Disasters, &c.

SHIP SQUANTUM, Crocker, from Liverpool, of and for Boston, before mentioned ashore on the rocks, about 10 miles nor. Douglas was at the time of the disaster standing close from the Star rocks, onto the Calf of Man, when she was set ashore by the strong current, and went on so far that the passengers effected a landing from the bows of the ship. She was cut off in about twelve hours, with assistance from H. B. M. steamer Porcupine, making only six inches water on hour and put back to Liverpool 11th. She was discharging on the 11th, to go into the graving dock for survey, and would probably not sway about 1st. Her steerage passengers would be sent forward by the Star of Empire, Capt Rowe, to sail June 27, for Boston.

SHIP BOSTON, burnt at Charleston, was insured in Boston for $20,000; $16 500 of the amount was at the New-England Mutual Office Boston.

SHIP JOHN C. CALHOUN, of Bath, before mentioned lost, was insured in Sagamore for $30,000, equally divided between the Alliance, New-England, Mutual, and Equitable offices, Boston.

SCHR PRESIDENT, which was towed into Newport, R.I., after having been ashore, has been taken upon the railway to undergo repairs.

SCHR MOSES G. LEONARD, at Providence, reports, 21st inst. 20 miles W of Montauk, saw a sloop having in tow a large vessel, apparently a four-and-a-half schr., with nothing standing but her bowsprit. was painted green, with two white streaks, and supposed to be in ballast. When last seen they were steering for Montauk Point.

SALE OF THE SHIP GUNDAR.—The undersigned, late of ship Gundar, with her materials and cargo, took place at Boyce & Co's wharf yesterday. The vessel was sold as she now lies sunk in that dock, at the price and on the following terms, to the annexed individuals: Hall, to L. T. Potter $1,050; 1,000 bales cotton, sold on condition of risk and nondelivery, at 55 per bal., $550 50; Rodie, 372 bbls. to Mr. Gevers, at 55 cents per bbl., $133 55; rigging and stuff $1,200; also, 50 bales Sea Island cotton to Mr. J. Gibbs, at $29 per bale $1,044.

[Charleston Standard, 21st.

A NASSAU, N P., date of the 8th inst. states that some of the invoice of the ship William & Mary saved by Capt. Sands, were selling for about $20 gross, which was all paid over to him. The ship's company, for a silver trumpet and some other articles, would be forwarded to New-York.

To Mariners.

Capt. Wilcox, of the Silas Richards, of New Brunswick, at Nakubeevah, Marquesas Islands 28th March, reports a miserable place for provisions or any kinds, which are there to a limited extent, but water is abundant. He also complains of the petty treatment of the French who are now in authority there, and advises all shipmasters to avoid the port, unless in want of water only.
