NEW BOOKS! NEW BOOKS!!—PUBLISHED THIS DAY.
RAVENSDALE; Or, The Fatal Duel. By the author of "The First False Step," "Lost Rummery," etc. Price 25 cents.
"RAVENSDALE—Full of lively incident, careful intrigue, and melting pathos. This book must command an immense sale. Pages sparkling with brilliant wit, and closely followed by scenes of heart-thrilling tenderness of real passion, most naturally depicted. If the characters and scenes of Ravensdale be fiction, they are the perfection of it, for we can hardly believe that all that is described with such fidelity of nature effects, has not usually occurred."
Also, 2d Edition of PAUL THE SMUGGLER. By Capt Hoadley, of the U. S. N. Price 25 cents.
"This is an exciting and romantic tale of Smuggler Life—showing the wild adventures and exploits incident to the life of those hardly disciples of the celebrated Will Watch. It abounds in the most thrilling descriptions of hair-breadth escapes, and is one continued series of plots and counter plots from the commencement to the end."
Will be ready this morning at 10 o'clock, 4th edition of April.
ELLEN DEVERE; Or, The Way of the Will. By the author of "Henry Ashton," "Mattie Gray," "Gus Howard," etc. Illustrated. Price 25 cents.
10,000 copies of this extraordinary work have already been sold, and the demand continues unabated. Those of the trade who have not had the supply completed, will please send their orders as early as possible.
GARRETT & Co., Publishers, No 18 Ann-st.

OVER 10,000 COPIES SOLD.—THE LECTURES OF FATHER GAVAZZI, with his Life, corrected and authorized by himself. Price in cloth, 25 cents; do. do. in paper, 50 cents.
Rev. Dr. Murray (the celebrated Kirwan) says:
Messrs. De Witt and Davenport—Gentlemen: I thank you for the Life and Lectures of Gavazzi. I have read them with interest. The labors of this Italian orator cannot be otherwise than extensively useful. He is a witness, called up in Providence, from the Valley and Shadow of Death, to tell of all that he witnessed there, and so truthful, all graphic and powerful are his delineations, as to carry conviction with them to all unbiassed minds. He has studied Popery as to its claims, doctrines, assumptions, and influences, profoundly. He has been at the heart of the system, and understands all its palpitations. And because of his vivid imagination, his glowing emotions, his great sympathy with the true and the free, and his great boldness in hurling his successful denunciations against the doctrines, the claims, the idolatries of Popery, and the awfully corrupt and corrupting practices of its priesthood, he is just the man for his mission, which I esteem a very important one. Believing that none can read his Life and Lectures without instruction and benefit, and especially without being convinced of the abominable abominations of Romanism, I greatly desire for them the widest circulation. Truly, yours,
N. MURRAY.
In addition to this, we have a host of testimonials as to the fidelity and accuracy of the report from leading clergymen in all parts of the Union. Also a new edition of the celebrated novel of Miss Sinclair, BEATRICE, just ready. DE WITT & DAVERPORT,
Publishers, Nos. 160 and 162 Nassau-st.

A NEW DAILY PAPER in JERSEY CITY.—A PROSPECTUS of THE EVENING NEWS.—The subscriber will issue at Jersey City, on MONDAY, the 22d day of August, the first number of a daily newspaper, to be entitled THE EVENING NEWS. It will be edited by himself as Principal, with the assistance of capable Associates. It will be printed on a large folio sheet (size 22 by 32 inches) of 32 columns, and, in point of neatness and general appearance, will challenge comparison with the opulent dailies of New-York City.
The main feature of THE EVENING NEWS will be LOCAL, it being the aim of the proprietor to give his fellow-citizens a thorough live paper, that will advocate and discuss the rapid advancements and improvements of our City and County—to keep them well advised in regard to all municipal acts and measures, together with the latest reports of all the commercial, legal, criminal, or financial transactions of the City, County and State. It will give full reports of the proceedings of Courts, Public Meetings—Political, Religious, or otherwise—of the various Literary, Mechanical, Agricultural and Scientific Associations—in fact, all public assemblages a report of whose transactions would be conducive to the public welfare.
In its editorial articles THE EVENING NEWS will present to its readers well-digested opinions—political, literary, social, scientific and personal—obtained by the most reliable and authentic sources, prepared and written with caution, and carefully written to avoid giving false impressions.
In respect to the principles of THE EVENING NEWS, it will be strictly and thoroughly INDEPENDENT. Claiming the right of freely discussing all questions, and advising for the greatest good to the greatest number, at the same time it will keep aloof from all political cliques, religious sects, public or private associations, and, in thought, will and action, be for the whole public. It will endeavor to perpetuate good and avoid evil—to act justly and fearlessly—to be courteous, but firm—it should be the vehicle of private or personal abuse. THE EVENING NEWS will studiously avoid personalities. Its columns will be free from devotion to narrow interests, and open at all times to communications respectfully written on any subject of importance to a majority of our citizens. It will always speak well of the good deeds of associations or individuals, and by such means endeavor to stimulate them to still further actions of kindness and benevolence for the general benefit of mankind.
It is the intention of the undersigned to make THE EVENING NEWS in all respects a perfect newspaper; and, while its chief aim is local, it will each day give a complete and well-selected synopsis of the general news of the day, carefully compiled from the latest sources—Telegraphic, Exchange, Correspondence, and otherwise.
THE EVENING NEWS will be published EVERY AFTERNOON (Sundays excepted) at 3 o'clock, and delivered to subscribers in this city, Brooklyn, Hudson, Bergen and most points of this County, before 6 o'clock. Price, ONE CENT, or SIX CENTS PER WEEK, payable to the Carriers. Mail subscribers, $2 per annum, always in advance. Advertisements conspicuously inserted on favorable rates. For terms, apply at the Publication Office.
The establishment of THE EVENING NEWS will be located in the large building, now in the course of erection, at No 44 Montgomery-street.
All communications, advertisements, &c., can for the present be addressed to the undersigned, and left at KASHOWS Bookstore, Commercial Buildings. Letters &c., to be prepaid, and addressed to DANL. E. GAVIT, Editor and Publisher.

LOST—$25 REWARD.—On Tuesday afternoon, 2d inst., either in Wall-st. or Broadway, while in an 8-bow and Temple-square stage, a brown leather POCKET-BOOK, somewhat worn, containing two promissory notes drawn by A. L. Price—one for $112, at 60 days, from 29th July, 1853, and the other for $103 20, at 3 months, from 29th July, 1853. Also, $115 in bills, a one hundred dollar bill on the Merchants' Bank, N. Y.; two $5 bills on the Bank of the Union, N. Y.; a $5 bill Suffolk Bank, N. Y., and a $2 country bill, bank not recollected. The payment of the above notes having been stopped, they can be of no use except to the owner. The above reward will be paid on the return of the Pocket Book and contents to C. E. AUSTIN, No. 87 Wall-st.

LOST—In going from Exchange-place, New-York, to Springfield, N. J., a Diary for 1853, containing Money Memorandums, and a Railroad Season Ticket. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at No. 56 Exchange-place.

LOST or STOLEN—The following Notes—One note dated January 7, 1853, drawn by Ubsdell, Peirson & Co., at 3 months, for $1,268, payable to their own order, and by them indorsed. One do. at 4 months from April 1, 1853, for $3,400, drawn by Ubsdell, Peirson & Lake, payable to their own order and by them indorsed. Any payment of the above notes has been stopped, all persons are warned against negotiating the same. GEORGE G. LAKE, No. 471 Broadway.

$25 REWARD.—Lost or stolen, on Sunday night last, at the foot of Courtlandt-st. about the time of the arrival of the Philadelphia train, a GOLD HUNTING CASED WATCH, for which the above reward will be given, and no questions asked upon its delivery at French's Hotel.

$25 REWARD.—Lost, on Tuesday morning, 2d inst., in Broadway, between Warren and West 13th-sts., a GOLD WATCH and CHAIN, with Pencil Seal and Key attached, (S. G. engraved on seal,) to which value is attached as a gift. The finder will receive the above reward upon returning the same to Mr. ROBERT BAIT, Jeweller, No. 261 Broadway.

To Whom it may Concern.

LITERARY PRIZE.—$500.—The undersigned hereby offers the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the best ORIGINAL TALE, sermon or homoresque which shall be written to the Literary Museum and received by him, prior to the 10th of October, 1853—himself to be the judge, and all unaccepted MSS. to be returned or otherwise bargained for. The public will remember that a prize of $500 was last year awarded by the subscriber to Caroline Lee Hentz on the same terms as above proposed; and any author wishing now to be a competitor will receive a variety of the literary gold FAIR of this offer, if by him desired. It is the aim of the subscriber's object to encourage American Literature to less than to further the prosperity of the Literary Museum. The columns of this journal being small, the story is required to occupy about two hundred columns.
OSSIAN E. DODGE,
Editor and Proprietor of Dodge's Boston Literary Museum.
