbs, Dr. and Mrs. Woods, Miss Baldwin, Dr. and Mrs. Lester, Miss Downing of Kearney, Mr. F. S. Spafford, Mrs. J. S. Green, Miss Green and George H. Kentfield of Morrison, Ill.; Miss Sholes, Rung City, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bennett, Mr. J. H. Battum, Mrs. Rev. O. A. Williams.

A new social club of young married people has been organized for this season. Its membership is made up of the following gentlemen and their wives: R. O'Neill, T. J. Hickey, Dr. Victor, A. B. Cherrier, N. Hall, W. M. Woodward, Chas. M. Keefe, Ed. M. Allen, John D. Knight, George Thiers, T. W. Tait, Bert Betts, Clem Steiner, Cal Thompson, W. N. Rehlander, W. G. Lewis, C. M. Hands, E. R. Sizer, H. M. Rice, W. R. Cambridge, Dick Randall. The new organization will be known as the Calumet club. Its membership is limited to thirty. The program is to give a party every month, with perhaps two extras during the holidays. The first assembly will be held on Thursday evening, the 24th, at Temple hall. The Calumet promises to be a very enjoyable club.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Selgohn gave a reception Friday evening at their residence, 1730 M street, in commemoration of the gentleman's fiftieth birthday. A large company of Lincoln friends were received and very handsomely entertained. The hosts were most agreeably surprised by the attendance of a number of out-of-town friends. The following came from Kansas City: Mr. and Mrs. M. Glass, Mrs. O. Sachs and daughter and Mrs. E. H. Wolfson. The guests not only tendered the customary congratulations and well wishes, but left a number of rich and costly gifts. It was a very happy affair in all respects.

The suggestion of the COURIER that Lincoln should have a better dancing room than Temple hall seems to have borne fruit, and Thos. Ewing is fitting up the second floor of his new store on O street for such use. Near the center of the floor is a sky-light. It is proposed to cover it with a music stand and let the dancers circle around the orchestra. The room has a number of posts also, so that it cannot be made an ideal dancing hall by any means. It may be an improvement over present accommodations, however, and the Pleasant Hour Juniors may test it for their second party.

Miss Gertrude Ziener has issued cards for a company next week, and the invitation is so unique an affair as to deserve reproduction. It is printed in a new style script on a square card in the following form:

Name	.....
Miss	..... Phantom Party
Hostess	..... Gertrude Ziener
Costume	..... Sheet and Pillow Cases
Date	..... Wednesday, Oct. 16th
Time	..... Seven forty-five, p. m.
Place	..... Fourteen ten N street
Query	..... "Are you wid' us?"

The Hebrew congregation has elected the following officers: Isaac Oppenheimer, president; M. Ackerman, vice president; Will Meyer, secretary; L. Barr, treasurer; L. Meyer, M. Newmark and A. Katzstein trustees; I. Friend, superintendent of Sunday school. At the meeting Sunday ten persons subscribed $100 each, which ensures the erection of a new synagogue. Rev. Benson was chosen rabbi for the coming year.

Mrs. N. C. Abbott gave a six-o'clock dinner Tuesday evening for her friend, Miss Stratton of Rochester. Covers were laid for eleven, including Miss Westerman of Decatur, Ill., Messrs. Fritz, Max and Julius Westermann, Dr. E. L. Roberts, the Misses Manley and Mrs. A. W. Irvine. Miss Stratton left for Rochester, N. Y., the following day.

A very happy surprise was in waiting for J. I. Carter Monday evening at his elegant residence, corner Thirtieth and N streets. Some fifteen couples were in waiting on his return home and presented him with a fine upholstered chair, it being his thirty-sixth birthday, which will be long remembered by him and the party assembled.

There was some preliminary talk among some of the Juniors of including two or three Germans among this season's parties, but the idea has been abandoned. There has also been some talk of a distinct organization to give a series of five or six monthly cotillions, but the scheme has not gone beyond the stage of discussion.

Mrs. H. W. Hardy has been reelected president of the board for the home of the friendless. Mrs. A. B. Slaughter remains as superintendent, Dr. Alice Huff as physician, and Mrs. Moore as matron. Miss Ellen Clements of Illinois has been engaged as assistant superintendent on trial.

Miss Laura Haggard entertained the Delta Gamma society of the University Thursday evening at her home, 1820 G street, in honor of her visiting friend, Miss Staatsman of Iowa City. Domino whist was the predominating feature of the occasion.

The senior Pleasant Hours will have a meeting at eight o'clock this evening at Hardy & Pitcher's store. Officers will be elected and plans for the coming season discussed. Among the matters will be the matter of a new hall. A full attendance is desired.

A concert for the benefit of the German Catholic church will be given at Bohanan's hall next Thursday evening under the direction of Mrs. Mary Fritsche, formerly a prominent actress in Austria.

Thomas Ewing, it seems, proposes, to make a dancing hall of the second floor of his new store if five clubs will take it for this season's dances. He is counting on the Seniors and the Juniors.

One of the ladies at the tea-gown parties of last week won a box of confectionery on a wager that she would have the handsomest gown. Don't know who decided the question.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Broad entertained a company of young people Thursday evening at their home, 1629 O street, in honor of their second wedding anniversary.

Cards have been issued announcing the wedding of Mr. Wilfrid Houghton of Red Cloud and Miss Clara Elizabeth Becker, which occurred Tuesday evening.

The east Lincoln C. L. S. C. was entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Greenlee. The next meeting will be with Miss Thomas.

Miss Edith Russell has issued invitations for an art reception at her studio, corner P and Twelfth streets, from ten this morning to ten this evening.

A well known doctor is to be married as soon as a handsome new cottage in East Lincoln is completed and furnished.

Miss Emma Patmore of East Lincoln was married Wednesday evening to Mr. Thomas E. McDonald of Danbury, Neb.

At a recent informal gathering several Junior girls discussed the idea of a card club, and it may materialize later.

Over a hundred couples enjoyed the ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at Temple hall Wednesday evening.

The York club's members are discussing plans for reorganization and talk some of giving a dance next week.

The fifth annual ball of the police department will be given at Temple hall next Tuesday evening.

Miss Clarkie Price gave a small card party Tuesday evening.
