They have added to their former stock a large assortment of real and imitation Jewelry, of the newest and latest patterns, together with Clocks, Bronzes, and every variety of Fancy Goods, selected in Europe by one of the firm.

☞ Grand Temple of Honor of the State of New-York.—The regular Annual Session of the Grand Temple will commence on WEDNESDAY, May 25, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Hall No. 29 Canal-st., New-York. By order, REUBEN C BULL, G. W. R.

☞ Hercules Lodge, No. 47, I. O. O. F.—The members of this Lodge are requested to meet at the Hoboken Ferry, on the New-Jersey side, on THURSDAY (to-morrow) MORNING at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, JAS. N. BROWN, at North Hoboken. By order,
A. J. QUINBY, Sec'y.

☞ The Fourteenth Anniversary of the Colored Home will be held at the Home, on 65th-st., between 1st-av. and Avenue A, on THURSDAY, May 26. The exercises will commence at 4 o'clock P.M. Distinguished clergymen are expected to be present and to address the meeting.
Stages are engaged to stand on the corner of Broome-st. and Bowery at 3 o'clock P.M., to convey visitors to the door of the Home.
Should the weather prove unfavorable, the exercises will be deferred until the first pleasant day.

☞ The Howard Temperance Benevolent Society will commence its second series of meetings on WEDNESDAY EVENING in the Bleecker Building, cor. Bleecker and Morton-sts., and continue one every Wednesday. Addresses by Messrs. ST. MUNN, and others, on June 1, by Rev. W. S. BALCH and Hon. E. L. SNOW.
JAS. DOBBIN, Sec'y. JERH. THORNAL, Prest.

☞ The Whole World's Temperance Convention.—The Committee on Local Arrangements will meet on SATURDAY EVENING, 28th inst., at 8 o'clock. All Temperance Associations, without regard to age, sex, color or condition, are requested to appoint delegates as soon as possible and forward their credentials to the Committee, that timely preparations may be made for their entertainment in this city. R. T. TRALL, Chairman.

☞ Mr. Editor: Among the numerous attractions at and in the immediate vicinity of the Crystal Palace, the elegant and commodious Dagguerrian Saloons of Messrs. MILLER & Co. must certainly occupy an enviable prominence. They are situated on the 6th-av., directly opposite the Palace. An invitation being extended, we visited the establishment, and were irresistably delighted with the superior and unsurpassed facilities for presenting to visitors perfect and satisfactory representations of themselves or their friends. The whole interior—with floods of light directly reflected from the arched canopy of heaven, with all the arrangements and improvements of modern art; and all under the immediate artistic talent and practical operation of Prof. LAW, an eminent Daguerreotypist, one such as must of necessity call forth the admiration and patronage of a discriminating public. The idea, too, of having a perfect specimen of one's self taken at headquarters, where the representatives of the world assemble to exhibit their relative genius and industry, will have an influence in securing extensive patronage. The saloons are now open for visitors daily. The gentlemen connected with this favorite establishment are remarkable for their general correct bearing and courtesy. A pleasant trip to the Palace, a visit to the saloons, a handsome picture, and you will leave without a single regret. TRAVELERS.

☞ To the Editor of The Tribune—Sir: We think, in justice to our employer, Mr. B. SHAW, Ladies' Shoemaker, No. 71 Canal-st., we ought to give public notice of the fact that he has conformed to our wishes in every respect; that he will employ none but Society men. In taking this step he will continue to serve the public with the best and most fashionable production of Ladies' work in New-York.
SAML. BARNES, Secretary. S. AMPLEFORD, President.

☞ The Best Salamanders in the World.—The only genuine SALAMANDER SAFES, combining Wilder's and Reich's Patents, being both fire proof and free from dampness, are now manufactured by STRAHAN & MARVIN, No 140 Water-st., New-York, sole proprietor of Reich's Patent, and the sole owners and manufacturers of JONES's WORLD'S FAIR LOCK—which withstood the ingenuity of the people at the World's Fair, London, for a period of six weeks. It is a dial lock, no key being required, and has a combination of 24,000,000 of changes.

☞ "It is better to remove these animals by means of the Poisons Glass Flies, than to expel them after they get into the stomach."—Dr. Turner. Can you read the above and yet hesitate? Call at No. 216 Broadway and be satisfied.

☞ Splendid Trio.—BOGLE'S HYPERION FLUID is the most approved preparation for strengthening and beautifying the Hair; his Amole is indispensable where ease in shaving is demanded; and his Helvetian for the complexion is unrivalled. Sold by the inventor, WILLIAM BOGLE, No. 277 Washington-st., Boston. Sold in New-York by R. H. D. Sands, No. 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., 273, and Rice & Smith, No. 729 Broadway; Min. H. Clary & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st., and by Druggists and Perfumers throughout the world.

☞ A Removal.—The depôt of (at the reduced price of 2/) JONES'S CHEMICAL SOAP, CORAL HAIR RESTORATIVE, is now at No. 61—mind, No. 61—Walker-st. These fine articles are sold thus that rich and poor may use them. At the same place can be had Lafont's Hair Dye, (the best made,) price 4/; his Soap Root for the teeth, Lily White for ladies, Liquid Rouge, &c.

☞ Villa Sites—Fort Hamilton.—These beautiful grounds are located in immediate vicinity of the United States lands and the village at Fort Hamilton, and within five minutes' walk of the dinking. For beauty of situation they are pronounced by all who see them as unsurpassed by anything of the kind around New-York; and the facilities of access afforded by an established Ferry, (the steamer Eagle leaves foot of Murray-st., at 7, 9, 1 and 5 o'clock,) together with the stages from Brooklyn, present unequaled inducements to those wishing to secure a delightful country home, and yet so near and accessible as in no way to interfere with their business arrangements in the city. The streets are all being beautifully graded, and over One Hundred lots have already been sold. Those wishing to secure choice locations would do well to visit the lands soon. For maps, &c., apply to NEWELL & BARKER and J. C. SAUNDERS, No. 3 Nassau-st., or N. McGRAW, No. 455 Broadway.

LAMARTINE'S RESTORATION, Vol. IV.—(Completion of the work.)
HARPER & BROTHERS, No. 329 Pearl-st., Franklin-square, publish THIS DAY—
I.
LAMARTINE'S RESTORATION. History of the Restoration of Monarchy in France. Being a sequel to the "History of the Girondists." By Alphonse De Lamartine. Portrait. 4 vols. 12mo., Muslin, 75 cents per Volume.
This, the closing volumn of Lamartine's History of the Restoration, extends from the death of Napoleon to the abdication of Charles X. The period embraces a series of the most interesting events in the modern history of France, and furnishes occasion to numerous admirable portraitures in Lamatine's most brilliant style. The sketch of the character and reign of Louis XVIII. is masterly, combining the author's usual felicity of delineation with more than his usual discrimination and accuracy of thought. The student of politics will find ample room for reflection in the history of the negotiations and intrigues which attended the restoration of the Bourbon dynasty, while the general reader will be richly rewarded by the charming narratives which profusely abound in this fascinating volume.
II.
MARCO PAUL IN BOSTON. Being the 5th volume of MARCO PAUL'S VOYAGES and TRAVELS. By Jacob Abbott. 1—In New-York. 2—On the Erie Canal. 3—In Maine. 4—In Vermont. 5—In Boston. With numerous illustrations. 16mo. Muslin, 50 cents each.
The design of this series of volumes, entitled MARCO PAUL'S ADVENTURES IN THE PURSUIT OF KNOWLEDGE, is not merely to entertain the reader with a narrative of juvenile adventures, but also to communicate, in connection with them, as extensive and varied information as possible, in respect to the geography and scenery, the customs and institutions of the country, as they present themselves to the observation of the little traveler, who makes his excursions under the guidance of an intelligent and well informed companion, qualified to assist in the acquisition of knowledge and the formation of character. The author has endeavored to enliven his narrative, and to infuse into it elements of a salutary moral influence, by means of personal incidents befalling the actors in the story. These incidents are, of course, imaginary—but the reader may rely upon the strict and exact truth and fidelity of all the descriptions of places, institutions and scenes, which are brought before his mind in the progress of the narrative.
III.
BLEAK HOUSE. By Charles Dickens. With Illustrations by H. K. Browne. Part 15. Price 12½ cents.
Lately published—

MRS. HALE'S NEW COOK BOOK.—A New Edition now ready.
THE LADIES' NEW BOOK OF COOKERY.
A practical system for private families, in town and country. Directions for Carving, with arranging the table for Parties, and conducting the affairs of the Household with Comfort and Economy.—Also, Preparations of Food for Invalids and for Children. By Mrs. S. J. Hale.
From The Saturday Courier.
Mrs. Sarah J. Hale finds time, we perceive, from her purely literary pursuits, to "dress up" the rules, receipts and instructions which should govern all "well-regulated families" and throughout every department. Her New Book of Cookery, just issued by H. Long & Brother, New-York, not only gives the result of her own valuable experience, but also a complete system of domestic economy, drawn from every reliable quarter. It is pronounced by competent authority the best book on cookery ever published.
From The Christian Advocate.
A valuable book for housekeepers is: The Ladies' New Book of Cookery, by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, a handsome 12mo, just published by Long & Brother, of this city. It is probably the best and most comprehensive American work of the kind, furnishing directions for the preparation of such an abundant variety of dishes as must satisfy the demands of the most omnivorous appetite.
This popular Cook Book is published in one handsome volume of 480 pages. Illustrated with numerous engravings, in paper covers, price 75 cents, or the same bound in cloth, price $1.
H. LONG & BROTHER, No. 43 Ann-st., N. Y.
Copies mailed on receipt price (post paid) address as above.

JUST PUBLISHED—A REPORT of TWO HUNDRED AND FOUR INTERESTING CASES TREATED WITH WATER, by E. Fellerez, M.D., Resident Physician of the Orange Mountain Water Cure Institution, will be furnished (without charge) to all applicants inclosing a postage-stamp, and paying postage on their applications. Address C. S. SELLERS & BROTHER, Proprietors, South Orange, N. J.
