[illegible] will be awaited and [illegible] Matters look almost hopeful [illegible] and there are [illegible] to be set in motion, [illegible] to the permanent establishment of their institutions [illegible] to the general good of the entire community.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Managers, October [illegible] the committee appointed under the foregoing resolution [illegible] presented the preceding report, which, on motion [illegible] was accepted and ordered to be printed.

E. M. HARVEY, Secretary.

NEBRASKA.

The Chicago (Iowa) City has the following in relation to the prospect of Slavery being introduced into Nebraska:

The religious developes. It is sure certain that the slavery propagandists mean to hold this Territory. They have real, they mean to hold it. They have real, and have the support of the three [illegible]

"Democracy is not open to settlement," declares the organs of the class. And slaveocracy? It is not yet ripe for slavery. Hold back slavery, freedom of conscience, and [illegible] it shall be settled.

Johnson is chosen delegate from Nebraska. He is the friend of Senator Atchison of Missouri, and plays his part well. We deeply regret his election. So does The Chicago [illegible] The Hon. Thomas Johnson, it says, [illegible] of Jackson's tools, and will cooperate with him at Washington, endeavoring to defeat the organization of the Territory.

The Journal [illegible] upon the proceedings of a meeting at which the divine of our city, Reverend Whitfield, a Quaker, was called upon for [illegible] The settlers proposed measures to [illegible] organization of the Territory. These Doughty [illegible] were received. They attacked Benton, the settlers defended [illegible] which was carried unanimously. Benton, the settlers defended [illegible] which was carried unanimously. Benton, the settlers defended [illegible] which was carried unanimously.