The World's Temperance Convention.—The World's Convention will assemble at 10 o'clock A. M., on TUESDAY, the 6th of September, at Metropolitan Hall, and continue in session four days. The mornings will be devoted to business, and the evenings to public speaking. On THURSDAY EVENING there will be a social gathering of the friends in the Hall, for the members and other invited guests—in which there will be music, refreshments and a Moral Live Poem by JOHN PIERPONT, of Boston. On WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON the Hall will be devoted to a Mass Meeting of the Children of New-York and vicinity. All persons will be admitted as members of the Convention who shall present a certificate of delegation from some local Temperance Society. Such certificate should, if possible, be sent before hand to Mr. MARSH, the Committee's Secretary, No. 149 Nassau-st. Per order of Committee of Arrangements.

JOHN W. OLIVER, Chairman.

P. S.—All editors of papers who will copy this notice, will greatly oblige the Committee and all the cause.

Temperance Alliance Tent at the Junction of Broadway and Bleecker-sts. Grand Meetings EVERY EVENING. Addresses This evening by L. N. FOWLER, Esq. and Mr. R. S. HARP, of Louisiana.

At a Regular Monthly Meeting of the Veteran Corps of the War of 1812, held at Headquarters, Star Hall, No. 64 Liberty-st., on Friday evening, August 5th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Hon. AMOS A. HENDEE, of Livingston County, and Hon. JOSEPH ROSE, of New-York, have by their exertions in behalf of the bill providing for the relief of destitute soldiers of the War of 1812, secured the enduring gratitude of the Veteran Corps of the City of New-York, and that every patriot in the State will unite with us in a general voice of approbation for their conduct.

Resolved, That the sixty-six members of the House who voted in the negative on the third reading of the bill, have given evidence of their judgment, their sense of justice to the parties interested, their sympathies for the miserable condition of the poverty-stricken, neglected old soldier, and their pride of Country, by recording their votes on the side of justice and humanity.

Resolved, That we have no disposition to cast any reproach on the many honorable members who voted against any appropriation for the benefit of their benefactors, as we hope and trust they voted in conscientiously. Lone Dog.

Resolved, That we are under formidable obligations, and we hereby tender our grateful acknowledgements to the following papers for their noble and favorable consideration of the bill alluded to: The Tribune, The U. S. Argus, New-York Herald, National Democrat, True National Democrat, Morning Star, and Times, and all other New-York papers that executed or attempted the reverse. Also, The Albany Argus, Evening Journal, Atlas, Rochester Democrat, Daily State Register, and all Albany papers friendly thereto.

Resolved, That to THEODORE MILLER, Esq., of Hudon our hearts is drawn with magnetic influence for his kind, cordial and sympathetic notice of us in his address to the citizens of Hudson, on the fourth of July last.

Lt. Col. H. RAYMOND, Chairman.
A. DALY, Jr., Adj't, Secretary.

NEARLY READY—An original copyright Novel, descriptive of American Life and Manners, entitled ANNIE GRAYSON; OR, LIFE IN WASHINGTON. By Mrs. N. P. Lasselle.

"The scenes portrayed are not fancy sketches, but a picture of Life in Washington, the truthfulness of which will be readily recognized by those familiar with the society of the National Metropolis."

BUNCE & BROTHER, Publishers, New-York.

This Day Published,

OLD PUT; OR, THE DAYS OF '76. A Revolutionary Tale.

A brilliant narrative of some of the most striking incidents of the Revolutionary War, which will be read with absorbing interest. Old Put's, or Major General Putnam's name, has become a household word in the United States, in consequence of the dashing, reckless bravery, and the many successful exploits of the hero. The author has related many new incidents, in a style at once truthful and amusing. Every American who admires the heroism displayed by our forefathers in the days "which tried men's souls," should read this story.

Price 25 cents. H. LONG & BROTHER, No. 49 Ann-st.

Published This Day.

THE ROBBER'S WIFE. A DOMESTIC ROMANCE.

By the author of "Rose Somerville," "First False Step," &c., &c.

Price, 25 cents.

This a startling, vivid and strikingly dramatic Romance. It opens with a bold, vigorous and powerfully written chapter, which is the prelude to a succession of highly wrought scenes, which have been scarcely equaled by the previous works of this very popular author.

The plot is one of startling interest, and the whole story is told with a spirit, gracefulness and strength, which render it almost unpreachable.

THE CABINET HISTORY OF MASSACHUSETTS.
THE CABINET HISTORY OF VERMONT.

The other volumes will be issued in the shortest possible time consistent with their careful literary production.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"These most tastefully printed and bound volumes form the first instalment of a series of State Histories, which, without exceeding the bulky and more expensive works of the same character, may enter household circles from which the others would be excluded by their cost and magnitude.

"In correctness, clearness, skill of arrangement and graphic interest they are a most excellent earnest of those to come. They are eminently adapted both to interest and instruct, and should have a place in the library of every American."—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

"The importance of a series of State Histories like those now in preparation, can scarcely be estimated. Being condensed as carefully as accuracy and interest of narrative will permit, the size and price of the volumes will bring them within the reach of every family in the country, thus making them home-reading books for old and young. Each individual will, in consequence, become familiar, not only with the history of his own State, but with that of the other States; thus national interests will be reawakened, and old bonds cemented in a firmer relation."—Home Gazette.
