NEW HOPE DELAWARE BRIDGE—At Public Auction—Receivers' Sale.—The subscribers, Receivers for the Hope Delaware Bridge Co., by virtue of Acts of the Legislatures of the States of New-Jersey and Pennsylvania, and in pursuance of an order of the Court of Chancery of New-Jersey, will sell, by public auction at the Lambertville House, kept by Dunberry & Wanmaker, in the town of Lambertville, Hunterdon County, New-Jersey, on TUESDAY, the 20th day of September next, between the hours of 12 and 5 to wit: At 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that certain Bridge, across the river Delaware, Abutment Lots, and Toll-house and Lot, with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging; and also the chartered rights, privileges and franchises of the said Company.

For several years past it has yielded a clear income of from $3,000 to $5,000 per year—that is, paying the interest of $35,000 besides leaving a surplus to keep the Bridge in good repair.

Since the construction of the Belvidere Delaware Railroad, the income has been constantly and rapidly on the increase; and as the towns which it connects, are in a highly flourishing condition, and are receiving accessions to their business and population, it is believed that this is one of the most valuable Bridges on the Delaware.

A good title to the said Bridge and chartered rights, privileges and franchises will be given, for the particulars of which those wishing to purchase are referred to the said Acts authorizing the subscribers to sell the same.
