Examination and Exhibition of the Tarrytown Institute.—The undersigned, invited (as an Examining Committee) to attend the twelfth semi-annual examination of this Institution, of which Mr A. NEWMAN is Principal, would respectfully report that we listened attentively to the examination of the classes in Geometry, Latin, Greek, French, Mental and Practical Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar, Single and Double Entry Book-keeping, and the examination in all these branches was well sustained, showing that the scholars uniformly had a good and practical knowledge of the subjects in which they had been instructed.

The Exhibition was held in the evening at the M. E. Church in the village, which was crowded to overflowing. The exercises were listened to with great interest and delight. At the close the premiums were awarded, among which were three elegant Silver Medals, presented to Walter H. Mead, Oliver S. Keys and Pierre W. W. Dey. In a word the exercises both of the Examination and Exhibition reflected great credit on the Pupils and their Instructors.

The Newtown Village Association has been formed for the purpose of enabling its members to procure eligible building lots conveniently to this city at first cost, and through the agency of mill-directed combination to save to themselves the profits which usually accrue to the speculator. The property that has been selected is situated in the Village of Newtown, 4½ miles from the Williamsburgh Ferries, and directly upon the line of the New-York and Flushing Railroad, the communication upon which will be only 15 per annum, and the cars are to run every half hour throughout the day. The locality of the land is proverbial for its beauty and healthfulness and every part is perfectly available for building purposes. The whole cost for a commodious Lot, with an equal interest in the "60 works of improvement", will be only $75, payable in small monthly installments. The Association already numbers over 400 members and all who desire to avail themselves of its advantages should make early application. Public meetings are held every TUESDAY EVENING at No. 195 Bowery, where every information may be obtained.
E. W. KETCHAM, President.
E. V. DAVIS, Secretary.

PROF. HART'S WHOLE WORLD—World's Hall, Nos 377 and 379 Broadway.—Besides the extraordinary novelty of the illustration of the entire surface of the world, there are other attractions of more than ordinary merit here. The celebrated Model of the City of San Francisco is universally admired. The wonderful performance of Master Albano, only eight years old, who executes the most difficult operatic solos on the violin astonishes the multitude. In consequence of the excitement created by Prof. HART'S exhibition, and the unprecedented rush for gift tickets, entitling the holder to four admissions, agencies have been established at the following places for the sale of tickets, where also may be obtained bills of the day, giving a full description of the enterprise: Hankins's book and fancy store, No. 194 Eighth-st.; Union-square Post-Office, Broadway, near Thirteenth-st.; Axford's bookstore, No. 298 Bowery; Neville's bookstore, No. 138 Fulton, and No. 95 Market-st., Brooklyn; Benedict Brothers, No. 65 Fourth-st., Williamsburgh. Single admission, 25 cents; children, 12½ cents. Concerts commence at 3 and 7 o'clock P. M. Lectures commence at 3½ and 7½ P. M. Full particulars of this stupendous enterprise may be had of F. J. RISSCHER & Co., real estate brokers, No. 60 Nassau-st., or at the office, World's Hall.

All orders from the country must be sent post-paid. Money enclosed to Prof. Hart, Nos 377 and 379 Broadway. When the tickets and full description of the enterprise will be promptly forwarded to any part of the world.

AN EXAMINATION OF THE MOSAIC LAWS OF SERVITUDE. By WILLIAM JAY.
CONTENTS. Slavery defined—Indefinite Meaning of the Hebrew Terms of Servitude—Arbitrary and prejudiced Version of these Terms in the English Bible—Hired Servants—Hebrew domestic Servants—Masters not permitted to sell or hire them out—Of the Families of Domestics—Familiar Intercourse between Masters and Servants—Legal Protection of Servants—Masters not authorized to beat them—Might acquire and hold Property—Their religious Rights—Not permitted to dissolve their Contracts except by Redemption—Foreign domestic Servants—Of Strangers in Israel—The Jubilee—Manstealing—The Gibeonites—Solomon's Tributaries—Foreign Tributaries—Jewish Slavery, had it existed, would not have warranted any other.

The above pamphlet published by M. W. DODD, corner of Spruce-st. and City Hall-square, and also sold by H. B. KNIGHT, No. 48 Beekman-st.

"We have read this remarkable commentary by Judge Jay with increasing delight, as unsurpassed through the topics so clearly presented and so ably discussed. Indeed so luminous is that made to appear which has in some respects been regarded as obscure, and so completely exploded is the pro-slavery sentiment of not a few high in name, who rely on 'Hebrew servitude' to sanction chattel slavery, that the lovers of humanity and of God will deem it cause for gratitude that man is protected and the Bible disabused." [American Missionary.

"In this treatise which though short must have been a work of no little labor and research, he has completely annihilated the argument drawn from the Bible in justification of Slavery." [Am. News.

THE LAMPLIGHTER:—
UNCLE TRUE AND LITTLE GERTY.
THIRTY THOUSAND COPIES PUBLISHED IN FIVE WEEKS!

A genuine American Romance, and a book which will live and be read long after the thousand and one trashy productions of the day shall pass into desuetude.

Rarely has a work appeared in America which has received such universal and hearty commendations from the Newspaper Press. We subjoin a few brief extracts:

"The authoress of The Lamplighter has aimed to produce an agreeable and impressive work of fiction. It is high praise to say that she has succeeded in the attempt." [N. Y. Tribune.

"We have no hesitation in pronouncing the Lamplighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic and affecting tales that has lately appeared." [Traveller, Boston.

"No one can study its instructive and fascinating pages without being made better by its kindly influences." [Atlas, Boston.

"The Lamplighter would do credit to any writer." [Daily Advertiser, Boston.

"One of the most affecting and interesting tales ever issued from the American press." [Daily Tribune, Providence.

"For delicate and forcible delineation of character this work is hardly excelled." [Journal, Boston.

"This book develops a variety of characters—some of them at deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens." [Trans., Boston.

"It is a book which is destined to become a great favorite with the reading public." [Daily Herald, Newburyport.

"It cannot fail to suit the most fastidious taste." [Olive Branch, Boston.

"Here is a book destined to have a ready sale unequaled by any other, unless we except Uncle Tom." [Mass. Life Boat.

"The aged and the young will rise from its perusal with an increased love for the kindlier feelings of our nature." [Hingham Journal.

"The Lamplighter is a book which is destined to great popularity." [Daily Bee, Boston.

"An interesly interesting work, and as a piece of composition admirable." [Clapp's Evening Gazette, Boston.

"A book rich in thought, beauty, pathos and tenderness." [Albany Spectator.

"It is a great book, the work of an original mind of extraordinary power." [International Journal.

"Five hundred pages of just such reading as enchains the interest, the curiosity, yea the whole soul, until the last line of the last page is finished." [Boston Gazette.

"This is a work of surpassing interest." [Albany Argus.

"The Lamplighter deserves all the praise it has received." [Commonwealth, Boston.

"It is infinitely superior to any American novel that we ever read." [Waverley Magazine.

"There is no question but that The Lamplighter will rank among the first of American fictions." [Worcester Palladium.

"An intensely interesting book, from the 1st to the last line." [Portland Inquirer.

"The Lamplighter is a delightful story—original, breathing a true and pure spirit." [N. Y. Sun.

"It is unequaled in thrilling interest by any book yet published." [Springfield Post.

"Portions of this book are worthy the genius of Dickens." [Hampden Gazette.

"It possesses the rare merit of interesting alike the young and the old." [Banner Whig.

"It is a great book." [Sunday Dispatch.

"A work of extraordinary power and interest." [N. E. Farmer.

"It is a most enchanting work." [Christian Secretary, Hartford.

"Without exception one of the most deeply interesting tales we ever perused." [Lawrence Sentinel.

"A work which has every element of popularity." [N. Y. Evangelist.

"The Lamplighter is a thrilling and most interesting story." [Lutheran Observer, Baltimore.

"We have rarely read a work with more real pleasure than The Lamplighter." [State Reporter, Concord.

"A book which is destined to be popular, because it comes from the heart and speaks to the heart." [Country Gentleman.

"Some of the best sketches in this book almost rival the masterpieces of Dickens" [Yankee Blade.

"In the execution of her work Miss Cummins has displayed great judgment, an almost intuitive insight into human nature, a careful observation of life, a fine literary taste, a sound and sensible mind, a lovely disposition, a genial heart." [Bunker Hill Aurora.

An elegant 12mo volume of 472 pages, with four illustrations designed by Coffin, and engraved by Orr and others. Price $1 25.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"The work possesses a great deal of thrilling interest, from its highly colored and vivid sketches of drunkenness and its terrible results. It is got up in very handsome style." [Rough Notes.

"Mr. Brown is a vigorous and agreeable writer, and never forgets the object in view, the correction of a great public evil." [Republican.

"It is smoothly and strongly written, founded on facts from personal experience, full of incident, and makes eloquent appeals to the heart and the conscience. This author is always interesting, and the work ought to effect good. It is handsomely illustrated, doing the publishers great credit." [Express.

"We predict for this new work of Mr. Brown's an immense sale. It bears the impress of its author in many earnest and effective appeals to the heart and conscience. Every friend of Temperance should aid in circulating it far and wide." [Herald.

PLAIN REASONS WHY PROFESSOR COLLOT'S FRENCH AND ENGLISH DICTIONARY is the best work of reference for all persons learning the French Language:

1. It is an original American Publication, the only French and English Dictionary compiled in this country, and therefore more correct in its English department.

2. It contains more words than any other French Dictionary of the larger class octavos, numbering 1,926 pages.

3. The Definitions are the most accurate and pure, giving the true shades of meaning in every instance.

4. Obsolete words being omitted by its compiler, he gives an additional number of new words in lieu thereof, which are not to be found in any other French and English Lexicon.

5. The system of Pronunciation, by means, signs, and French characters, is the most ingenious ever devised, and greatly assists the student in acquiring a true utterance of French sounds, and not mere imitations.

6. It includes a vast number of modern scientific words, as well as all the terms used in the Navy, Manufactures and Trade, etc., etc., illustrated by choice examples calculated to give the best explanation to the Student, Teacher, and all others who have occasion to consult its pages.

AN EXQUISITE LOVE TALE.
Published This Morning
THE LOVER UPON TRIAL; A NOVEL.
By Miss STUART; author of "Olivia," &c., &c. Price 25 cents.
PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

Messrs. STRINGER & TOWNSEND invite the attention of all lovers of good and wholesome reading to their new MINOR LIBRARY OF CHOICE TALES,
in which will at all times be found the finest efforts of modern literature. The public may rest assured that every work of this series may be taken up with confidence, and read with corresponding interest and pleasure. The leading foreign magazines (to which we shall look as the principal source of supply for this Library, which shall, however, be additionally enriched by occasional productions of home writers of acknowledged talent and celebrity) abound in short tales, from the pens of the ablest writers in Great Britain. These tales, although large enough for a medium sized book, are yet too small for our larger LIBRARY OF STANDARD NOVELS, which, like the present series, embraces only the best works of the best authors, and enjoys a larger patronage and a wider popularity than any similar enterprise ever undertaken in this country. All such minor productions, when bearing the impress of unmistakable talent, shall be incorporated into our "MINOR LIBRARY," and placed before the American public with all the advantages which new and readable type, good printing, and firm white paper can give them. The volumes of this series will be found admirable companions for leisure hours; they will serve to shorten the journeys of all railroad travelers, and while away an evening at home most delightfully, as each can be very conveniently read at a single sitting.

The first "Choice Tale" selected is Miss STUART's exquisite Love Story,

THE LOVER UPON TRIAL.

In this charming little Novel is embodied the same brilliancy of style, the same capacity to analyze, and depict the interest-emotions that the author has exhibited in her previous works. The principle characters of the story are truthfully sketched, and with much power. The dialogue is lively and spirited. To read these pages is like being introduced into the sterling realities of life, idealized by education and refinement.

Then, beneath all its wit and interest, this work has a deep moral, and conveys an admirable lesson to the gentler sex. "The author has a quick and delicate perception of the external indications of emotion, and has a happy talent for expressing the thoughts and passions."

Published by STRINGER & TOWNSEND, No. 222 Broadway; and for sale by all the principal Booksellers throughout the Union.
