by my life and the life of the three children. Also he considered I did not fear under the knowledge of his inhuman designs; he had got a place of concealment in the next room to where I had stopped.—On the same floor there was only a thin partition between him and me, waiting for an opportunity to accomplish his murderous designs. He still kept on a semblance of dissimulation with me in day time, and to his place of concealment at night, not knowing that I was aware of his sentiments, I being terrified in my mind, and knowing his intentions, I had kept silent, but still watchful of my life from both him and her, and not retiring my life on any night I would go to rest, but the children and me would be murdered on the next morning. He continued watchful still on me in day time, and to his resenting place at night, until such time he had watched me upon a certain day that I had got a payment of some money, out of which amount he had raised me of eight dollars, from which time I could get no account of him for some days, until I came to understand that he still continued in his place of concealment, spending my earning, still keeping her in consent for my life and children's. Also, he coming different nights in succession to the room door where I had stopped, with an axe in his hand, to take my life, accompanied with other associates, which I can certify if required. He still continued on, until this night of the murder he had come to the back window, with others, and was in readiness to come in momentary to kill the children and me. I have heard him express the words, and I getting into such a desperation of mind, I got up out of bed in a rage of distraction, and committed this awful deed, which brings me to this untimely end. This Tunsey still, I understand, makes threats to injure the children, which is in care of the uncle, Michael Mannion, stonecutter, resident in Twenty-third-st., No. 225, near the First-av., east. I hope you will be so kind as to have this acknowledgement of mine and my last request published, and seeing after this Tunsey, even for the robbery, he has been the instigation of this unfortunate affair altogether, of the murder of the woman and my untimely death, and the forlorn situation of the children. He is a most dangerous character. It would by my humble request to have him looked after. Sir, I will conclude by leaving the consideration of this to your conscientious feelings.

I remain your most humble and obedient servant,

THOMAS NEARY, Stonecutter.

Thou art gone! Oh, my mother!
'Tis a bitter truth to feel
That death upon thy once fair brow,
Hath set its changeless seal.
But thy head in faith is laid,
On our Savior's loving breast,
And thy spirit on his love,
Hath folded its wings to rest.

SATURDAY, June 4—P. M.

There was a fair activity in the Stock market this morning without marked change in prices, but at the Second Board the fancies were freely pressed upon buyers, and quotations gave way considerably and the market closed with a downward tendency. Erie fell off to 86¼ @ 86½, a decline of 1 ⅌ cent.; Reading, 86½, a fall of 2 ⅌ cent.; Long Island to 35½, 1 ⅌ cent., &c. Hudson River was steady but dull. Canton, notwithstanding the favorable feeling in regard to it, was not sustained and fell back to 31½, a decline of 1½ ⅌ cent. Nicaragua closed at about yesterday's rates. Morris declined ½ ⅌ cent. The Coal Shares are fluctuating. Phenix fell off 1½ ⅌ cent., while Parker Vein rose ½ ⅌ cent. Cumberland was without change of importance. Jersey Zinc is steady. The Premium Railroads are firm. Railroad Bonds sold to the extent of $50,000 at full prices. A small advance was bid for Governments, but no sales were made. State Stocks are firmly held.

The depression in the market is believed to be partly the result of the large specie shipment of the week, and partly sympathetic with the downward tendency of Erie.

Exchange closed rather weak for the steamer, with fair supply; Sterling, 9 @ 9¼; Francs, 5.15 @ 5.12½.

Freights are not active, and without change. To Liverpool, 500 bales Cotton ¼ @ 32d; 1500 bbls. Flour, 2s. 9d. @ 2s 10½; Grain, private terms; Resin, 1s. 9d.; Bacon, &c., 25s.; 100 hhds. To Hamburgh, 400 bales Cotton at ¼ a cent. To Rotterdam, 1,000 bbls Resin, 3s. To California, rates are steady 45c. @ 75c. 2,000 bbls. Flour by full vessels were taken at $9; and 1,000 bbls. Cement, $9 by full, and $3 by clipper ships. A Br. brig has been taken up to load 12,000 @ 14,000 bush. Wheat for London, at 7d. in bulk; a Sicilian bark with Naval Stores at 28. 9d.; a schooner, (100 tuns,) to Tampico and back, $1,150; a Br. brig for Grenada, (120 tuns,) $600 out; a brig, (180 tuns, from Bangor with Lumber to Tenerife and back to New York, $2,000; a Br. schr. from Jamacia to London, at £2 17s. 6d. for Sugar, and £3 10s. for Pimento, and a Br. brig (to load at Norfolk) for the same voyage, at the same rates, with 5 per cent. primage, both having the privilege of taking Rum at 3d.; a schooner from St. John's River to New-York, $9 for Flooring Boards; a Brig from Nassau River to Rockland, $10 for Sawed Lumber; a ship from St. John to Dublin, 90s. for Deals; one to Gloucester, 95s.; one from St. Stephen to Liverpool, 80s. Boxer, 90 tuns, 9 months old, built in Maine, at $4,000. To Australia, the offerings are small, though some few vessels are about full at 45c. @ 55c.

The amount received at the Sub-Treasury is 168,465. Payments, $16,656. Balance, $6,929,277.

The Franklin took a larger amount of specie to-day than was anticipated, and the exports of the week run up to $1,347,000 and for the year to $6,737,394. Next week however, the export will be small, as the only steamer is the Atlantic. The Collins line is not a favorite one with remitters, as it only delivers its gold in Liverpool. The figures are:

The Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Ct., has declared a semi-annual dividend of 8 ⅌ cent. The Bank of Upper Canada has declared a dividend of 3½ ⅌ cent. for the half year ending 30th June.

The Money market exhibits the same ease as before noted, and rates tend downward. Some loans were made as low as 5 ⅌ cent., and the large banking houses are lending freely at 6 ⅌ cent. The general range, however, is 6 @ 7 ⅌ cent., both on call and on paper. The specie shipments do not have the usual effect upon the money market, as being most in ingots and bars, the gold has never been in the banks, and consequently has never been a basis for bank movements.
