From the Iowa City Republican of a recent date we extract the following: "Last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia M. Hutchinson, in this city occurred the marriage of Miss Sophy W. Hutchinson and Mr. John L. Teeters of Lincoln, Nebraska. The event was in every respect one of the happiest which has ever taken place in this city, where both the contracting parties were well and widely known. Iowa City has given from among her daughters many fair brides but few with whom those who knew her could be more loathe to part, even on so pleasant an occasion, as with the bride of last evening. Miss Hutchinson was one of a family whose daughters have been known for true worth and genuine accomplishments. Both the bride and the groom were graduates from the state university, and to its good influences may be traced the origin of the love which has thus joined two excellent lives. Mr. Teeters, who was a member of the class of '86 is now a rising member of the bar at Lincoln, Nebraska, being a member of the law firm of Stevens, Love & Teeters. The ceremony took place in the spacious parlors, which were elaborately decorated with flowers, promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The bride was attired in a gown of white silk, the groom in conventional suit of black, and the words which made them man and wife were very delightfully spoken by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Barrett, of this city. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. After the congratulations and a pleasing luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Teeters took the ten o'clock train for Lincoln, where they will at once occupy their own home. They will be followed by the well wishes of a host of friends." Mr. and Mrs. Teeters are now at home at 1236 O street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hurlbut gave a delightful card party Wednesday evening at their new and elegant home on Sixteenth street. The house was beautifully decorated and Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut proved charming entertainers. The royal prizes fell respectively to Mr. E. E. Brown and Miss Olive Latta. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames, E. K. Criley, E. E. Brown, A. J. Buckstaff, L. C. Burr, C. L. Lippincott, George Clark, F. W. Baldwin, R. A. Perry, A. W. Jansen, C. Thomson, O. M. Thompson, Alva Kinard, George Brown, A. H. Weir, S. E. Moore, Walter Hargreaves, John Doolittle, Mrs. Thomas Benton, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Giffin, Misses Sadie Becker and Olive Latta, Messrs John Dorgan, C. E. Montgomery and C. R. Richter. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut were again at home to their friends and on this evening the prizes fell to Mrs. Captain Faine and Mr. Edward Holmes. Those present on this occasion were: Messrs and Mesdames, David Wise, R. E. Moore, Chas. Hammond, Douglas Shilling, Edward Holmes, J. W. Winger, O. W. Webster, Samuel Melick, W. B. Wolcott, George Cook, F. A. Brown, B. B. Patrick, Captain Faine, R. D. Sterns, J. Salisbury, Charles Beefer, A. G. Billmeyer, Mrs. Pollock of Chicago, Dr. and Mrs. Dayton, Casabeer and Wrighter, Miss Jamison of Chicago and Mr. Phillip Wing.

The popular F street club which has stood the test of time for three seasons has been reorganized for the social pleasures of the coming winter and at their last meeting the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Mary D. Manning, secretary Mr. Chas. Mills, executive committee, Messrs Manning, F. A. Brown and Landy Clark. The membership of the club is limited to sixteen couple and they all reside on F street. The evenings are spent at members houses in various pastimes, cards however being the principal attraction. The first regular meeting occurs at Dr. Manning's Thursday eve. Following is a list of the members: Messrs and Mesdames, F. A. Brown, Dr. C. B. Manning, Ed. Bignell, F. A. Sohus, Prof. Austin, E. Hiltner, T. H. Benton, Landy Clark, H. M. Warren, Chas. Mills, Tipling, Dr. Casabeer, A. J. Sawyer, Mrs. Harl and Messrs C. H. Hutchins and M. I. Atken.

The Omaha Excelsior pays Lincoln talent a pleasant tribute in its last issue, as follows: "Monday evening U. S. Marshall and Mrs. Slaughter celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary by giving a thoroughly delightful reception at their pretty home in Konatze place. The feature of the evening was a recitation by Miss Almira Parker, professor of elocution at the Cotner university, Lincoln, who is certainly wonderfully gifted. Mr. Wills McCune, who has been a member of the Trinity cathedral choir for a few years sang several solos most exquisitely and shared the honors with Miss Parker. Notwithstanding the disagreeable night the house was thronged with people.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wolcott entertained a company of friends at their hospitable home, Eleventh and H streets, last evening. Mr. Folsom has been engaged in the real estate business here for the past two years and is popularly known in both business and social circles, while his bride is a highly accomplished young lady greatly esteemed in her New York home.

Mr. Frank Driskell and Miss Gertrude Perkins were married Thursday evening at home of the bride's parents, 1220 S street. Rev. Mr. Hull performed the ceremony after which the young couple were serenaded by a number of the lady friends of the bride. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Driskell, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Edith Terry, Mrs. Rykest, Misses Clara Moore, Strum, Katie and Hattie Simmons, Messrs J. Johnson, J. A. Field, James Hasbrouck and C. Calkins.

The Henrietta club, a new organization has been launched in the social swim, with the following officers to guide its destinies: president, C. B. McCall; vice-president, C. W. Weckbach; secretary, Geo. L. Meisner; treasurer, R. B. Willson; executive committee, Chas. Miller, A. M. Stewart, and F. R. Graham. The first party will be given Wednesday the 28th.

Last Friday evening at the home of Mr. W. E. Hardy, there was organized a new Chautauque circle which commences the season's work with a satisfactory membership and the assurance of a profitable winter. The circle was named after James Russell Lowell. Mr. Hardy was elected president and Miss Dena Loomis, secretary. Mr. Chas. McCall has severed his connections with W. B. McArthur & Son, to accept the position of head clerk made vacant at Harley's by Mr. Reilander who will soon launch his own commercial canoe, having purchased the drug business of F. A. Pyle & Co., where he will be found after next week.

Hallet is nowadays one of the happiest men in the city and really has a good cause to be. There is scarcely a day goes by but what he makes a sale or two of some valuable diamond, and it has come to that point in the jewelry line in Lincoln that when the people want diamonds they go to Hallet for them. Every house makes a specialty of some particular article in their line, and while other houses see fit to pay their attention to the smaller wares, Hallet has made the diamond department a special feature and study, and if you are wanting anything in that line you certainly cannot afford to buy before first consulting this popular house. His new line of settings are now in, and he will take great pleasure in showing them to you at any time, although you are not now ready to buy. Of course you know the place—113 North Eleventh street.
