GEORGE LIPPARD'S GREAT WORK!

NEW-YORK: ITS UPPER TEN AND LOWER MILLION!

Author of "Washington and his Generals," "The Nazarene," "Paul Ardenheim," "Jesus and the Poor," "Adonis," "The Quaker City," &c.

THE PLOT of the book hinges upon the division of an estate which in the course of twenty-one years swells from two millions to one hundred millions of dollars. In this work the author has endeavored to picture faithfully some few of the UPPER TEN THOUSAND and the LOWER MILLION of the great city of the New World.

"NEW-YORK: ITS UPPER TEN AND LOWER MILLION—George Lippard's last and best work! This novel only requires to be read to be correctly appreciated. As an enchanting work it is unsurpassed. We believe it will be impossible for any person who commences this work to leave it off until he has turned over its last page." [Louisville Courier.

"NEW-YORK: ITS UPPER TEN AND LOWER MILLION. By George Lippard, author of 'Washington and his Generals,' 'The Nazarine,' 'Paul Ardenheim,' 'Jesus and the Poor,' 'Quaker City,' 'Adonis,' &c. This is the best work ever written by Lippard; one continued scene of excitement from the commencement to the end. Those who have read Dumas' 'Count de Monte Cristo' or 'The Wandering Jew,' we are under the impression will be equally pleased with this Novel; readers will find it the most interesting work that has issued from the press for some time." Fine Arts.

THE DREAMS OF BUNYAN are not all dreams; and for sober worth and profit, they are infinitely more valuable than all the waking visions of some celebrated authors. We need not wait for the day of judgment to yield them precedence in glory, infinite leagues above all the incubrations of Sir Walter Scott, Lord Byron, Tom Moore, and others of the class; to say nothing of graver and older authors of fiction and fustian, whose labors of the pen never won from Heaven one smile, or from angels, secretaries there, one registered encomium. * * * * * * * When I think of the gorgeously framed pictures of classic heathenism, of war, romance, love, fancy, folly, even, that appear so ostentatiously in our drawing rooms, I venture just to hint, with all due sincerity and emphasis, how much better it becomes the parlors and saloons of Christians, and of Americans, to have displayed there this magnificent picture of BUNYAN'S PILGRIM, both for ornament and use, so enduring and so good.

The above, from the Rev. Samuel H. Cox, D.D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., refers to the splendid Steel Engravings published by J. P. Jewett & Co., Boston, and for sale by

ANNIN & SNOW, No. 343 Broadway,
