Brig Aurora, (before reported,) has been surveyed, and the cargo recommended to be discharged. The only damage to the cargo, so far as ascertained, is the loss of hoops from the barrels.

Brig Pulaski, at Philadelphia from Leghorn, reports: Oct. 30, lat 36 45, on the eastern edge of the Gulf Stream, fell in with the hull of a vessel, apparently about 175 tons, mainmast gone to the deck, foremast 10 or 12 feet above—supposed she had been under jury-masts, as there was a spar lashed to and broke off even with the stump of the foremast. She hailed from Boston; her name was gone, together with all of lashed side of stern quarter, bulwarks, house and deck as far forward as the mainmast; deck wash and bottom painted green, heads and bulwarks black, with white streak and white bowsprit; supposed she was a schooner, as the foremast was bright above the paint; could not make out her name as it was blowing heavy at the time, and the sea making a fair breach over her. Saw a chest and several pieces of sugar and clear boxes a short distance from her. The wind Boston was about half way up on the stern in large letters.

Steamer Eastern City, at Boston from St. John, N.B., reports having seen, Nov. 10, at 7 A. M., an English ship supposed to have been ashore at Mosepecca Reach, drifting to sea, and crew leaving the ship in boats. Wind at the time was blowing heavy from W. N. W.

Brig Edward Rawley, from Rockport, Me., for New-Orleans, struck on a ledge to the westward of Two Bush, about 3d inst., causing her to leak so badly, that after making the harbor, she sank with a full cargo of lime.

Schr. Mary Snow, from Rockland for Boston with lime, ran ashore on Owl's Head Island 30th ult. Vessel and cargo a total loss.

Ship Mediocre, Jones, from Quebec Oct. 4, for Liverpool, with a cargo of timber, was lost on Flower Ledge, N. F., crew saved, vessel a total loss.
