J. G. ASEN, Secretary. ALFRED CARSON, Chief Engineer.

At a meeting of the Irish Emigrant Society, held at their office, on Tuesday, 25th inst., the Chair announced to the meeting the sudden decease of their late acting President, James Mathews, Esq., whereupon the following resolutions were presented to the meeting by Mr. Edward G. Dominick, and, on motion of Mr. Felix Duffy, by unanimously adopted:
1. Resolved, That we have received with feelings of deep sorrow the intelligence of the death of our President, James Mathews, Esq.
2. Resolved, That his zeal for the welfare of the Society, united with his great experience and business attainments, gave promises in the short time during which he held office of his proving a most valuable and efficient officer.
3. Resolved, That the Officers and Executive Committee of the Irish Emigrant Society have lost an earnest co-laborer and a valued friend by the death of their late President, and that they heartily sympathize with his family in the bereavement they have sustained.

5. Resolved, That the resolutions be entered on the minutes; that they be engrossed, and sent to the family of the deceased.
JAMES OLWELL, Chairman.

The undersigned, passengers on board the steamship Northern Light on her present trip from San Juan de Nicaragua to New-York, cannot, in justice to our own feelings at the close of a safe, rapid and remarkably pleasant voyage, omit the expression of our thanks and commendations. The ship is, for all the qualities of a sea steamer, unsurpassed, and the liberal manner in which her stores have been supplied reflects credit on the Company. In Capt. Churchill we recognize all the qualities of the gentleman, navigator and master, that admirably fits him for his position. The highest praise we can bestow upon the Purser, Engineer, officers of the deck and Steward, is to say that they are fully worthy to sail in such a ship and under such a Captain.
J. KNOX, M. D. Capt J. TALBOT SEITZER,
G. W. MELLAR, J. M. HUNTINGDON,
On behalf of sixty other cabin passengers.

The Albany-st. Question.—The report of the Committee of the Board of Aldermen on Friday night, which we publish in another column, seems to have amazingly displeased the opponents of that measure. One of the people, who signs himself "Manhattan," writes to us follows to The Budget, the new Native American daily, recently started under such flattering auspices:
"SIR: We are glad to see that in the Board of Aldermen last evening a majority of the Committee on Streets reported against that iniquitous measure, the opening of a street through our old city burying ground of Trinity Church. The report was received by the Aldermen of the 1st Ward, the Aldermen of the 11th Ward, and the Aldermen of the XXIId Ward asked time for a separate report of their own, intimating that it would be to the same purport. All honor be rendered to those true American hearts who could not be induced to sanction the selfish schemes of those who under the specious name of 'improvement,' would disturb the ashes of those who founded and preserved this great Republic. We rejoice that we can hear testimony to the good feeling of those we so widely differ from on other matters, in this eminently New-York matter. Freeman's Journal, the organ of the Roman Catholics in this city, has spoken out manfully in opposition to the barbarian attempt to root out the 'Old Yorkers.' The Independent, a Presbyterian organ, The Churchman and Church Journal, The Citizen, the Methodist papers, and in fact journals of all creeds and professions, have denounced the barbarism intended to be perpetrated. Let us see, by all honor to the Aldermen who have come out as champions on this New-York question.
MANHATTAN."
On this subject a correspondent sends us the following as a specimen of what some people consider
COMPLIMENTS TO ALDERMEN.
"The stupid few who are desperately fighting for their characters by endeavoring to coax or frighten the present Common Council into confirming the iniquity of their predecessors in the matter of Albany-st., have committed the folly of appealing again to sectarian prejudice in order to influence Aldermen to take pity upon their hopeless case. The Journal and The Tribune of Saturday, and probably other papers, have an article comparing Episcopalians to Turks—Christian Priests to Ottoman Ulemas, Churches to Mosques, and the Provisional Head of the Diocese of New-York to the Hierarchy of Constantinople. Good gracious! OMEGA."

HEAR WHAT the PRESS SAY of DR. DODS'S BOOK ON SPIRITUAL MANIFESTATIONS.
The following notice, from The New-York Tribune, speaks for itself:
"Few better books in opposition to the so-called spiritual manifestations have been called forth by the existing controversy on the subject, than the volume before us. It is uncommonly readable, as we can testify from actual experiment—calm and philosophical in its tone, free from abuse or ridicule of the spiritualists, and abounding in facts for the support of its views. * * * No one whose mind is given to the investigation of the matter should neglect the perusal of this volume. Apart from the peculiar views it maintains, it is both curious and instructive."
"We have never read a more convincing book. Read it if you would have a full exposition of rappings, mediums and table-turnings." [Philadelphia Sun.
"He reasons and writes in a sensible, manly way, and we think Judge Edwards would do well to read the book carefully." [Evening Mirror.
"Dods is a close thinker and a clever writer. His book is both able and quaint. Those who are interested in the spirit question and desire to see it treated in a spirited manner should have Dods." [Boston Bee.
"It appears to be a very able work, and generally more satisfactory than anything that has been attempted for the accomplishment of the same result. The volume, besides being very interesting, is calculated to do much good. It is a powerful antidote to a deadly poison." [Palladium, New-Haven.
"The author has produced a work that will be read with interest by thousands." [Clipper Baltimore.
"We commend this book to the attention of all who are desirous of arriving at the truth with reference to spiritual manifestations." [Eve. Argus, Philadelphia.
"He handles the subject in a way that must prove highly satisfactory to those who are honestly seeking the truth." [Boston Mail.

VIOLET; THE CHILD OF THE CITY. A Story of New-York Life. By Robt F. Greeley.
This Metropolitan Novel, by one of our most popular writers, is destined to create a sensation equal to anything lately published in the same field of literature.
A commendable idea is the plan of this book is the direction of public attention to the establishment of private asylums, which are just now getting to be numerous among us, and to the merits of which a just tribute is paid in the character of the wealthy and charitable Mrs. Arthur. The death of Pryse Benedick, and the subsequent fate of Julia, the heiress—the destruction of the ruined hovel—the trials and temptations, and the subsequent rescue of the heroine, offer materials for the construction of a plot of which the author of "Violet" has most happily availed himself.

This is a new edition, very much enlarged and brought down to the present time, of a work published ten years since. It is a most timely publication, showing as it does, in a manner not to be gainsaid, the regular systematic and constant encroachments of the Slave Power, from the adoption of the Constitution to the NEBRASKA INIQUITY.
Reader, would you know what Despotism may exist under the stars and stripes of a Republic, peruse with care this masterly work.
