"UNCLE TOM" CABIN," at the NATIONAL THEATER.—This Dramatic version from Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's celebrated work, being the most faithful, has caused it to have a run at the National unprecedented in the annals of history. To-night will commence its 30th week, which, with the afternoon performances of it, will make its 130th representation.
We understand Manager Purdy will shortly make an extensive addition to his theater, and add to it a large and costly collection of curiosities, and at the same time change its name to that of the National Museum. "Uncle Tom's Cabin," true to Mrs. Stowe's book, will be continued throughout the year 1853, every night and WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

BARNUM'S AMERICAN MUSEUM.—MONDAY, Nov. 28, 1853:
UNCLE TOM'S CABIN,
THIS EVENING, at 7 o'clock,
Amusing Farces, Songs, Dances, &c.
THIS AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock,
Uncle Tom's Cabin, at Barnum's Museum, is generally acknowledged to be the only truly sensible version of Mrs. Stowe's great work yet produced upon the stage. Its interest is sustained by some FIFTY TALENTED PERFORMERS, instead of being confined to one character; and the test ensemble, including the BEAUTIFUL PANORAMIC DIORAMA, and the other numerous and admirable accessories, fill the crowded audience with delight. The crowds here are so incessant, that Mr. Barnum, according to the universal wish, announces UNCLE TOM FOR EVERY EVENING, as well as EVERY WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS, for
ALL THE YEAR 1853.
The new and novel drama of
HOT CORN, or LITTLE KATY, is in active preparation, and will soon be produced at this popular establishment.
The three ticket offices (instead of one) now open at the Museum, obviate all the inconveniences of the usual crowd.
Admittance to the whole Museum—to see the Living Giraffe, the Bearded Lady, the Halls of Statuary, the Picture Gallery, the Natural History Department, the Chinese Saloon, and the Cosmorama Rooms, &c., as well as the Performances—25 cents. Children under 10 12½ cents. Seats in the Parquette 12½ cents extra.

PUBLISHED THIS DAY.
NEW WORK BY GEORGE LIPPARD—THE MIDNIGHT QUEEN; OR, LEAVES FROM NEW-YORK LIFE.
By George Lippard. Price 25 cents.
This is a book full of romantic adventures, thrilling incidents, and, we may say, of dark realities, which to many would appear almost impossible, was it not that an evident impress of truth is stamped upon every page, which tells only too plainly that the soul of the writer was set in delineating scenes of danger and extreme difficulty, of temptations, wrongs and retributions. Like the "Quaker City," by the same gifted author, this work shows up all the different phases in city life, and will create a great sensation. The principal characters all really exist, and will be readily recognized.
Recently Published.

FOWLERS AND WELLS, No. 131 Nassau-st., N. Y.

JUST PUBLISHED—TOWER'S ELEMENTS.—FIRST LESSONS IN LANGUAGE, OR ELEMENTS OF ENGLISH GRAMMAR. This is introductory to Tower's Grammar, and yet it is a complete Grammar in itself.
The child advances one step at a time, understandingly. His reason is convinced, his interest excited, and the grammatical distinctions are the more obvious as they are kept free from unnecessary logical refinements which would only embarrass the beginner. All that is asked in its behalf is that Committees and Teachers would examine it. Price 37 cents.
"TOWER'S GRAMMAR—GRADUAL LESSONS IN GRAMMAR, AND ANALYSIS.—This system of Analysis and Composition was the first published in phraseology; and it is free from the cumbersome phraseology and useless distinctions which others have so exactly and nicely copied from foreign works. Every teacher who examines this Grammar is delighted with it. Few works have ever received so many and such high commendations. Language is regarded and studied as the medium of thought. Price 50 cents.
We will furnish copies for examination of the above (free of postage) on receipt of the price annexed.
