M. Each Assembly District Alliance is invited to appoint one Delegate from each Assembly district. Where there are no County Alliances the Vice President of that District is authorized by the Constitution to appoint such Delegates. As important measures relative to the approaching election will come before the Alliance, it is desirable that each district be fully represented.
L. P. ROBBS, President.
EDWARD G. BARTLETT, M. D., Secretary.

☞ Young Men's Temperance Watch Club.—This Society held a social meeting at their Hall, No. 447 Broadway, last evening. Notwithstanding the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, the choicest and musical remarks of CHARLES T. MILES, Esq., Counsellor NISLET, IRA BUCKMAN, Jr., D. C. V. RISENGUE, and Mr. THORNALL, were listened to with breathless attention. The Maine Law, and nothing else, seemed written on every heart.

☞ The New-York State Agricultural Society's Fair will be held at Saratoga Springs on the 20th, 21st, 22d and 23d of Sept. Mr. JOHN A. GRAER, commission merchant, No. 2 Exchange Building, Dunlap-st., New-York, is authorized to receive and forward any articles received for exhibition. (Free carriage on railroads) and give all necessary information. Exhibitors consulting Mr. Graer can confidently expect their arrangements with less expense and trouble, as each article can have personal attention at the Fair. By order,
B. P. JOHNSON, Recording Secretary.

JULLIEN'S CONCERTS, at CASTLE GARDEN.
PROSPECTUS.
M. JULLIEN
has the honor to announce that his first series of GRAND CONCERTS, VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL,
in the United States of America, will commence on
MONDAY EVENING, Aug. 29, 1853, and be continued
EVERY EVENING
ONE MONTH ONLY.
In making the above announcement, M. JULLIEN cannot but gratefully remember the liberal and long extended patronage bestowed on his efforts throughout Europe, which has enabled him to complete his arrangements on a scale of grandeur worthy alike of the support he has received, and of the rapidly advancing taste for music in the highest class, interpreted by artists of equal skill and reputation.
When first introducing his present system of Concerts, M. JULLIEN was well aware of the serious responsibility of such an undertaking, and of the necessity of surrounding himself by a Corps of Artistes whose individual and collective talent still would enable him to rely with confidence on their support in making arrangements for those musical performances on a grand scale, which it was his desire to perfect. The unprecedented success that these Concerts have achieved, M. JULLIEN attributes less to his own exertions than to those of the several artists who have been associated with him in all his undertakings and to whose eminent skill he is celebrated for the fame thus acquired.
Encouraged by his European success, M. JULLIEN has been induced to introduce his musical entertainments to the American public well assured that such patronage as it may be considered they merit will be liberally awarded. With this view, he has engaged CASTLE GARDEN, on account of the immense capabilities already possessed by the building, and the possibility of effecting such alterations as will render it still more applicable to the peculiar character of M. JULLIEN's entertainments, and of accommodating with comfort all classes of the musical public, when the improvements now in progress are completed, from both its natural and artificial advantages Castle Garden will form the most perfect
SALLE DE CONCERT
IN THE WORLD.
M. JULLIEN'S Orchestra will be complete in every department, and will include many of these distinguished Professors, selected from the Royal Opera-Houses of London, Paris, Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Brussels, &c., who, as Instrumental Soli Performers, are world renowned, and who have been associated with him throughout his various musical enterprises.
In addition to his own Orchestra, M. JULLIEN has engaged all the available leading orchestral performers in New-York, who, when combined with his own corps, will form an instrumental ensemble that may be pronounced matchless.
Although these Concerts are in their character essentially instrumental, yet the occasional introduction of vocal pieces gives variety and charm to the entertainments. With this object, M. JULLIEN has engaged the renowned Prima Donna,
MADLLE ANNA ZERR,
of the Royal Italian Opera, London; the Imperial Opera of Vienna and of M. JULLIEN'S Concerts.
The selections of music, in addition to those of a lighter character, will embrace the grander compositions of the great masters, the gradual introduction of which, with their complete and effective style of performance, cannot fail, it is believed, to contribute to the enhancement of musical taste.
GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS.
The programme, (which will be changed every evening,) will be selected from a Repertory of TWELVE HUNDRED PIECES, and will include a Classical Overture and two Movements of a Symphony by one of the great masters, a grand Operatic Selection, together with Quadrilles, Waltzes, Mazurkas, Polkas, Scottisches, Tarantellas, Galops &c.
Operatic extracts, Madlle Anna Zerr will sing a Grand Vocal Scena, and a Ballad or Cavatina.
Two Instrumental Solos will be given in each programme, by two of M. JULLIEN'S celebrated Solo Performers.
The following artists, however, will never perform together on the same evening:
BOTTESINI and KONIG,
REICKERT and LAVIGNE,
CULLINET and WILLE.
Neither of the above artists can appear more than eight times during the series.
In addition to the above general arrangements, M. JULLIEN will each evening introduce one of his celebrated NATIONAL QUADRILLES as the English, Spanish, French, Russian, Chinese, Indian, Hungarian, Polish, &c.; and at the beginning of the second week will be produced the AMERICAN QUADRILLE, which will contain all the
NATIONAL AIRS, and embrace no less than TWENTY SOLOS AND VARIATIONS, for twenty of M. JULLIEN'S solo performers, and conclude with a TRIUMPHAL FINALE.
The American Quadrille has been composed by M. JULLIEN since his arrival in America, and is now in active preparation. Several other new Quadrilles, Waltzes, Polkas, &c., expressly composed for the American public, will also be introduced during the season.
M. JULLIEN would also state that he has made arrangements to devote the greater portion of several separate evenings to Festivals in honor of MOZART, BEETHOVEN, AND MENDELSSOHN, when the works of those great masters will be leading features in the programme.
AN ENTIRELY NEW ORCHESTRA has been constructed, on the most approved acoustic principles capable of accommodating upwards of 1,000 performers; and in order to obviate the only defect of this Concert Room, viz: the reverberation of sound inseparable from all circular buildings, ornamental draperies have been so arranged as entirely to remove this objection; and while preventing all reverberation, will add materially to the splendor of the general coup d'oeil.
Note—Notwithstanding the immense expense attendant on bringing so large a corps of eminent artists from Europe, and the extensive character of the arrangements d'ensemble, M. JULLIEN, whose efforts have always been devoted to the popularization of music, has determined to arrange the prices on a scale commensurate with the objects in view, viz:
Promenade.....50 cents.
Balcony.....50 cents extra.
The Concerts will commence each evening at 8 o'clock, and terminate at 11½ precisely.
Tickets to be had at all the principal Music Stores.

New Publications.

NEW WORK by the Author of "Roughing it in the Bush."
MARK HURDLESTONE; or, THE TWO BROTHERS. By Mrs Moodie, (sister of Agnes Strickland) author of Roughing it in the Bush.
Price—In Cloth, 75 cents; in Paper, 50 cents.
THREE EDITIONS of over 10,000 copies have been sold within ten days from publication.
Such has been the demand for the beautiful edition in cloth that we exhausted all our bound copies on the first day of publication, and are now in a position to say, THIS DAY we have a fresh supply.
THE PRESS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY speak in the highest terms of the work. We have space for only a few extracts.
OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
"A work of graphic power of description and deep interest." [Philadelphia Sun.
"The work before us is one of the most powerful ever published by a woman, full of deep meaning, of stern truth and pure morality." [Baltimore Patriot.
"It is by Mrs Moodie, author of "Roughing it in the Bush" and is one of the most powerful and exciting novels ever written by a woman, and we run no risk in saying, has been rarely equalled by any one. We predict for it immense popularity and an enormous sale." [Buffalo Rough Notes.
"The Tale is written with vigor, the plot is constructed with great skill, and the characters are drawn to the life. It is one of the books to create a sensation; like Jane Eyre, it is enough to render the writer proud, if she not come well recommended by her previous writings." [Sailor, Troy.
"Mrs. Moodie is fast taking rank among the first lady authors of the day, and well deserves to stand by her gifted sister, Mrs Strickland—two twin stars of soft and gentle lustre in the literary firmament." [Nashville Union.
"The greatest interest weighs throughout, from the first page to the last. We recommend it to our readers." [Times and Gazette, Wheeling, Va.
"This book is a gem of its kind, and is quite an acquisition to the better class of our literary books. The incidents are very interesting, the style beautiful and pure and the book just such a one as will enchant with its pleasure by those in search of the best productions of our best literary authors." [Olive Branch, Boston.
"Mrs. Moodie, who acquired a brilliant reputation by her "Roughing it in the Bush," has written a new work called "Mark Hurdlestone," which is said to be of great power and intense interest." [Times.
"It is from the pen of Mrs. Moodie, a sister of Agnes Strickland, and is really one of the cleverest productions we have ever read. It will pay you, we are positive, to buy and read this excellent tale." [Sunday Atlas.

SALAD FOR THE SOLITARY, by an Epicure. 12 mo., with vignette designs, cloth gilt, $1 25.
"The book literally sparkles with gems. There is a good deal of genuine humor in it, and not less of sound common sense and practical wisdom; and we may add, also, a high degree of literary attraction. It is a sort of salad we are quite sure we will put nobody to sleep." [Albany Argus.
"It is one of those rare books that set you thinking—that wake up the brain instead of sending it to sleep, as too many of our modern books do." [New-York Mercury.
"Is piquant and lively, and must prove acceptable to all those who read to be enlightened as well as amused." [Boston Eve. Gazette.
"It is a work to be opened at random, at odd hours, and in all manner of places, with the assurance of finding a meaninful of thought, alike nutritious to the mind and a quickener to its digestion." [Spiritual Republic.
"There is, in fact, a fascination about its pages which will not readily admit of their being abandoned until the whole are well studied. Much solid information is here and there inlaid, and many curious little gems of literature or other pieces are preserved in a rich setting of original thought. Among the whole fifteen pieces there is not one which will not afford present pleasure and food for after reflection." [Albany Transcript.
"It is said such as D'Israeli, Leigh Hunt and Elia might have uttered to convert." [Ladies Home Journal.
"An Epicurean Book" [Boston Transcript.
LAMPORT, BLAKEMAN & LAW, Publishers, the trade, No. 8 Park-place, New-York.

COMSTOCK'S PHONETIC READER, No. 1.—COMSTOCK'S JUVENILE READER, No. 1—Contains progressive lessons in Spelling and Reading. First book, in Phonetic Alphabet; second book, in Common Alphabet. Published by A. S. BARNES & CO., N. Y., and by Dr. Alcott, Philadelphia. Price of each, 6 cents; per dozen, 50 cents.

A TREATISE on DISEASES of the SEXUAL SYSTEM, by Edward H. Dixon, M. D., Editor of the Scalpel, 275 pages, eighty illustrations. Price, $1. The New-York and Boston Medical and Surgical Journals remark:
"This treatise is clean, nervous style, and is calculated to do much good. The descriptions are accurately drawn, and the remedial measures indicated."
"Upon this book appeared the profession anticipated a practical digest of value; not have they been disappointed. Dr. Dixon has written so much and so well on the subjects of Surgery, and his book shows a thorough acquaintance with modern sciences, and such a conversion to the rational principles of Medicine, that we are not surprised that he has managed to secure attention to every page of his contents—his originality and ingenuity, under the mastery of surgical circumstances, stamp it with more than ordinary interest."
THE SCALPEL for AUGUST, 1853, devoted to criticism on above. Medical Students and Domestic Life. This brilliant Medical Quarterly is now ready at 25 cents.
