STOCK of ICE and ICE-HOUSES—Also, 136 Building Lots, will be sold at public auction on THURSDAY, March 23, 1854, at 12 o'clock M., on the premises.

This property is conveniently and pleasantly situated, two miles from the center of the City of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, one and a half miles from a good shipping point, and easy and convenient of access, the buildings being located within three hundred feet of the track of the Stonington Railroad, extending to the wharves in the City of Providence.

The buildings comprise five well-built and spacious Ice-Houses, a good Dwelling-House, Barn, Sheds and other out-buildings for the storage of tools, &c., which, together with two other Ice-Houses equidistant from the center of the city, now contain 14,000 tons of Ice, of superior quality, and from 10 to 17 inches in thickness. With the above estates will be sold all the Ice-Tools and implements for cutting and storing ice, combining all the modern improvements in Markers, Cutters, Plows, Planes, Runs and endless chain machines for hoisting ice into the buildings by steam power. Also, the carts, wagons, harnesses and Tools for retailing and shipping ice, together with the good-will of the trade in the City of Providence and vicinity, where a fair proportion of the custom of a rapidly increasing population of about 5,000 inhabitants, has been already secured.

The advantages of this, over other places for carrying on a successful and profitable business in the Ice trade, are second to none in New-England. The facilities for shipping ice from this place to any of the Southern ports being equal if not superior to those of any other port, as vessels can be obtained at all times, and owing to the excess of imports over the exports at this port by water, usually at very low rates of freight.

The present proprietor is now largely engaged in the manufacture and sale of lumber, and is desirous of turning his whole attention to that business exclusively, and for this reason will lease or dispose of this branch of his business. The retail ice trade commences in this city the first day of May.

Terms and conditions of sale made known at time and place of sale. For further particulars apply to either the auctioneer, A. J. LIKE, Esq., or J. A. D. JOSLIN, Auctioneer, Providence, R. I.
