Fire-Proof Safes.

MORE SMOKE but no FIRE!!—From STEARNS & MARVIN, who again back down, and show the white feather; and like a frightened hock when hotly pursued, takes to the water, and flies thereby to escape. But, no, no, gentlemen, I have caught you upon your own proposition, where you accept my challenge with one proviso, viz: that I make oath that my Safe is filled according to my Patent, which I accept; and yet you again quibble, and start off (chicken-like) to London, New-Orleans, and elsewhere, and dodge the merits of the case by representing me to be like a "drowning wretch, catching at straws!" Now, gentlemen do you not know that water is the proper element for Herring, and you must (or will soon) know that you cannot scorch this Herring by fire. I cannot permit you to tamper much longer with me and the public, but must now lead you up to the bar for trial, which precedes the execution.

I have selected the following gentlemen, who have consented to serve as a Committee to test your Wilder's Patent Salamander Safe, with Rich's Improvement; together with one of HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES, and one of WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES, manufactured by me, with my improvements, and invite any and all other Safe makers to furnish the combustible and other ingredients, and place their Safes in the hands of the following gentlemen to complete the portion of the Committee:

Jesse S. Lilley, President of Albany Railroad Company.
John Thompson, Banker, and editor of Bank Note List, corner Broadway and Wall.
Wm. F. Dunmore, of Adams & Co's Express.
Simon Leland, Metropolitan Hotel.
John George, firm of George & Brother, No. 144 Pearl-st.

Now, Gentlemen, I name the above well-known respectable citizens, whose veracity cannot be doubted, and ask you to name a like number within ten days from this date; but in case of your refusal, or neglect to do so in compliance with my challenge, a like number will be added to said committee, and my Safes, and one of your make, (and purchase others) will be subjected to a public trial in the neighborhood of the Crystal Palace. Walk up, gentlemen, to the captain's office and e-x-i-t-!-!-. SILAS C. HERRING, Safe Depot, Nos. 135, 137, and 139 Water-st.

FIRE! NOT SMOKE!—Do not flatter yourself, Mr. Herring, that it will be "all smoke and no fire!" much as you evidently hope and desire it, otherwise you would not throw obstacles in the way for the express purpose of making us object to them. In order that you might say we declined accepting your challenge, and in order that you might say we declined accepting your challenge, and in order that you might say we declined accepting your challenge, and I therefore you cannot! The Committee, make your own fire, and of therefore you cannot! The Committee, make your own fire, and of course, destroyed our Safe. Your challenge was a "Herring's Pale-course, destroyed our Safe. Your challenge was a "Herring's Pale-cast" against our "Wilder's Patent with Rich's Improvement." Why do you now add to this challenge a Safe of your Wilder's Patent to be your now add to this challenge a Safe of your Wilder's Patent to be your two tried against ours! Did you hope that we should object because it was totally irrelevant to the point at issue, and you would thus have an opportunity of handing us up there for not to check have an opportunity of handing us up there for not to check upon your proceedings! But we should have no fear of such a response, for we should have no fear of such a response, for it left to the hands of the five well-known respectable gentlemen named in your Committee, and would cheerfully leave all to them, although nominated by you, were it not that you say, "if we do not accede to your terms you will nominate five more!" This of course compels us to name five gentlemen, because your additional five might happen to be the five whose names are appointed, and we should be bound by you, describing a five to be made up by five between you and one of our neighbors. The first name of the five is your chief book-keeper; the second is your assistant book-keeper; the third is the foreman of your factory; the fourth and fifth names we do not know, but presume they are also parties in your employment. With such a trick in perspective, we might with perfect honor decline having anything more to do with the matter, the water being muddier than we ought to paddle in. But such is not our intention. We will grant you the privilege so anxiously grasped at, "to furnish a safe for the occasion." We will be satisfied with your most glaring inconsistencies.

You commenced this controversy by insinuating to the public that Rich's patent was a deception. To give coloring to your assertion, you mutilated the patent by giving such extracts as suited you, and by leaving out the most important clause, that which provides a chamber lined with the preparation and filled with dry plaster. You thus deceived the public as to the nature of Rich's patent; and this you did deliberately, having a copy of the patent before you, furnished by us. But to prove further your monstrous inconsistency, you have been using upon your boxes for ten years past, a bastard imitation of part of Rich's patent, by nailing resin and shellac for a lining, but like all base counterfeits it has proved a decided failure.

Then, consistent in nothing but inconsistency, you have admitted publicly that in every case we have yet tried, "Herring's Patent" Safes you have filled an air-chamber with dry plaster. Thus you, who could sneer at and ridicule Rich's Patent, have actually infringed that Patent in every Safe you have made, not daring to trust your boasted Soda Water Patent without putting in something more substantial than gas! Then again, with more duplicity still, you tell us your Sale's sent to Georgia, Carolina and Louisiana, are "Herring's Patent," knowing at the same time that you have partly filled them with plaster, thus infringing our rights in those States. Not however, will have to be settled before another tribunal.

Your next piece of duplicity was to caution the public against buying Safes of any one but you, as you were the only person authorized by the patentee to make and sell Wilder's Safes. The public are now so well acquainted with our rights under this patent, that they will know how much truth is contained in that assertion.

Your next great deception was your "Herring Patent" Safe that received a medal at the World's Fair, London, 1851, and your Hall's Lock, which also received a medal there, the keys of which were hung up for six weeks, that the public might try to open it and receive the reward inclosed in the safe. Here was a double deception practiced on the community. You state now that you had not "Herring's Patent" in use twelve months ago; consequently it was a "Wilder's Patent" Safe that received the medal. The medal for Hall's Lock was awarded to Wm. Adams & Co., Boston, and not to you. The Hall's Lock upon your Safe was not tried six weeks, but our Jones's Lock placed behind your Hall's Lock as a protector, was the Lock that was tried, and resisted all attempts to open it. You deceived the public by appropriating for your Hall's Lock, the reputation thus acquired by Jones's Lock; and you back up that deception by challenging to with the Lock. We accept the challenge, and take advantage of the opportunities of calling your attention to it, though unwillingly, for, finding that your game at "bluff" cannot be played out successfully, you slip away as quietly as possible, carrying the white feather along with you.

Then to wind up with a greater inconsistency than all the others, you are determined to put into the fire a Wilder's patent Safe of your own make, although that proved to be a failure. We accept this challenge, but it above plainly to the public that you are still doubtful of your boasted "Herring's patent," even when fresh made, and therefore calculate that the reputation lost in the fire on the Herring's patent, may possibly be saved on the Wilder's patent. But, that you may have no pretext whatever for saying we were afraid to meet you, we will concede this point and allow you two chances to our one, experience having proved to us when our Safes were side by side in the same fire that we can afford to grant you this privilege.

We will hand the Committee a list of the names of merchants using our Safes, from which they can select and purchase one, retaining it in their possession until you have manufactured yours. We do not wish you to be hurried; but, as the controversy has lasted long enough, we hope you will see that no unnecessary delay takes place at the factory.

The following gentlemen have consented to act as part of the Committee, and we would suggest the propriety of these gentlemen, along with those named by you, meeting together and nominating five others to act with them:

H. B. Claflin, of the firm of Claflin, Mellen & Co., Trinity Buildings, Broadway.
H. C. Bowen, of the firm of Bowen, McNamee & Co., No. 112 Broadway.
John B. Palmer, of the firm of Day & Newell, No. 239 Broadway.
Wm. H. Pret, of the American Candle Company, No. 5 Bowling Green.

These gentlemen are ready to attend the preliminary meeting, which will have to be called for making the necessary arrangements.

Furs.

FURS at the CRYSTAL PALACE.—Duplicates of all the Shapes in the Exhibition, manufactured with the greatest care in every variety of Furs from choice Skins, are now selling by the subscriber at moderate prices. Also, some very Splendid Dresses in Rich Velvet Cloaks, trimmed with Russian Sable, Hudson Fur Sable, Royal Ermine, Sable Mink, Stone Marten, Siberian Squirrel, Chinchilla, Russian Lynx, the silvery plumage of the Grebe from the Lake of Geneva, and a great variety of other choice Furs. Ladies and visitors are respectfully invited to view these very beautiful inventions, preparatory to their supplying themselves with Furs for the season. CHARLES COOK, Fur Manufacturer and Skin Importer, No. 625 Broadway, New-York.

Several cases of Stuffed Sables and Ermines for sale well worthy the attention of Naturalists, which arrived too late for the Crystal Palace.

IMPORTERS of SKINS and MANUFACTURERS of FINE FURS—THOMPSON & ROESLER, No. 19 Maiden-lane, invite the attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS and CITY DEALERS to their assortment of GOODS in MUFFS, CAPES, VICTORINES,
CUFF TRIMMINGS,
MITS, GLOVES,
BUFFS, SLEIGH ROBES, &c.,
of every description. Each article warranted of the best material, and manufactured this season, with express adaptation to the two classes of trade mentioned.

LADIES' FANCY FURS.—The subscriber's stock of rich fancy Furs, of all nations, is now ready for inspection, and will be found to comprise the greatest and rarest assortment of Muffs, Capes, Pelerines, Victorines, Tippets, Capes, Talmas, and other fashionable garments in Fur ever exhibited in one establishment. Some rich specimens of Imperial Russian Sable are among this collection, and as the further exportation of those valuable skins is now prohibited by the Autocrat, ladies will find the present a most desirable opportunity of purchasing. Professional Notices.

AMERICAN and FOREIGN PATENT OFFICE—GREAT BRITAIN.—Under the new laws the cost has been much reduced; Caveats in opposition have been abolished, except at the Great Seal, and "Provisional Protection" for six months is given to all applicants immediately on demand. Before the expiration of this the Patent must be completed. Repositories are now established for the necessary to an application when notice is given of "intention to proceed." The Patent extends to three, seven, or fourteen years on payment of the Government Tax at each of those periods.

FRANCE, BELGIUM and HOLLAND.—Patents are granted for five, ten, or fifteen years, according to the demand, as formerly.

AUSTRIA is now a desirable country for patent property under the laws as lately modified.

Special Agencies have been established in the principal capitals of Europe, to facilitate correspondence with this Office; hence important advantages can be afforded to Pat
