To Whom it may Concern.

IF W. J. POPE of Bennington, Vt., will call at No. 54 Nassau-st., he may hear of something to his advantage.

WRECKED PROPERTY.—Notice is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that the following described wrecked property has come into my possession, to wit: About ten thousand feet of Black Walnut Plank and Boards.

About 6,000 feet of the said lumber is at Barcelona, in the town of Westfield and County of Chautauqua. A small quantity is on the land of Caleb Hulbert, and a quantity on the land of Alexander Thompson, in said town. The residue is in the town of Portland, in said County.

The lumber is in tolerable good condition. Some of it is slightly injured. It is supposed to have been cast ashore from a vessel named C. A Bemus, on Lake Erie. The name of the master or supercargo I have been unable to learn. Where the vessel now is, and its condition are unknown.

The letter M is marked on many of the boards and plank with red chalk, which seems to be the principal mark. The letters D. F. K. F. B. and G. were also found branded in the ends of some of the thick plank. It has been appraised at $8 a thousand.

The above property will be safely kept, subject to the legal claims of owners. OLIVER W. BURCH, Coroner.
Dated, Westfield, May 26, 1853.

$500 REWARD will be paid for information which will lead to the detection and conviction of the parties concerned in the outrage committed upon the person of Mary Ann M'Elroy, who was found floating in the East River, opposite North 9th-st., Williamsburgh, on Sunday evening 5th inst., about 7 o'clock.

She was between 18 and 19 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, clear fair complexion, fine color, dark hair, oval face, blue eyes, rather full mouth, with good sound teeth. When she left she was attired in a cambric dress, purple ground with small dots upon it, a brown satin shirred hat, dark red merino shawl with small spots upon it, white stockings, black slippers, and light cotton gloves.

The circumstances of the outrage appear to have taken place on Saturday evening, May 21, from the residence of Mr. Charles H. Clayton, No. 94 East 16th-st. opposite St. George's Church (Dr. Tyng's,) having been sent for the purpose of purchasing a few articles in the immediate neighborhood, the exemplary character she sustained, and the evidence of violence upon her remains, leave no doubt but that she met with treatment of the most depraved character. Should any such outrage, as stated, have been perpetrated upon the person of the undersigned, (and she, of the late Mr. E. K. Rossing,) who feel deeply interested that the perpetrators of so foul an outrage should be brought to merited punishment, and will liberally reward any person for information leading to a development of the case, and will pay $500 on the conviction of the guilty parties.

Information in regard to the peculiar circumstances of the case can be had of JOHN S. BUSSING, No. 32 Cliff-st.
