Special Term, the Court said, having power to take it up at any time on account of its being public business.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—Before Judge NELSON.

TRIAL FOR MURDER AT SEA.

The trial of Michael Rearden was continued yesterday. Some little further testimony, but nothing of moment, was given; and the case, after being summed up, was given to the Jury, who, after a short absence, returned a verdict of Manslaughter. [The U. S. Court acting under the Common Law, there being no different degrees of manslaughter, as under the State Law.] He was remanded for sentence.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Before Judge ROOSEVELT.

George T. Stanly against James Watson Webb. To recover damages for an alleged libel, already referred and verdict for defendant.

Henry Courtnay agt. Isaac O. Courtney and Elizabeth Mead, otherwise Elizabeth Courtney.

Suit by a mother to dissolve a marriage between her son and said Elizabeth, on the ground that her son (Isaac C.) was unsound mind at the time of his marriage (14th of June last,) and incapable of governing himself or taking care of his estate; and that it was known to said Elizabeth and her friends, and with intent to come out of the marriage by fraud, she concealed the fact that the marriage was void.

It appeared that the husband was lunatic at the time of the marriage, and so since, and insane. But she is legally and lawfully the wife of said Courtney.

Testimony was given to show that he was in the Asylum. He is said to be about 23 years of age. His uncle (who resides in New-Jersey) stated that he saw Isaac a few days after his marriage; told him that his sister and mother would never be reconciled to the marriage. Isaac said he would blow out any one's brains that would interfere between him and his wife. He appeared to be wild, and the uncle was afraid of him.

It was also said he stated that he went down to Florence's, having no idea of being married, when he met with some young men; afterward they went, the said Elizabeth being with them, to the house of Rev. Mr. Chase, and he and Elizabeth were married. He wished to get out of the carriage before it got to the house.

On cross question being asked, it was said he had been acquainted with her for two or three years. On being asked as to her reputation, he said he supposed it was good but if he caught her at anything he would blow her brains out. The physician stated in the asylum he considered him a person of weak intellect. Another case having precedence being ready, it is one was postponed.

Pierson agt. Davis et al.

On a note, where want of consideration was set up, already referred to. Verdict for defendants.

John S. Ebaugh agt. Talbot W. Chambers, Thos. De Witt, William R. Gordon and others.

Plaintiff is a Pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church. Defendants are also ministers, we believe, with one exception and members of an Ecclesiastical Judicatory of the Reformed Dutch Church, known as "the Classis of New York."

The present suit is brought against the members of the body for libel in having acted upon and adopted a report containing the following resolutions, &c., viz:

"In conclusion, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Classis do now institute proceedings against Rev. John S. Ebaugh on the following grounds:

"First, Contumacy in repeatedly refusing to obey the citations of your Committee.

"Second, Habitual misrepresentations in the matter of the statistics of his Church.

"Third, An attempt to get money by prosecuting the Trustees of the Congregation in Forsyth-st. for salary for a period for which he had received payment from the congregation in Seventeenth-st.

Plaintiff alleges that the object of the resolutions and report was to injure him, and have him dismissed from his charge. He lays his damages at $10,000.

In defense, it is denied that defendants are liable. Mr. Ebaugh, with the other Ministers, and all others belonging to the German Reformed Church, are bound by their own consent to remain subordinate to said Classis; and it is the duty of the said Classis to investigate matters; that certain matters relating to plaintiff and the Church to which he belongs, were referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. Talbot W. Chambers, Wm. R. Gordon, and John Westervelt, and enjoining plaintiff to submit the records of his Church to the Committee for their inspection; that subsequently the Special Committee made a report, concluding as was alleged, and it was adopted; and it was contended that the Classis were fully at liberty to adopt it, &c. The case is on.
